

Howe's That

We were surprised last week with a phone call from the Press Club of Dallas telling us that the Howe Enterprise is in the finals for the Hugh Aynesworth Award for an article we published about the tornado in 2016. The article was not so much about the tornado as it was the amazing community in which we live.

We will dress fancy for an awards banquet at the Sixth Floor Museum in Dallas on Nov. 30 to see if we are the winners in the "Weekly Newspaper" category. The other publication is from Brownwood, Texas. Should we win the award, we will have to give a two-minute speech in front of amazing journalists from all over the State of Texas. I am anything but a trained journalist, so there will be some nerves involved that evening.

I can't help but think about my Papaw and how proud he'd be of this recognition. It was 10 years ago this month that we lost him to cancer. He's smiling down for sure.

We will report the local news and keep our focus on what is important and relevant to you. While we are online-only due to the best way to reach you, we are NOT in the business of irresponsible and misleading headlines to make you click on something only meant to stir your emotions and make you, our loyal reader, eventually mistrust us. It is our belief that today's mega news organizations are now in business for financial gain with disregard to ethics, morals, or decency. We consider ourselves servants to our community, not money.

Howe Enterprise named finalist for Hugh Aynesworth Award by Press Club of Dallas

The Howe Bulldogs and were very close to winning their first game of the season on Friday night. Howe Head Coach Zack Hudson made more changes to the offense trying to find the right combination of players in positions. For the second time this season, Howe has moved an offensive lineman to the backfield. Two weeks ago, it was Mikey Hymel who made the transition from offensive guard to slot back. This time it was Chase Harvey, who made the extremely seldom move from offensive guard to quarterback. While the new signal-caller had an impressive performance and re-energized the Bulldogs, Howe (0-5) was unable to hold off the Caddo Mills

'Pride of Howe' finishes third in Class 3A in first competition

The Howe High School Marching Band, 'Pride of Howe', competed at the NETEX Marching Contest at Texas A&M Commerce. There were 22 bands in attendance with over half of those being of 4A and 5A classifications. Howe finished number 10 overall. Competition rules state that 10 bands advance to finals but four of those spots were reserved for the classification winners, so although Howe finished with a much higher score than the Class 1A and 2A winners, those schools were able to compete in the finals in the 10th spot).

so that we could get those 'first contest jitters' out and work out some of the kinks of staging our show."

Every school that finished ahead of Howe, even those in Class 3A, were much larger schools than HHS. The scored were very tight with only a couple of points separating fourth through tenth place.

"With all the bigger schools there I didn't necessarily expect to make finals but when we got so close, I really wish we could have gotten that second run in the finals because I know and the kids know we could have done some things better," said Liss.

The Pride of Howe will go to work this week to improve on what was a very good performance and compete next Saturday, Oct. 7 in Aubrey at 2:15

"We got wonderful comments and feedback which will help us know what we're doing right and where we can improve," said Band Director Angie Liss. "My goal in competing at this contest was to get a good run on a turf field in a contest setting

Howe Middle School Principal asks parents for help with crowded campus

Howe Middle School Principal Clay Wilson is seeing the traffic effects of the overcrowded campuses of the Howe Elementary and Howe Middle School. This week, he sent a memo home to parents pleading to help keep the students safe on the block that is seeing an estimated 50 more vehicles at drop-off and pick-up times.

Wilson's reminder was to:

- 1) Drivers, please stay off cell phones,
- 2) Parents walking with students, please observe the crosswalks and staff facilitating traffic and
- 3) Do not park on or near the half circle on the east side of the HMS building. Please pull up past the driveway. Traffic gets congested near the flag pole if students are picked up near that area.

A thank you from Coach Simmons

On Sept. 22 at 9 am, I walked into the Howe High School gym, for our homecoming pep rally. When I walked into the gym I was touched deep in my heart by an incredible, wonderful, and blessed experience. Every Howe Bulldog in Howe ISD from kindergarten to the senior class along with teachers, administrators, and friends had on a t-shirt bearing my name. Howe ironic, because my heart. Bears all their names. My heart gears the names of all my Bulldogs from 1987-2017. Some were in high school and middle school when I first arrived. My other Bulldogs being members of my famed 36 divisions. All marching through the halls of the Howe Elementary and P.E. program, all marching into Bulldog history and all marching right into my heart.

I don't know how Pam Kirby was able to organize the event without me knowing. Even my wife Doreen was a soldier of the secret. The pep rally was an awesome event. The cheerleaders, band, athletes, coaches, faculty, administration, employees, family, friends, and all the Howe Bulldogs truly took the flame to the very top.

I would like to thank Pam Kirby for her incredible effort to organize this most incredible pep rally and most meaningful event in my life. I also want to thank my Bulldog cheerleaders for a spectacular portrait of Howe Bulldog history, tradition and love, painted by my own Howe Bulldog, Jordan Streetman. Thank you, Jordan.

I also thank you for the beautiful flowers that you gave to my beautiful wife, Doreen.

I would like to thank Monte Walker for the introduction to have such a talented Bulldog to provide that introduction was very meaningful.

I would also like to thank our wonderful sponsors, Sonic of Howe, Howe ISD, Howe PTA, TLD Design Consulting, Southwest Auction, Texas Farm Bureau - Loretta Anderson, Frantz Group, Howe Family Dentistry, Edward Jones, Griffin Farms, Provider Business Partners, Attorney Micah Belden, Cavender Motors, Howe Athletic Booster Club, and Tom and Debbie Watt.

They provided over 1000 t-shirts. They also presented me with an amazing watch. Which is inscribed with many special words. The most meaningful word being the word that went from being my title to being my name, Coach.

Above all, to the entire Bulldog Nation and my beloved 36 divisions - I want to thank you for the pride that we have, the joy we share and an entering of love.

Foxes' (3-2) fourth quarter surge to come back and shock Howe, 17-14.

Harvey completed 11 of 16 passes for 171 yards and a touchdown to cousin Ty Harvey. The Harvey-to-Harvey connection was good for three big plays and the Ty Harvey finished with six catches for 129 yards.

Caddo Mills won the coin-toss and elected to receive to start the game, but quickly went three-and-out due to a great defensive stand. Howe's first possession was impressive by moving the ball 51 yards on 11 plays and taking 4:51 off the clock, but it ended on a turnover on downs at the Caddo Mills 27 yard line after miscommunication between the new quarterback and a new receiver. While Howe's offense was learning on the fly, the defense was holding Caddo Mills to the minimum amount of plays.

The 'dogs next possession took only five plays to go 42 yards which most of it came on a 36-yard pass from Harvey to Harvey.

The screen pass that was tipped by a Caddo Mills defender and incorrectly ruled a lateral. Riggs is one yard in front of Harvey.
Michelle Carney/Howe Enterprise

Only four plays later, Chase Harvey sneaked in from the one yard line and Howe took the first lead of the night, 7-0 after Calley Vick's PAT.

The Howe defense again forced a quick punt before getting the ball back at their own 25 yard line. Howe took 5:36 off the second quarter clock and went 75 yards on 10 plays. The scoring strike was again the big play of Harvey to Harvey for 31 yards. Vick's PAT was again successful and Howe led, 14-0 with 5:36 left before the half.

Caddo Mills finally created some offensive momentum on the next series. Foxes' running back Payton Hammond started to stretch the field by running laterally down the line and turning the corner for an average of eight yards per carry on the drive. He would eventually catch 20-yard touchdown pass from Cade Hayden to cut the Howe lead in half at 14-7 with 4:36 left in the second quarter. The 5-play, 70 yard drive gave Caddo Mills was the ignition to the Foxes offense for the evening.

Howe's next possession ended in a punt, but the Foxes had a chance to score just before the half with 2:21 remaining. Howe's defense came up with great plays to force a turnover on downs to end the half.

While the Bulldogs controlled the ball and clock for the most part in the first half of the game, the Foxes turned the table in the second half and Howe's defense spent most of the time on the field in the third and fourth quarters.

The first two possessions of the second half ended in punts, before Howe put together a 9-play drive which started at their own 29 yard line. Harvey to Harvey for 37 yards gave Howe a first-and-goal from the three yard line, but a bad center-to-quarterback exchange and a tipped screen pass mistakenly ruled a lateral pushed Howe back to the 19. A sack ended the drive which appeared to be a lock for a touchdown that would have made it difficult for Caddo Mills to comeback. Instead, Howe remained ahead at 14-7.

The Foxes' next possession was an impressive one in which they ran 11 plays and 72 yards to tie the game at 14. Caddo Mills kept the Bulldogs defense on the field for four minutes. Ty Harvey had a chance for an interception, but the ball sailed through his hands. That kept the drive alive and Hayden ran in the tying score around the left edge from the 12 yard line with 10:05 left in the third.

The game changed on the ensuing kickoff when the Foxes elected for an onside kick. The kick sailed out of bounds which would have given Howe the ball, however, the officials said they called an official timeout before the kick which meant the Foxes were allowed to kick again which they were able to recover. That gave them a short field where they only had to drive 26 yards on 10 plays to kick the go-ahead 30-yard field goal by Cullen Brown. Caddo Mills led for the first time, 17-14 with 5:08 left.

Each of the teams had to punt before Howe made a last attempt to win the game with 2:28 left in the game. Chase Harvey led the 'dogs down the field from their own 22 yard line to near midfield. One more attempt at a big-play Harvey to Harvey connection ended in an interception with 1:20 remaining in the game.

Howe finished with 96 rushing yards and 171 passing yards. Caddo Mills had 62 passing yards and 121 rushing yards. Howe was lead by Andrew Griffin with 14 carries and 53 yards. Chase Harvey added 15 carries for 31 yards. Mikey Hymel added three catches for 27 yards.

It's the first time Howe has been 0-5 since 2005, a season that ended with a 1-9 record.

The Bulldogs get a much needed bye week before starting district play at Pottsboro on Oct. 13.

CAMP DRAGONFLY – Children’s Grief Camp October 20-22, 2017

Sherman, Texas, September 25, 2017 – Registration for Camp Dragonfly is now open. Camp Dragonfly is a weekend retreat, led by professional clinicians and trained staff, for children ages 8-12 who have suffered the loss of a loved one. All activities at Camp Dragonfly are designed to help children heal and live successfully after loss. During the weekend, campers have the opportunity to participate in art activities, games, nature hikes, discussions, and a campfire with s’mores.

“Campers learn ways to process feelings and treasure memories. Camp is not about forgetting, it is about healing. We use exercises to help the children learn to process grief and then fun activities to practice the coping skills they are learning,” said Nancy Jackson, Community Development Director and Camp Director. “Children grieve differently than adults. Some children have behavioral problems, some struggle with schoolwork, some become argumentative or fearful, some hesitate to be away from a parent, and many don’t like to be alone.”

Children dealing with grief often feel isolated and feel that no one understands. One of the goals of Camp Dragonfly is to give the campers a chance to be with others who can relate to their feelings of grief and sadness to help them realize that they are not alone. “My child very much enjoyed camp, she has always felt different from other children and camp seemed to make her feel like she belonged,” said a parent whose daughter attended a previous session. “The grief counselor I talked to was awesome! She was very honest and straightforward with me. She even asked how I was handling everything.”

Parents participate in a mini-camp designed to not only provide them with resources, but insight as to how children grieve. The goal is to help the parents understand that a child experiences grief differently and help parents recognize and help them to cope with those behaviors.

The fall session of Camp Dragonfly is scheduled for October 20-22nd at All Saints Camp on Lake Texoma, 418 Stanton Way, in Pottsboro, Texas. If you know a child who would benefit from participating, contact Nancy Jackson at (903) 868-9315 or nancy.jackson@homehospice.org.

Howe PD arrests two with cocaine on US Highway 75

On Sept. 22 at 9:52 pm, a Howe Police Officer saw a silver Chevy Cobalt without a tag light traveling northbound on U.S. Highway 75 at Farmington Rd. ## Protecting our spiritual sensitivity

Dr. Billy Holland

A couple of months ago, we brought a new English Bulldog puppy into our home and he has been such a wonderful addition to our family. When we bought him, they told us he was 8 weeks old, but after finally receiving his papers from the breeder, we noticed he was actually only 6 weeks old at the time. He was a healthy bruiser and we would laugh at him stumbling and being uncoordinated, but now we realize it was just because he was such a young baby. We would sit on the front porch in the evenings and watch him investigate around the front yard. He was so happy as he would roll around in the grass and explore his new surroundings, but when he would hear a loud commotion or a noisy car passing by, it would scare him and he would come running to us. After a while, he gradually became more used to the traffic sounds and lawn mowers and eventually it did not bother him at all. As I was spending time with him one evening, it dawned on me that our conscience is also sensitive to what we see, hear, and think about and how each of us can choose to remain tender-hearted or we can become calloused and indifferent. When we are confronted with sin, maybe we should consider running to God for protection.

When we consider our spiritual life, we have been called to guard and protect our conscience from the darkness of iniquity. A huge part of accepting Jesus as the Lord of our life is to respect His holiness and for us likewise to attempt to live a pure life. You see, the idea is that God hates anything that resembles sin and we are also to feel the same way no matter how tempting and desirable it may seem. Unfortunately, many individuals are convinced this concept is old fashioned and not really that important. Have you noticed lately that people in general do not want to hear about self-discipline or messages that contain topics about changing the way we think and live? In our defense, we consider this intrusion as meddling and no ones business, including our creator. The Bible defines this as conviction which are the uncomfortable feelings that we feel whenever we know we are doing something wrong but love it too much to stop. I can relate to this daily battle because I struggle just like everyone else. Our old human nature is opposed to virtuous living and is always willing to fight for its independence.

As we saw with the puppy's development, we notice similar reactions with those who live close to railroad tracks or airports but they eventually get used to the sounds. We have several clocks in our home that are bonging and gonging all the time and when people come in, they say wow listen to all those chimes while we do not even notice them. It's one thing to get used to sights and sounds that do not hinder our spiritual life, but it's dangerous to let our guard down when it comes to accepting things that are contrary to God's standard of sanctification. I am reminded of the old Dick Van Dyke show where even though Rob and Laura were married, there were two separate beds in the bedroom. Back then even the idea of a married couple in the same bed was socially and morally taboo and that was only fifty years ago. What happened to our modesty? As television and movies are pushing the limits of morality, so are the temptations to dwell on thoughts that are corrupt and ungodly. If we are not careful, we will become numb to perversion, darkness, and wickedness like the frog who sits in the pan of water on the stove and hardly notices he is being boiled. If we absorb and accept small amounts of impurities here and there, before long we will not be offended or insulted at all, in fact we might begin to enjoy it. "Having therefore these promises dearly beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God" II Corinthians 7:1.

You may be surprised to know that there are about 700 registered button collectors in Texas who belong to 11 button clubs across the state. The Texas State Button Society will hold its Spring Show March 24-25, 2018, at the Hilton Waco, 113 South University Parks Drive, Waco, Texas 76701. Reservations: 254-754-8484, deadline February 26 for TSBS special $129 room rate. Showroom hours: Saturday 10AM-5PM, Sunday 10AM-1PM. Theme: Button Reflections. Contact: Debbie Allnut, 214-755-3764, Buttondebtx@hotmail.com. The closest metroplex club is in Fort Worth.

The National Button Society now has more than 3,000 members on four continents, with 39 of the 50 states represented by state and local button clubs. The National Button Society annual convention will be held August 19-25, 2018 in Jacksonville, Florida.

Sadly the Denton Button Club disbanded many years ago when many of the members became to old to attend meetings. I remain friends with many of the club members to this day. And I still love to look at and study about the manufacture and beauty of these little jewels.

Come see my friend's collection in October at Howe Mercantile.

SPECIAL NOTE: Howe Mercantile will not be open on Wednesdays for the foreseeable future. We experimented during the summer, but it is too difficult to schedule staffing that extra day. Perhaps we will be able to open more days during the holidays.

Recently the daughter of a dear departed friend of mine who was a member of the Denton Button Club brought her button collection to me to sell. My friend loved handmade Czech and rhinestone buttons, buttons all in one color, mother-of-pearls, black glass with silver and gold embellishment, realistics, bakelite, and celluloid. Like me she was not discriminating in her choices, she just liked all buttons.

The button in the photograph is a beautiful example of a "Gay Nineties" jewel button. They are typically rather ornate, large buttons with glass settings that were closures for coats or cloaks. The hey-day of Gay Nineties jewels was from 1890-1910, although some were made as late as the 1920s. Their distinguishing feature is a single prominent stone with an ornately decorative border. Borders were made of silver plated

Dr. Georgia Caraway, and her friends, opened the Howe Mercantile at 107 East Haning in April 2015. Store hours are Thursday through Saturday noon until 8 p.m. We are excited to have Bucky's Farm All Natural Goat Milk Soap made in Howe for sale.

Georgia, former director of the Denton County Museums for 14 years, has written five Denton history books and hopes her next book will be the history of Howe. If anyone has photos that she can copy, please bring them to Howe Mercantile.

The Bulldogs 4 Bulldogs PAC has announced that they will host a tailgate party prior to the 55th Battle of the Silver Spike on Oct. 20.

The group will have free hamburgers and hot dogs and more. Their intention is to gain support for the upcoming crucial bond election for the Howe ISD which is facing overcrowding issues at the elementary school. The Howe ISD Board of Trustees voted in favor of moving forward with a plan that would construct a new $17 million, four-grade-level campus that would allow for pre-kindergarten, kindergarten, first grade, and second grade to be housed in the new building on a tract of land yet to be determined. The campus would allow for more room at the existing elementary and middle school campuses which are currently sharing one cafeteria forcing students to rotate lunch times from 10 am - 2 pm.

Howe ISD says that enrollment is growing at nine percent per year.

The bond is estimated to cost $14.31 per month on a $100,000 home, $23.85 per month on a $150,000 home, $33.40 per month on a $200,000 home, and $42.94 per month on a $250,000 home.

Early voting starts Oct. 23 through Nov. 3 at the Howe Community Center. The actual election day is Nov. 7 at the same location.

Texas History Minute

Dr. Ken Bridges

Dr. Bridges is a Texas native, writer, and history professor. He can be reached at drkenbridges@gmail.com.

Price Daniel was one of the few men in Texas History to serve in all three branches of state government – as governor, state legislator, and state Supreme Court justice. He was known for his sense of right and wrong, but his stands were sometimes controversial. In a political career that spanned decades, Daniel became one of the most well-known figures in the state.

Born Marion Price Daniel, Sr., in October 1910, he was the son of a rancher. He was born just outside the small Southeast Texas community of Dayton and was the oldest of three children. He was a conscientious, hard-working student. As a teenager, he moved briefly to Fort Worth, where he graduated high school.

After high school, he enrolled at Baylor University in Waco. To help pay for college, he worked as a reporter for the former Waco News-Tribune for a time. He graduated with a law degree in 1932 and returned to Liberty County to practice law.

He quickly became a respected attorney in the area and won fame in a series of high-profile local cases. He also briefly ran a local newspaper. In 1938, he was elected to the State House of Representatives as a Democrat. He served on the Judiciary Committee as well as the Oil, Gas, and Mining Committee and supported the oil and gas industry. Proposals for a state sales tax emerged, and Daniel became part of a group known as the “Immortal 56” in his outspoken opposition to it. Respected by his colleagues for his energy and integrity, he was elected Speaker of the House for the 1943 session.

The session took place in the midst of World War II. Though still the Speaker of the House, Daniel decided to serve his country in a new way and enlisted in the army at the end of the session in May 1943. He started as a private but was sent to train as an officer and became a lieutenant in the judge advocate general’s office. He served mostly in the Pacific and was honorably discharged as a captain in May 1946.

Immediately upon his discharge, he ran for state attorney general for the July primary. Using his fame from his war record and speakership, he won easily. He worked to defeat organized gambling in the state. His office filed more than 5,000 lawsuits while he worked on dozens of committees and recommended hundreds of pieces of legislation to the state legislature. However, two cases in particular stood out in his time as attorney general.

In 1947, an African-American post office employee, Heman Sweatt, applied for admission to the University of Texas Law School. Similarly to cases erupting across the South, though Sweatt was qualified for admission, segregation kept him from attending because of skin color. As attorney general, Daniel had to defend the laws of the state at the time and took the case all the way to the Supreme Court. The Supreme Court ruled in 1950 that Sweatt deserved an equal education, and as a result was ordered enrolled in the law school.

The Tidelands Controversy became another explosive issue. In the late 1940s, Texas was trying to enforce its mineral rights in the Gulf of Mexico. Federal law claimed that the state had no jurisdiction in those areas and that any oil leases belonged to the federal government. Being an oil-rich state, the Texas public took a strong interest in the case. Daniel argued that Texas had an 11-mile claim dating to its time as an independent republic. This sparked a sharp controversy with President Harry S. Truman and his belief that federal law superseded any claim Texas might have had. The Supreme Court agreed.

As a result of the court fight, in 1952, Daniel refused to back the Democratic presidential nominee, Gov. Adlai Stevenson of Illinois, in favor of the Republican nominee, Texas native Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower. Daniel also announced his run for the U. S. Senate that year to replace the retiring Sen. Tom Connally. He ran as a “Texas Democrat” in defiance of the Truman administration’s stands on the Tidelands issue. Daniel won easily, as did Eisenhower. In 1953, Eisenhower signed a bill sponsored by Daniel to recognize the Texas claim on the 11-mile limit. The result was that Texas was able to claim hundreds of millions of dollars in the coming years.

Price Daniel had risen rapidly in a short time. Now a U. S. Senator, his prospects seemed limitless. And in so many ways, his career was only beginning.

Former Howe student involved in British debate

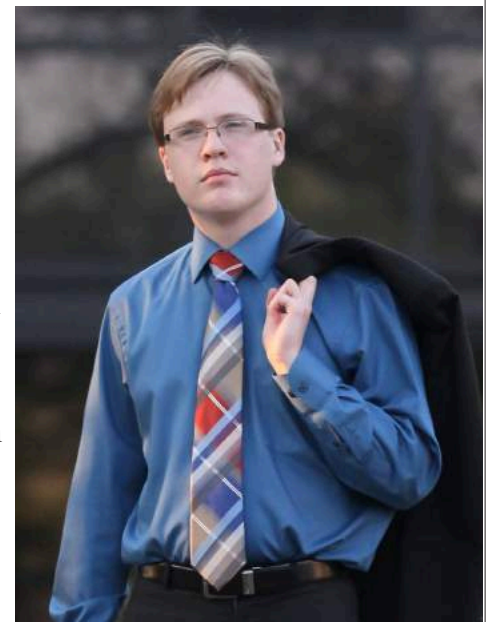

BROWNWOOD – September 29, 2017 – Two members of Howard Payne University’s Student Speaker Bureau speech and debate team will publicly debate members of the British National Debate Team on Sunday, October 15, beginning at 7:30 p.m. The exhibition event, which is free and open to the public, will be held in the Richard and Wanda Jackson Conference Room of HPU’s Paul and Jane Meyer Faith and Life Leadership Center.

Olin is a former Howe Eagle Scout and recently received a large Hatton W. Sumners scholarship and is now a Sumners scholar.

HPU juniors Christopher Freeland of Bangs and Tyler Olin of Howe will debate against British team members Rebecca Howarth and Richard Hunter. The topic for the debate is “This house regrets social media.”

Tyler Olin, a social science jurisprudence and Guy D. Newman Honors Academy major, is in his second year on HPU’s speech and debate team. ### Middle school football recap

Korben Kemp (3) after his interception.
Jennifer Daniels/Howe Enterprise

The seventh grade team won 30-6. Free safety Korben Kemp had a big interception in the game to halt Caddo Mills' momentum.

Colby Hopper caught a touchdown pass from Austin Haley and Haley also scored on a quarterback sneak. Runningback Carson Daniels scored twice on the ground as well. Ryan Hough and Matthew Bearden anchored the defense, they made plays in the Caddo Mills backfield all game.

The eighth grade team lost 46-0. A rough start put the Dogs in catch-up mode for the rest of the game. A few blunders on special teams early is what sealed the deal. The defense played well in the second half though. They only allowed one touchdown. The offense, led by Eli Wilson, was driving at the end of the game but time expired.

Howe's third and fourth grade beat S&S, 20-6

The third and fourth grade Bulldogs played S&S in Collinville on Saturday and came away with a 20-6 win. The coaches say the team has finally gelled and are playing as a team.

Standouts in the game were Brevin

Mayo on defense and for the second week, Garrett Rodgers led the offensive backfield with over 100 rushing yards and two touchdowns. The highlight of the game though was when Beauty Kuykendall de-cleated Collinsville's kick returner after Howe's first touchdown.

Howe's first and second grade beat Bells, 32-0

Fifth and sixth grade Dogs move to 6-0 with win over Leonard

Marshall Larsen (4) and Noah Riley (22) celebrate as Cooper Jones (24) recovered the onside kick. Jennifer Daniels/Howe Enterprise

Howe's fifth and sixth grade Bulldogs keep rolling on as they took down the Leonard Tigers on Saturday morning, 28-0.

The Bulldogs opened the game with a 46-yard run by Marshall Larsen to set up a 9-yard touchdown pass from Jacob 'Clyde' Campbell to Cooper Jones. The two also connected for the 2-point conversion.

Runs by Braden Ulmer and Garren Lankford, Ashton Trevino, and Campbell set up the Ulmer 5-yard touchdown. Howe led 14-0.

The Bulldogs recovered an onside kick and drove the ball with runs by Noah Riley, but Howe offensive coach Monte Walker mixed up 4th down for 3rd down which caused a turnover on downs.

Ulmer and Campbell connected for 15 yards which set up a 29-yard Campbell to Jones scoring strike. Rowdy Kuykendall caught the 2-points conversion to give Howe a 22-0 halftime lead.

The final score came on a 37-yard reverse by Jones. The 2-point conversion was unsuccessful and Howe's final score was 28-0.

The Bulldogs defense held the Tigers to negative yardage on the day.

The coaching staff wants to thank the parents for their support throughout the season. When the fifth and sixth grade classes have been paired together, they have scored 440 points and allowed 20 in the last two seasons. In 2017, Howe has scored 170 and allowed 8.

The Bulldogs will round out the regular season next Saturday with a 9 am game at Bells.

The Bulldogs have secured the number one seed for the playoffs which begin Oct. 14.

This Week In the News

PREPARED BY STAFF WRITER
STATE—

UNDER THE Dome at Austin

By GORDON K. SHEARER
United Press Staff Correspondent

Austin—(UP)—Rapid changes are beginning to take place in the personnel of state departments. First there were drastic changes in the Bureau of Labor Statistics. Nine inspectors of the beauty board (State Board of Cosmetology) will be replaced by October 1; many men are leaving the state police and changes are expected in the Department of Public Welfare at any time.

The changes in state police are coming as the result of demands for trained police to guard government defense projects. The call has been particularly strong for state police captains. Resignations are being received by the state which is unable to match the salaries being offered.

What will happen in the welfare department probably will not be known until a conference has been held by welfare officials and James Marley, regional director of the Federal Social Security Board. Many months ago the federal board demanded that a civil service system be established for administrative workers in the social security programs. The Texas constitution does not permit outright civil service so after many conferences a "merit system" was set up. Under it an outside board was to conduct examinations and report eligible for appointment to places that became available.

Then it was discovered that the board of college professors named to handle the examinations cannot be paid expenses because of a legal prohibition against dual office holding. So far no successors to the professors have been announced.

Washington reported that the merit matter will be discussed at a meeting between Marley and state officials in the near future. Delay possibly has been occasioned by the recent change of state welfare director.

Another subject of grief with the federal government is indicated in the report of the Federal Bureau of Narcotics noting "with regret" that the narcotics unit of the Texas police had been abolished.

The report credits the narcotics unit with "outstanding work." It consisted of six inspectors and a secretary. The money to pay them was vetoed out of the departmental appropriation bill.

The call taking the national guard of Texas into training camps for a year beginning Nov. 15 for the cavalry and Nov. 25 for the rest of the 36th division will make university students who are guard members lose two years schooling unless regents make some special arrangements for them.

The year's training period will not return them to their homes until about Thanksgiving day in 1941. That will be too late for them to take the first semester's work regularly in 1941 and means that a soldier-student who was a senior and would have graduated normally in June 1941, will not be able to do so until June 1943.

It is expected the regents will make some arrangement for the guardsmen to make up the part of the semester so they will be delayed only a year in graduation.

Texas school football teams will play in better stadiums this fall with the assistance of WPA workers. San Antonio just opened a 27,000 stadium capable of seating 23,000 spectators. Dallas and Worth stadiums were completed in 1939. During the past years WPA funds have been used in the construction of 79 stadiums, improvement of 24 others and the building of additions to 10. WPA workers have also improved 280 athletic fields in the state.

Texas Board of Registration of Professional Engineers in annual report filed with Gov. O'Daniel notes that courses in civil, mechanical and electrical engineering at Southern Methodist University, Dallas, have been accredited by the engineers' council.

According to the report of G. O. Peterson, special agent for the Department of Commerce, 10,156 bales of cotton were ginned in Grayson county for the 1940 crop prior to Sept. 16 as compared

Soy Beans Success For Gallimore

J. C. Gallimore, one of a number of Grayson county farmers who planted an experimental crop of oil producing soy beans this year, is well pleased with the results obtained on his farm southeast of Howe. He planted 15 acres of the beans, 10 of which reached maturity, the other five dying in much the same manner as a large part of the cotton in his area this year.

The 10 acres are heavily fruited, Mr. Gallimore said. He brought in one stalk, which he claims to be just an average, containing 281 pods of beans. Some of the plants are almost waist high, he stated. A county paper carried a story last week regarding one of the experimental plots which was pronounced a success because the stalks bore 25 pods.

Mr. Gallimore planted Arksoy seed, purchased from the Universal Feed Store of Howe.

MISS BEUNA HOLCOMB GIVEN SHOWER

A surprise farewell shower was given at the Baptist church Monday afternoon for Miss Beuna Holcomb, who is moving to Van Alstyne. The church was decorated with cut flowers.

B. Cooke of Gunter. Refreshments were served from a lace covered table, centered with a silver punch bowl, by Mrs. E. Powell, Mrs. J. L. Blackburne, Mrs. Earl Callaway, Mrs. Sam Murley, Mrs. Truett Davenport and Mrs. S. L. Ricketts.

in charge of the Boys 4-H exhibit and games, rodeo, free picture

A great deal of attention is to be paid this year to the work of school children and Wednesday will be set aside as children's day. In addition to the educational exhibits the fair management has prepared a well-rounded program of entertainment including football games, free picture shows and Efforts of some Texas politicians to punish Agricultural Commissioner J. E. McDonald for refusing to pledge his support to a third-term for President Roosevelt appear to have failed as the deadline for filing names of independent candidates passed Tuesday night, leaving McDonald a clear field, other than for communist candidate, Orton T. Campbell of Waco. McDonald aroused the ire of Texas politicians when he issued the statement that he would support the presidential nominee who offered the best farm program. He was present at the Amarillo Wilkie rally and also addressed the Texas Republican convention.

Dallas business conditions were expected to improve considerably after it was announced Wednesday that a contract for more than $1,000,000 worth of tools for the new airplane factory at Grand Prairie had been let to a Dallas business concern. Ground breaking ceremonies for the new $7,000,000 plant are scheduled for Saturday.

Gov. W. Lee O'Daniel Wednesday issued a proclamation instructing Texans between the ages of 21 and 36 to register October 16 at regular polling places for military training. Registration hours will be from 7 a. m. to 9 p. m.

G. F. Neuheuser, editor of the Texas Free Press, a German language newspaper published at San Antonio, revealed Wednesday that he had received a letter from a German consul stating that Fuhrer Hitler objected to the manner in which the publication discussed the war. Neuheuser said that he believed the consul, Baron von Spiegel of New Orleans, sought to make him disregard his duties as an American citizen. He also believed the letter contained an implied threat. Neuheuser turned the letter over to the Dies committee on un-American activities.

THE CADENHEADS

MEET the Cadenheads, our new neighbors. They have lived in Howe two months, and are M. G., Doris, and baby Robert. M. G. is station agent for the H&TC railway. He was born and reared at Anna, Collin county. He attended the Anna schools from the first grade through graduation under the supervision of W. L. Roper, who holds the record of superintending the Anna schools for thirty-two years. M. G. like many other boys became interested in telegraphy. He spent all his spare time around the railway station waiting for a chance to learn how to send messages. The station agent took an interest in the small boy and taught him the code, and gave him work whenever possible. Later he attended a school in Fort Worth. He has been with the railroad fifteen years.

He worked for two months in the Howe office in 1935, and had hoped to come back as agent some time.

Mrs. Cadenhead was Doris Beaulieu of McKinney, the daughter of an Episcopal rector. She is a graduate of NTSTC, and taught several years in the McKinney schools.

Robert is seven months old, and is quite able to speak for himself as to his abilities.

The Cadenheads are at home in the Camp apartment in north Howe. If you have not met them you have a pleasure in store for you.

BULLDOGS COME FROM BEHIND IN VALLEY VIEW WIN; CELESTE FRIDAY

Howe Bulldogs spotted the hosting Valley View Eagles 13 points last Friday night, then scored two quick TD's to tie the game before going ahead for a 40-29 win. The contest was one of the wildest on record, so far as scoring goes.

Running back Jimmy Watson crossed the double stripes six times for the Bulldogs, with one of the plays called back on an infraction. Bill Cloud, seeing action for the first time this year in a regularly scheduled game, added the other TD on a one-yard keeper, following a gainer by Watson.

The Bulldogs play at Celeste this week, then are off for a weekend, preceding the Leonard Tiger-Bulldog game here.

Dorchester Youth Loses Leg In Mill Accident Saturday

A 17-year old Dorchester youth, Imael DeLeon, lost a leg as a result of a grain mill accident at Dorchester. Doctors at Wilson N. Jones Hospital lost in an effort to save the leg. Young DeLeon is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor DeLeon.

The left leg was lost just below the knee after he was trapped for hours in a grain-moving auger.

The youth was scooping grain at the milling company when he slipped into the auger. Rescuers were forced to cut away some of the machinery and remove a considerable amount of grain to free him.

Five of DeLeon's seven brothers also work at the mill and were present when the accident happened.

THE HOWE SCENE —

FINNEY AIRCRAFT SERVICE

By John Clift

The sight of an airplane taxiing down busy U. S. 75 in Howe hardly causes a raised eyebrow anymore.

That's because James Finney has been doing it quite regularly since he opened Finney's Airplane Service in downtown Howe. Finney is quite thoughtful of his neighbors, and parks the planes at the rear of his building rather than out front, where they would take up several parking stalls.

Of course, not all of the planes that need the Finney touch are able to fly in under their own power. Some have to either be towed or trucked here.

James is a veteran mechanic for Central Airlines. However, he operates his own repair service as a sideline. "It's my way of moonlighting," he said.

He was introduced to flying when he was in the Air Force in 1942. However, he was a member of the ground crew and didn't actually learn to fly until he got out of the service.

"I learned to fly at Gainesville. Tim Osborne was my instructor. Since that time I guess I've put several thousand hours in the air flying," he added.

James has a lot of love for airplanes, but even more re-

HOWE'S THAT

A few details that came in after we thought we had all of them:

The public is invited to attend a bon fire at the football field Thursday night at 8:00 o'clock, according to students who plan such things. The bon fire is listed at 7:30 on the centennial programs, but has been scheduled for 8:00, same time as the downtown square dance is supposed to begin. Cheerleaders, in discussing the bonfire, also said a pep rally will be held at the high school at 2:50 Thursday, and urged participation by anyone interested. Too, the girls urged football fans to take a more vocal interest during the games, by joining in with the yell.

Also, before, or during the halftime ceremonies, former Howe football sweethearts are to be introduced, along with Centennial contest winners, queens, etc.

Former sweethearts from 1960 through 1972, consecutively, were:

- Lorna Story Chisum
- Kay Dobbin Hammonds
- Nina Lee Carter Purdom
- Emily Stewart Powell
- Jeanie Clements Matthews
- Janet Owens Craver
- Sue Cooper Graham
- Judy Cooper Cavender
- Donna Moses Wormsbaker
- Cindy Thornhill Boyle
- Carla McClellan Gray
- Terrye Soechting Troxell
- Theresa Cooper Trotter

And there you have it, and in reviewing the above list, there sure are a lot of Cooper girls listed.

Centennial interest surprised most people. A crowd of more than a thousand lined Haning Street last Saturday from the downtown area to King Street, and along the parade route on Highway 5.

Barbecue following the parade was purchased by 300 people, and that's 50 more than was anticipated, and Fire Chief O. B. Powers said more than 900 were in attendance at the Fire Department sponsored wrestling matches Saturday night. Interest continued with a good attendance Monday night at the Queen

HOMEcoming GAME FRIDAY

A 53-yard touchdown pass late in the second quarter against Sanger's Indians proved to be the winning play last Friday night at Sanger, as the Howe Bulldogs made it a two-one season record.

This week's contest against the Allen Eagles has been designated as the annual Homecoming game, to coincide with Howe's Centennial celebration. Pre-game activities will include introductions of winners in centennial contests and judging of centennial beads.

Football Sweetheart will be named during halftime activities, from three candidates: Nysala Trotter, Carla Worthan and Cheryl Walker. Sweetheart is selected by vote of members of the football team.

Sanger led in all departments of the statistics scale, but were unable to overcome a one point deficit after taking the lead in the opening moments on a 69 yard drive, utilizing the "wishbone T" offensive formation. The hosts made five first downs during the drive, and scored from the one midway in the first period. Sanger controlled the ball for 40 offensive plays in the first half, compared to 24 for Howe, but the 'dogs took a 7-6 lead to the dressing rooms after quarterback Vincent Hash connected on the 53 yard aerial with Roger Lankford for the tie, with Gene Bridges booting the extra point.

Howe was unable to score in second half action due to fumbles of the slippery pigskin (three lost to the Indians, including one on the first play of the half), and Sanger was unable to score, due to Howe defensive adjustments which stopped the wishbone T, and the halfback pass made famous by Texas and the Cowboys.

Allen's Eagles are reported by scouts to have a strong team. The Eagles last to Whitewright last Friday night, 27-12.

Statistics for the Howe-Sanger game:

TO THE PEOPLE OF HOWE, TEXAS

The observance of your one hundredth anniversary is an occasion of deep pride for you as well as for the nation.

The high purpose and vital community spirit that are reflected in your eventful history are in the best tradition of our American way of life.

Armed with these same qualities in the years ahead, I know that you will strive to be in the vanguard of constructive civic accomplishment. I welcome your full partnership in the demanding tasks we face as a nation, and in the good that promises to come from our united efforts.

Activities will continue tonight in Howe's weeklong Centennial celebration, which began last Saturday afternoon with a parade through downtown Howe, Highway 5, and Haning Street. A crowd estimated at more than 1,000 was on hand for the opening festivities, which included riding clubs, antique cars, drill teams, new automobiles, wagon and buggies, bicycles, and other entries.

Ray Bledsoe, in charge of concessions during the celebration, reported 300 participated in the barbecue feed following the parade, with a capacity crowd attending the Saturday night wrestling matches sponsored by the Volunteer Fire Department in the High School Gym.

Monday night activities included crowning of the Centennial Queen and a Junior Miss Queen, determined by votes received via donations toward a fund to build a new city park here.

Following the crowning of the queens by Mayor J. W. Hall, a country and western band, headed by Jerry Foster, formerly of Howe and now of Dallas, performed on the stage located adjacent to the city hall. Around 300 persons were on hand for the program.

Tuesday night, a free watermelon feast was held on the elementary school ground followed by a domino tournament under direction of E. F. Arterbury. George Baker, Bob Jensen and Dwan Roberts were in charge of the watermelon feed.

Remainder of the week's celebration schedules Square dancing will be on tap Thursday night, at 8:00 o'clock, preceded by the old fashioned dress review at 6:30 with trophies to the best dressed man, woman, boy, girl, and married couple. ### Architect to draft plans for new classrooms, cafeteria, ag addition

The Howe School Board met in a called meeting on Monday, Sept. 25. Items of business included studying building needs, approving bus insurance for another year, employing a maintenance man for the school and accepting gasoline and oil bids.

In other action the board accepted the resignation of Charles Owens as a science and math teacher in the high school and employed Mrs. Mary Cope to replace him. The board also approved an after game dance following the homecoming game for senior high students. The board also received an enrollment report by grades that showed a total of 677 students enrolled as of September 20, 1972.

Bill Lightfoot who is the school architect was given approval to prepare plans for a new cafeteria, administrative and tax office, addition of two classrooms to the primary school and to make two classrooms out of the present eating room in the primary building. He was also asked to prepare plans for an addition to the agriculture shop.

Howe's that...

HUMAN REACTORS - In this nuclear age everyone is aware of the dangers inherent in nuclear reactors. Few, however, seem to be aware of the dangers inherent in human reactors. Perhaps this is because most of us are reactors. Instead of acting out of a realization of who we are and what our faith and convictions tell us we ought to do, we react to elements outside ourselves, to people, to circumstances and to events.

When Jesus commanded us to love our enemies, to do good to those who hate us, He did so because it is necessary for our peace and happiness.

No one is as unhappy as the person who is a perpetual reactor. He is no longer in control of himself, but is continually at the mercy of elements outside himself, over which he has no control. Praise gives him a feeling of elation, criticism sends him into a depression, threats induce fear, and snubs generate bitterness.

Peace of mind and heart can only be achieved by keeping the control within ourselves, by determining for ourselves how we are going to act. We know who we are how we should behave. To relinquish control to elements outside ourselves, to let others determine whether we should be courteous or rude, whether we should love or hate, to be joyful or sad, to be serene or disturbed is to relinquish our dearest possession. (This article was submitted by a reader, author unknown.)

JOIN PTA - The Howe PTA is currently holding their annual membership drive. Parent involvement and support is needed and the memberships are just $1.50 each. PTA meetings will be held the second Tuesday of October, December, February, March and April at 7:30 p.m. Money raised by the PTA goes to help the schools. The concession stand at the home football games is the main money-making project. Last year as projects the PTA gave the high school $574 for additional video equipment; $1,200 was allotted for supplies to cover the walk between the elementary building and the cafeteria; and $1,500 was set aside for concession stand repairs.

Envelopes were sent home with students last week. If you haven't sent yours back, please do so today.

REGISTER TO VOTE - Eligible voters who have not registered to vote must do so by Oct. 3 if they wish to cast their ballot in the Nov. 2 general election. All that is involved is filling out an application card available at the county voter registrar's office.

High school seniors are encouraged to register to vote. Those who are 17 years and 10 months of age are eligible to register and may exercise the right to vote on or after their 18th birthday. Some 188,000 high school seniors should be eligible to vote in Texas this fall.

Those eligible to vote but unable to do so on Nov. 2 should apply at the county voter registrar's office to vote absentee. Oct. 29 is the deadline for voting absentee in person while absentee ballots will be accepted in the mail as late as 7 p.m. Nov. 2.

Any of the following conditions can qualify an individual to vote absentee: 1) absence from the county on election day; 2) age 65 or older; 3) inability to appear at polling place due to sickness, physical disability or religious belief; 4) service as an election clerk or a poll watcher in an election precinct other than the precinct of residence.

Only 24 percent of those eligible voted in the May 1 Texas primary, the lowest in 30 years for a gubernatorial primary election. If you are registered, please remember to vote. If you aren't registered, you have until Friday. It only takes a card and a few minutes.

INCREDIBLE LAWSUITS - I heard recently that a clerk sued for and got one million dollars when a filing cabinet fell on her knee. I cannot imagine a knee injury worth a million dollars, can you?

Bulldogs Lose Upset Bid Against Anna

The Howe Bulldogs showed a strong defense Friday night, Sept. 24, against the state-ranked Anna Coyotes.

In the first three games of the season, Anna (no. 10 class 2A) scored an average of 54 points per game. In Friday's District 14-AA opener, the Bulldog defense held the Coyotes to 15 points. Unfortunately, the Bulldog offense was able to come up with only 13 points.

Howe, now 2-2, took the lead early in the second quarter on a crowd pleasing 92-yard TD run by sophomore halfback Randy Geer. Norman Mutchler kicked the PAT to give Howe the 7-0 lead with 8:47 left in the first half.

Late in the third quarter, Howe moved the ball from their six to midfield with a couple of good runs by quarterback Scott Taylor. With 2:50 showing on the clock for the third period, Taylor tossed the ball to Michael Ortega who cut through the Coyotes for a 52-yard total gain ending inside the goal line. However, a holding penalty against Howe nullified the score, setting up the Dogs on the Anna 21. Four plays later the ball went to the Coyotes.

Anna used the next five minutes to move toward the goal, scoring a TD on an 18-yard run by their QB Dale Stephens in the fourth quarter. The Coyotes first try for a two-point conversion was blocked by the Bulldogs, but another yellow flag on the field signaled an offside penalty against the Dogs. Anna's second two-point run succeeded giving Anna an 8-7 lead.

In the next series of plays Howe fumbled the ball to Anna and the Coyotes moved to the end zone to score with 4:10 left in the game. The PAT kick brought the score to 15-7.

The Bulldogs managed a couple of first downs on their possession, moving the ball to the Coyote 34, before Anna took possession again to run out the clock. Four plays later the Coyotes were forced to punt. Howe sophomore fullback Robert Perkins blocked the punt to set up the Bulldogs at the 50 with just over a minute of play left. Taylor connected with receiver Mike Vickers on a 28-yard pass to the Anna 22. On the next play Taylor hit David Carlson in the left side of the end zone for a TD with 32 seconds remaining on the clock. The Bulldog try for two points to tie the score failed as Taylor was unable to connect a pass.

Leading the Bulldog defense were tackles by Taylor, Perkins, Geer, Vickers, Ortega, Jamie Hussey, Barry Dunn, Pat Gilstrap, Carlson, Dennis Foster, Kenny Cornelison and Gregg Allison. Perkins, who blocked the punt to set up the final Howe score, also blocked a Coyote field goal attempt as the first half ended.

The ball carriers for Howe were Geer, Dunn, and Taylor for a total of 150 yards rushing. Taylor completed 10 of 19 pass tries for 175 yards.

Coach Buck Smith praised the team, "We were pleased with the effort, we just haven't been able to eliminate the costly mistakes."

Smith said, "The touchdown that was called back on us - that was the difference in the ballgame." He admitted the game will probably help the Bulldogs down the road. "I think this game helped us, knowing that we can play with this type of people."

Howe will journey to S&S Friday, Oct. 1, for a 7:30 p.m. game. The S&S Rams, also 2-2, lost last weekend to Whitewright, 14-9. In the game the Rams were low on rushing yards, 112 to White-wright's 215, but outpassed the Tigers 149 yards to 84.

The S&S Rams are in their first year as a 2A school and posted a 4-6 season last year. Returning starters are eight on the offense and seven on the defense. Ram quarterback, Robby Wilson (6'2", 185 lbs., jr.) is a returning starter whose team averaged 16.5 points per outing last year.

Council Meets With Lone Star Gas On Rate Increase

The Howe City Council met Tuesday, Sept. 28, at 7 p.m. with James Copeland, Sherman area manager for Lone Star Gas Co. to discuss the rate increase request by the company.

Copeland answered questions of council members and explained how figures were arrived at for the proposed rate increase.

Lone Star Gas requested a revenue increase of $25,116 over revenues received for the year ended Dec. 31, 1981 for a total increase of 11.16%. (According to Lone Star Gas figures this increase would yield the company $17,779 return after expenses and taxes or a 8.55% return on their investment.)

Council voted unanimously to give the company $18,500 increase in revenues (about 73% of the $25,116 request). Council also approved the raising of base rate from $3.00 a month to $4.50.

According to Copeland, Lone Star Gas has 60 days to accept this offer by the city or to appeal to the Railroad Commission. Copeland said he could not state whether or not the company would accept the proposal, but he felt the council had worked with him on the decision and was trying to do what was best for the residents of Howe.

City of Howe Report

Howe City Councilman Jack Floodas and City Administrator Joe Fenton attended a workshop Thursday, Sept. 23, at Texoma Regional Planning Commission on council-staff teamwork and the role of each person.

John Clarey of the Texas Dept. of Community Affairs conducted the three-hour session.

Fenton said that Clarey emphasized working together as a team. "You (council and city staff) must work together as a team. That is the key to the roles in Texas cities."

Those attending the workshop were given a hypothetical problem of a large city with revenue shortfalls, lawsuit against city, fine for sewer operations. The council and staff members attending worked in groups to come up with possible solutions.

Fenton said he also learned that most of the cities in the TRPC area are spending about 75 percent of their budget on salaries while in Howe the salaries are just over 50 percent.

The next workshop class will be Sept. 30 from 7 to 10 p.m. Tom Akins, attorney, will conduct the class on "Municipal Law."

Howe's That . . .

EARLY BLOOMER? LATE BLOOMER? - Mrs. Juanita King who lives across from the high school called me the other day. Her pear tree is blooming - it is either late for this year or early for next?!?! She said it didn't bloom earlier in the year due to blight. Sure looks pretty now.

WELL, I JUST GET OVER one wedding and another one looms in the future - but it's the last. Our son Kirby is now engaged and the wedding will be sometime next spring or summer. Some of you folks have probably seen him around Howe or Sherman with his fiancée - Gina Raisor. She has a small son, Christian who is just about two months younger than Jordan. So now, we have two grandsons (and another grandbaby is due on Oct. 12 - our family sure is growing quickly).

Jordan and Christian enjoy playing together. They are very good about sharing and giving hugs and kisses to each other. When they get together, they can be pretty noisy and exuberant! Ah, to be young again with all that energy!

HOWE LOST A GREAT LADY last week. Laverne Chisum died on Wednesday and was buried Monday of this week. She and her husband owned and operated Chisum's One Stop Grocery and Dry Goods for many, many years in downtown Howe. She always had a smile and a kind word for folks. Among her hobbies was painting. Some of her paintings were sold from the store and I remember I always enjoyed seeing them whenever I went into the store.

Those of us who knew Mrs. Chisum mourn her loss along with James and the rest of the family.

Where Are They Now?

by Rose Peters
Sept. 17-18, Palestine, Tx. The Palestine area is so pretty and green. It is nice just to look around. There are several antique shops as well as western stores. Next year there will be a new Super Wal-Mart open. That will be fun.

Downtown is really neat. There are old fashioned light posts and interesting shops to visit.

Sept. 23-26, Texarkana, Tx. We arrived Tuesday afternoon for slack (too many cowboys to put into the performances). Duane is always very busy here. He sings at a couple of schools, emcees a program for the Senior Citizens, and he goes to radio stations. He also emcees the style show and luncheon for the queen contestants.

The style show and luncheon is a lot of fun. Besides the contestants, there are other models as well. After each contestant models she must give her speech. After the style show is over, the luncheon begins. Then the real fun starts!

Every year Duane and the coordinator get together and try to find something fun for the contestants to do. This year they got the idea of Chuck Wagon races from our rodeo performances. There were six contestants. They drew names. Four girls were "horses" while two girls were "drivers." Two "horses" pulled a red wagon with one driver steering. The girls were very good sports. Everyone enjoyed it. The girls were laughing so hard, they could hardly talk.

Every year at Texarkana, we gain weight. Every night after the performances we go over the house of the head committee man to eat. Not just sandwiches, whole meals. One night it might be barbecued chickens and brisket and the next night it might be breakfast with scrambled eggs and biscuits. There is always a big discussion from everyone on how to make the best cream gravy. You'd be surprised how many different ways there are. It is always fun to hear.

Council Approves Ambulance Contract

The Howe City Council approved a contract Monday night, Sept. 28, for ambulance service in Howe with MTS Ambulance. The council agreed to pay a subsidy of $16,000 for the year after MTS refused the counter offer of $10,000.

For ambulance emergencies, dial 9-1-1. For ambulance transfers call 1-903-482-5050.

Council members voting for the contract were Marion Allison, Jerry Campbell, Roger Luttrell and Duane Peters. Robert Trapp was unable to attend the called meeting. The contract was approved pending some working changes recommended by Howe's attorney. All council members voiced their opinion that ambulance service must be provided for the town's citizens.

In other action the council approved the 1992-93 budget with a projected total income of $1,050,145 and projected total expenses of $1,016,000.

Among the income items are: ad valorem taxes of $163,820; water revenue of $255,000, sewer revenue of $188,600, and solid waste revenue of $119,500.

The additional $16,000 for the ambulance service was budgeted by lowering projected costs for supplies and capital improvement.

Bulldogs Top Valley View, 18-12

The Howe Bulldogs topped the state-ranked Valley View Eagles, 18-12, Friday, Sept. 25, and got their first win of the season. Valley View was ranked 7th in state in Class A.

Coach McQueen said, "It was a great relief; maybe the biggest for the kids. They felt they should have beaten Royse City and they came on against Farmersville."

The Dogs took the opening kickoff and advanced across the 50 on carries by Doug Ogle and Jay Carson. But they lost the ball to the Eagles on a fumble. The Howe defense worked overtime on the next four plays which included a quarterback sack by Jeremy Francis.

Howe took control but only managed five yards before punting to the Eagles. Valley View was able to move the ball well using six plays to score on a 1-yard TD with 3:43 left in the first quarter. The try for 2 points failed.

The Dogs were thrown for a loss on their next series, but David Brown tackled the Eagle punt receiver at the Valley View 34 and on the next play Nathan Gray recovered an Eagle fumble on the 32. The Dogs used seven plays to score with Brian Freese taking the ball across the line from 1 yard out. The PAT kick failed and with 10:38 left in the first half, the game was tied, 6-6.

The Eagles managed a first down on their next series before being forced to punt on a four and 3 midfield. Howe took control and moved the ball into Eagle territory, but fumbled the ball away at the Eagle 38. Francis tackled a Valley View ball carrier at the Howe 25 to stop a try for a TD. The Howe defense held and Valley View missed on a field goal attempt.

Starting at their own 20, the Dogs used 7 plays to move the ball across the goal line with Carson carrying the ball the final yard to score with 35 seconds left in the half. The kick failed and Howe took a 12-6 lead to the locker room at the end of the first half.

Valley View opened the third quarter with a gain of only 7 yards on four tries. Howe took over when Francis caught the punt at the Howe 40. Five plays later Carson broke loose to run 46 yards and cross the goal line to score with 7:38 left in the third period. The PAT kick was no good and Howe held a comfortable 18-6 lead.

The defensive units of both teams held for several series and then as the fourth quarter began Howe sustained a drive for 5 plays before fumbling the ball away at the Eagle 36. Later, near the middle of the fourth quarter, Darren Horrell recovered an Eagle fumble at the Valley View 20, but the Dogs try for a score was stopped.

With just under four minutes left to play, Valley View took control and steadily advanced the ball down field until an Eagle runner scored on a 34-yard run as the clock ran out. The try for two points failed.

Freese completed 6 of 12 passes with no interceptions. Francis caught 3 for 65 yards and Chad Norton caught 2 for 43. Rushing were Jay Carson with 109 yards on 19 carries and Doug Ogle 74 on 17 carries. Freese gained 24 yards on 8 attempts.

McQueen recognized the outstanding defensive efforts of Jeremy Francis, Nathan Gray and David Brown. Brian Freese and Jay Carson were outstanding offensive players.

He said, "All the young men rose to the occasion and played a good game all around. We hope we can keep taking a step

Howe About Those Dogs!

7th Grade Football

The Howe 7th grade Bulldogs ran their record to 3-0 with a 24-0 victory over Valley View on Sept. 24. The Dogs scored quickly and never looked back. Scoring for the Bulldogs were: 1st quarter - Justin Carter returned a punt for a 70-yard TD, then Kyle Roberts ran a sweep into the end zone for the 2-point conversion to lead the Eagles, 8-0. In the second quarter Carter ran a 3-yard quarterback sneak for a TD and tailback Alex Banda ran in the 2-point conversion play for a 16-0 halftime lead.

Howe took the second half opening kickoff and marched 50 yards in just two plays. Highlighting this was a 49-yard pass completion from Carter to tight end Dwayne Emmons to the one yard line. From there Carter again sneaked in for the TD. Reserve quarterback Casey Snapp ran the ball in for the conversion to make the final score 24-0.

The defense played well again, limiting the Eagles to two first downs. Members of the defense were Snapp, Chad Word, Micah Belden, Banda, Emmons, Ron Dale Freeman, Roberts, Charlie Macklin, Jacob Holcomb, Brian Thompson, and Danny Barlow.

Next game is tonight, Oct. 1, against Lone Oak at 5:30 p.m. at Howe. The 8th grade game will follow at 6:45 p.m.

8th Grade Football

The 8th grade Bulldog football team came from behind Thursday night to beat the Valley View Eagles, 8-6. Howe got off to a back start when the Eagles returned the opening kickoff 70 yards for a TD. The conversion failed and Valley View led 6-0.

The score remained that way until the second half when the Bulldogs put together an impressive 65-yard drive. Jason Hodges' 30-yard run put Howe inside the 5-yard line. ## Howe's that ...

by Lana Rideout

Did you ever have one of those weeks where it seems as if everything goes wrong?

We have had a string of problems with our car over the past few months. Just when we think we have it all fixed, something else goes out.

My husband Dale attended his high school reunion in Michigan this past weekend. Car problems hit about the time he left. I managed to get some errands done on Thursday and attend the school board meeting.

Then on Friday, the battery quit. I was able to attend the HHS Theatre play, Greater Tuna, Friday night. It was hilarious.

Saturday and Sunday weren't so good. With the help of a friend, we got it going and went to DFW to pick up Dale. We got about halfway back when the battery quit again.

A very nice young man assisted us in getting the rest of the way home. He was visiting a friend at the Chevron station in Plano where we had stopped. We really appreciated his help.

If you are reading this column, then we at least got the car going enough to get the paper printed and in the mail and stores.

I guess not everything went wrong last weekend. Dale returned safely from Michigan. The nice young man helped us out. And of course, life is made up of lots of minor problems that help make life interesting!!!

HOWE CITY COUNCIL

Library volunteers recognized; resolution okayed for teen driving safety program

At the beginning of the Howe Council meeting, Tuesday, Sept. 18, Mayor Michael Jones presented certificates of recognition to some of 18 local youngsters who have volunteered a total of 549 hours at the Howe Community Library.

Library Director Becky Hogenson praised the students who gave of their time helping with summer reading, Harry Potter week, shelving books, and more during the summer months.

Mayor Jones and council members also thanked the students for their contribution to the community.

In other business, the council heard from Pottsboro Police Chief Brett Arterburn about the Less Tears, More Years™ program that promotes road safety for teen drivers. This program began earlier this year after two Pottsboro teens died a few weeks apart in vehicle accidents.

Howe Police Chief John Cherry asked the council to pass a resolution for the program, adding that he plans to have the program in Howe. According to the two police chiefs, vehicle accidents are a leading cause of death for teens ages 15-19.

These officers believe that changes by the state a few years ago have contributed to the increase in teen deaths. The state changed drivers license requirements for teens. Parents can teach their children. The teens can take the test online.

The main goals of the Less Tears, More Years™ are: road safety, education awareness, and legislative changes. Currently, teens can get a drivers license with 14 hours driving experience with their parents. Chief Arterburn noted that before high school football players get on the playing field, they have about 57 hours of practice.

In addition, rural areas can be more dangerous for drivers, especially teens, due to less traffic; narrow roads, sharp curves, and blind areas on long stretches of unpaved or uneven roadways. The Pottsboro group recently installed warning signs at dangerous spots near their community. They were assisted by County Commissioner Gene Short in placing the signs.

Chief Cherry noted that several Howe area teens have recently been involved in life-threatening accidents that he feel might have been avoided if teen drivers received teaching in defensive driving techniques.

The Less Tears...More Years™ Campaign hopes to enlist all Grayson County communities in this effort and eventually recruit communities from other counties. State Rep. Larry Phillips has been approached and wants to work with the group on promoting teen driver safety.

For more information on the Less Tears...More Years Campaign visit www.lesstearsmoreyears.org.

The council also:
*Approved a zone change requested by Jeff C. Wilson to allow a copier business at 200 S. Denny.

*Approved water and sewer rates.

*Approved solid waste rates.

*Established a discount for Howe Volunteer Firefighters based on standards of attendance and training.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH YOUTH

Project Shine!

Over 50 students from the First Baptist Church of Howe Youth Group selflessly served the community on Wednesday, Sept. 19, by renovating Memorial Park in Howe.

This is one of many service projects planned by the youth group. This project was called Project Shine. Area youth and youth leaders spent more than 2 hours mowing, weed-eating, trimming trees, planting flowers, cleaning tables, painting the gazebo, painting trash cans, painting posts, etc.

In the words of the students "Project Shine was amazing! It was a lot of fun getting out and serving God!" When you have an opportunity, drive by Memorial Park and see how the youth group from First Baptist Church of Howe let their 'Light Shine for Jesus'.

Howe's That

Texas history will look back on this coming November and how Texans used their voting power. An no, I'm not talking about the gubernatorial election that fills my email inbox with propoganda day and night. I'm referring to the Texas Transportation Funding Amendment, which most people refer to as Proposition 1, or simply Prop 1.

The measure would divert half of the general revenue derived from oil and gas taxes from the Economic Stabilization Fund (ESF), also known as the Rainy Day Fund, to the State Highway Fund for the purpose of providing transportation funding for repairs and maintenance of public roads. It's anticipated that this will result in approximately $1.2 billion per year going toward transportation funding instead of the Rainy Day Fund. If approved, the measure would take effect immediately, once the votes are certified, and would apply to transfers the comptroller made after September 1, 2014.

It wouldn't solve the road-funding problem in Texas, but it would put a dent in it. Proposition 1 would yield billions for Texas roadways without raising taxes a penny. Please remember that your vote counts. This is more important than most people realize.

Circus in Howe tomorrow

Howe will be entertained tomorrow

It's been nearly 50 years since Howe has hosted a circus. Tomorrow afternoon and evening at C.C. Jones Park (east of First Baptist Church and over the railroad tracks) will be something that the young and old of Howe will never forget. ### Coach Zack Hudson trying to rally his troops

Howe Bulldogs Head Coach Zack Hudson wanted a tough non-district schedule and he got one. Pottsboro (4-1), came in to the game ranked 27th in the State of Texas in Class 3A, Division 1. Their Head Coach Matt Poe (son of legendary Head Coach Ron Poe of McKinney High School) in his ninth season became the all-time winningest coach at Pottsboro by suprasing Ronny Ray with 74 wins. The Bulldogs (2-3) could not

New mural going on downtown wall

The giant wall on Haning Street across from the Post Office is starting to undergo a transformation as of yesterday. Local artist Jordan

Streetman is using her talents to showcase the new downtown mural. The former hardware store is being renovated inside and out in hopes of bringing businesses to Howe with a modern, yet historic feel to the city's downtown area. The mural is very similar to one on 6th Street in Austin.
