

Howe's That

This is the week for both city council and school board to meet. The school board will meet tonight at 6 pm tonight at the Howe ISD Administration office where one item listed on the agenda is a closed session meeting regarding real property.

The city council will meet on Tuesday night at 6 pm at the Howe Community Center at 700 W. Haning Street. At the meeting, Melissa Atchison, Director of the Howe Community Library, will present the Howe Community Library Report and acknowledge the summer volunteers. The council will also discuss, consider and act upon an annexation of property that includes 147 acres at the south end of Howe at Blythe Road and US Highway 75.

I was able to give a speech about the history of Howe to the Howe fourth grade students. I was quite shocked that there were 100 of them. We discussed the beginnings of Howe which was heavily focused on the Haning family and the Houston and Texas Railroad. There were so many great questions coming from the kids. But I will admit, it was pretty crowded with 100 kids in what once was the administration office - now turned into a music room. The gymnasium was being used for a middle school activity, the cafetorium was not an option due to lunches feeding nine grade levels from the 10 am hour to nearly the 2 pm hour.

By the way, early voting for the November bond election will start next Monday, Oct. 23. I will be voting FOR the bond.

The Howe Bulldogs (0-6; 0-1) remain winless in the 2017 season with a 35-6 loss to Hunter Watson and the Pottsboro Cardinals (4-2; 1-0). Watson, the star quarterback for the Cardinals for the past two seasons rushed for four touchdowns Friday night at Jim Henderson Memorial Stadium to lead the attack. When he wasn't rushing for yardage on the ground, he was throwing the ball on short passes to keep the Dogs on their toes.

Superintendent answered bond questions at Town Hall

On Tuesday evening, about 20 individuals gathered at the Howe Development Alliance/Howe Area Chamber of Commerce office to hear information regarding the upcoming Howe ISD November bond election.

Howe ISD Superintendent Kevin Wilson gave a slideshow presentation that outlined the details of the four-grade-level campus that is needed in order to accommodate the growth of the enrollment that the elementary and middle school is facing. Wilson stated that the elementary campus would be at maximum capacity in the next school year at 500 in the elementary facility. He also explained that both elementary and middle schools are sharing one lunch room which has students in and out of the facility from 10:30 am to 1:30 pm.

Wilson also took questions from the audience that had to deal with location of the new school and the structure of the taxes if the bond is passed.

Early voting begins next Monday, Oct. 23 at the Howe Community Center. Voting day is Nov. 7.

Pride of Howe continues to perform well

'The Pride of Howe' HHS Marching Band

The Pride of Howe Marching Band had a busy weekend. Between the football game on Friday night and two contests on Saturday, the band performed their UIL contest show, "Stained Glass", four times in less than 24 hours. The band performed at 10:30 am on Saturday at the Sounds of Fall Marching Contest in Princeton. This contest had 35 bands in its

The game started with Pottsboro taking possession at their own 42 yard line. The drive took 4:33 off the clock and was ended on a 6-yard touchdown by Watson. The Cardinals led, 7-0, with 7:17 remaining in the first.

Howe's first possession ended in a 26-yard Hunter Cheatham punt that set up Pottsboro at their own 35 yard line. Five plays later, Watson scampered up the middle and around the left edge and appeared to be down at the one yard line when Winston Mosse clipped the legs on the runner. However, the officials said Watson's knee was not down and gave Watson credit for a 23-yard touchdown. Pottsboro led 14-0 with 2:16 left in the first quarter.

Howe's next possession was a good one which stretched the remaining clock in the first and the first 2:16 of the second quarter clock. Howe's rushing game began to open up and the Dogs ran 10 plays and went 43 yards before stalling out at the Pottsboro 31 yard line.

Pottsboro, with 9:44 on the second quarter clock, put together another drive of 69 yards which took 12 plays and nearly seven minutes off the clock to wear out the Howe defense. Watson scored again, this time from the nine yard line to up the Cardinal lead to 21-0. Pottsboro kicker Dane Marburger was successful on all point-after attempts.

Howe, desperately needing points before the half knowing that they would get the ball to start the second half, quickly went four-and-out and had to punt it back to Pottsboro with 2:39 on the clock. That amount of time was enough for Watson to lead his team down the field 63 yards on 7 plays. He added his fourth touchdown of the half by diving over from the 2 yard line. The drive left only :30 on the clock and the Cardinals took the 28-0 lead to the dressing room.

Howe's opening possession of the second half ended with a four-and out punt which would set up a Cardinal 6-play, 71 yard drive that finally saw someone in the game other than Watson score. It was freshman speedster Braden Plyler who sprinted eight yards to give the Cardinals a 35-0 lead with 7:54 left in the fourth quarter.

Howe again had an impressive drive that stalled out with a turnover on downs at the Pottsboro 27. It was a 10-play, 45 yard drive that gave Pottsboro the ball at their own 18 yard line.

Ty Harvey intercepted a Pottsboro pass on the next possession which set up a 4-play, 53 yard drive that ended with Howe's first score on the night - a 44-yard gut buster by Andrew Griffin.

Pottsboro would finish the game with two turnover-on-downs while Howe punted and threw a last-minute interception trying to score at the end of the game.

competition with over half of them being 4A and 5A schools, including the reigning 4A state champion, North Lamar and several perennial 4A powerhouses such as Argyle, Canton, Wills Point, Robinson, and 5A Friso Reedy and Denton HS. Howe finished in the top 20 at that contest.

After their performance in Princeton the band traveled to Ponder where they competed in the preliminaries and finals and finished fifth overall. Again this week, the band received great critiques and received first and second place rankings from judges in some captions in another close contest.

"It was a tiring day and although we didn't finish as high in the competition as we would have liked, we accomplished what we set out to do as far as getting in three runs of the show in a contest setting," said Band Director Angie Liss. "These contests could be compared to scrimmages or non-district football games that help prepare you for district play. You want to do well and win but it's those district games that count for the playoffs."

The band's "district play" starts Wednesday when they return to Princeton to compete in the UIL Region 25 Marching Contest. Performance time is at 5:30 pm.

A first time for everything

by Mati Abner

Hundreds of youth exhibitors from across the state gather at the State Fair of Texas to show their livestock projects. Many exhibitors come from a place where raising livestock has been in the family for years. However, Howe High School sophomore, Molly Wilson, showed a pig for the first time during the Youth Market Barrow Show. Before she became involved with FFA she was involved more with sports and academics and never had an interest for agriculture. After enrolling in a freshman agricultural science class, she became more involved from her Ag teacher, Tracy Blum. Last year Wilson competed in Wool Evaluation, FFA Junior Prepared Public Speaking, and was a member of the state qualifying FFA Agricultural Advocacy Team and she currently serves as the Howe FFA Treasurer. Her involvement in these activities is what Wilson said sparked her interest for agriculture.

Wilson’s priorities changed this past May as she received her first State Fair pig. “I told my friends who didn’t understand what I was doing that I had a responsibility first before I could come hang out,” she said. For six months Wilson faced many challenges while also learning life lessons along the way. “It is a time commitment,” Wilson added. “It is a lot to handle and I am a perfectionist so I had to learn how to be patient with my pig but I learned responsibility for all aspects of life.” After the hard months of hard work leading up to the show, Wilson arrived to the Fair with her pig. “Monday night we did all of the prepping for show day, going over how to show and what to expect,” she said. Despite the stress that came along with show day, Wilson added that her family was able to enjoy time together at the fair. Forgetting all of the nerves once she stepped into the show ring Wilson was able to embrace the moment. Even though the outcome was not quite what she had hoped for, Wilson said that it has been a great learning experience and was happy that she was pushed out of her comfort zone. Wilson plans to continue showing pigs at the Texoma Exposition and Livestock Show and possibly more Texas majors in the future. She plans on attending Texas A&M University after graduation.

Choosing to give our stress to God

It may seem insensitive, but the idea of stress being an issue we can control is worth considering. Many within the medical world agree that stress is not a monster that forces us to be afraid but rather our worries originate as a response from within our own mind. Thus, if we can learn how to re-wire the way we think, we can begin to walk in victory over the stress which we blame for ruining our happiness. In some way or another, we have heard about going to our “happy place” a seemingly magical location where we can take shelter from whatever is threatening our security. But just what is this well-intentioned advice really talking about? It can mean different things to different people but to many, it’s a place in the deepest part of our conscience where we can commune with God and embrace the safety and joy of His presence. I remember a movie where a young girl was experiencing severe anxiety and panic attacks whenever a stressful situation would present itself. Her family would lovingly remind her to go to her happy place, and she would close her eyes and begin to control her breathing. As she blocked out what was happening around her and focused on comforting thoughts, she would eventually calm down and return to a peaceful state of being. As Christians, we are reminded that Jesus is a type of strong tower where those who are afraid can run into Him and be safe. Psalm 91:1 says, “They who dwell in the secret place of the Most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty. I will say of the Lord, He is my refuge and my fortress: my God in Him will I trust.” If we stop and think, we realize that everyone has a choice to either emotionally wrestle with their problems or immediately give them over to God and let Him take care of them. If you notice when we become entangled with these external circumstances and allow them to hold us in the bondage of stress, we are consumed with hopelessness and can hardly focus on anything else. However, when we embrace God’s truth by faith and allow Him to carry them for us, our confidence is renewed as we press forward in the freedom of His peace which passes all understanding.

God’s promise that no weapon formed against us can prosper, is another confirmation how the mountains and giants may try to intimidate us but if we listen and obey His instructions they cannot defeat us! Anxiety, fear, tension, stress, and worry are caused by thinking too much about the future, while guilt, regret, resentment, sadness and all types of unforgiveness are established by concentrating too much on the past. I was listening to a sports commentator the other day as he was explaining how a positive mental state is a crucial factor when it comes to success. He mentioned a particular football team that had recently lost a game by barely missing a field goal with no time left on the clock. The intensity of this gut-wrenching defeat was multiplied by the fact they had been defeated by this opposing team 30 years in a row. He was sympathetic yet making the point that if they could not get past this heart-breaking agony, this discouragement could possibly cause them to lose their next game. Living in the present means not allowing the disappointments from our past to prevent us from accomplishing the victories that are waiting for us in the future. How critical it is to remember that God never intended for us to carry the heavy weight of our burdens but rather to know and trust God, surrender our will and give everything we have and all that we are to Him. Yes, there will be difficulties but He is here now to put His arms around you and fill you with hope and faith. Consider this wonderful passage of inspiration found in II Corinthians 4:8-9. “We are troubled on every side, yet not distressed; we are perplexed, but not in despair; persecuted, but not forsaken; cast down but not destroyed.”

Howe Mercantile is ready for Fall and especially for the Howe-lloween season. I love the name that the Chamber has given to the October 28 event in Downtown Howe. I have found in the last 3 years that Howe acknowledges this holiday in ways that allow children and adults to have fun with this spooky night and promotes safety for everyone. How smart for the Chamber to choose October 28 instead of the school night of the 31st for the city event.

Although there are pagan connotations and religious opposition to Halloween, those issues evolved from customs dating back to the Celts, a tribal people who lived more than 2 millennia ago. The Celts held a Harvest Festival on October 31, Samhain, their most important religious holiday. Celts celebrated with dancing, bonfires, and feasting. Families honored their ancestors by preparing food and drink to make sure their “spiritual relatives (ghosts)” who walked among them that night were content and did not cause any harm. Some Celts donned costumes and masks to disguise themselves from evil-minded creatures.

Invading Roman armies brought their own harvest festival and fused their celebration with Samhain. The British brought their beliefs to American in the form of All Saints’ (All Hallows) Day on November 1 and began to celebrate the day before as Hallows’ Eve or Even. With time this changed to October 31 and came to be known as Halloween.

It is fun to decorate your home with Halloween and Fall décor. Howe Mercantile brought some really great concrete pumpkins from Pennsylvania that can be decorated or left plain if you like the shabby look. We also have Amish-made cloth orange pumpkins that look so cute stacked in a bowl. Smitten has funky skeleton and owl posters and the cutest bottle brush trees that are selling out before they hit the door. All of these decorative items can carry over through Thanksgiving until you are ready to decorate for Christmas. Yikes—is it really only 70 days until Christmas?

Plan to dress up and bring your costume-clad children and grandchildren to downtown for Howe-lloween. There will be vendors giving out candy and other treats, entertainment, FUMC’s trunk or treat, and Howe Mercantile will be open with some special sales to start the Holiday season off right.

A special feature will be Bucky (Wayne Carlisle) and his Howe-made goat milk soap from Bucky’s

Goat Farm and two of the “girls” that produce the milk for this amazing product.

Dr. Georgia Caraway, former director of the Denton County Museums for 14 years, and her friends opened the Howe Mercantile at 107 East Haning. Store hours are Thursday through Saturday noon until 8 p.m. She has written five Denton history books. She hopes her next book will be the history of Howe. If anyone has photos that she can copy, please bring them to Howe Mercantile.

Home school students build robot for upcoming competition

A group of home school students are preparing yet again for the robotics competition coming up Oct. 21.

The competition is entirely different from a year ago. The theme is "Cross Fire" which is a burning industrial complex. The officers of the group demonstrated their new robot which will proceed near an area representing a burning structure. The robot will remove "toxic waste drums" to a contained area and also rescue a "person" from near the burning structure. The robot will also shoot ping pong balls (representing water) at plastic cups (representing fire) and contain the blaze.

The shooting mechanism was not in place as of Wednesday afternoon, but was to be permanently placed on Wednesday evening. "We've tested it before on the prototype, but we haven't actually got it on the final robot yet," said Joshua Williams. "We were shooting the ping pong balls all the way across the shop.

The leaders of the team are Nicholas Williams, presentation leader, Nicholas Plumlee, exhibit leader, Joshua Williams, production leader, and Jacob Williams, CEO.

The team won first place at hub competition and qualified for regionals a year ago as Kingdom Country Academy (KCA), but now are with Texoma Home Educators (THE) which has a long legacy. They also won an award in the notebook category a year ago.

Texas History Minute

Dr. Bridges is a Texas native, writer, and history professor. He can be reached at drkenbridges@gmail.com.

Murder came to the darkened neighborhoods of the capital city on New Years Eve 1884. Mollie Smith, a young cook, was murdered with an axe, her body dragged outside and left in the yard. Her employer was also injured. This was the first of a series of eight deaths in Austin over the course of a year. In what became one of the earliest serial murder cases in the United States, the deaths left a bustling city used to political scandal and stories of death on the frontier gripped in terror.

On March 19, 1885, two young servant girls were hit with an axe while they slept. Though they survived, they could not identify their attacker. Another young woman, Eliza Shelley, a cook, was killed by an axe two months later while she slept. This was followed by another murder two weeks later and an 11-year-old girl in August. Police had no suspects. Modern investigative techniques did not exist at the time.

Texas writer and Austin resident William Sydney Porter, also called O. Henry, offhandedly called the murderer the “Servant Girl Annihilator” in a letter in 1885, and the name has since stuck with individuals studying the case. The Servant Girl Murders, as they were typically called at the time, sent the growing city into a panic.

The attacks were brazen, the acts of a madman filled with some undefined and maniacal rage. Age, race, and social class made no difference. In each case, the acts were committed while the victims slept and performed with either an axe or knife. Sometimes the axe was left behind. In many cases, the murderer took his boots off and wandered into the houses barefoot. Police noted a missing toe on one foot. But police were understaffed with only 12 undertrained officers, many of whom were known for visiting local saloons while on duty.

Survivors were never able to identify their assailant. One other witness that talked to police gave a confusing and contradictory description. Wild rumors ran through the city streets about the identity of the possible killer or even suggested that a gang of men was responsible.

The last two murders both occurred on Christmas Eve 1885. Two women were murdered by an axe in their homes while they slept. Susan Hancock was killed while sleeping alongside her teenaged daughter, and Eula Phillips, age 17, was murdered blocks away while her husband was seriously injured.

Serial killers usually will stop killing either because they have moved away from the area, they are in jail or institutionalized from unrelated causes, or they die. In 1885, it was considerably easier for people to slip away and disappear from public view. Austin was known for a population that drifted in and out of the city. No similar murders were reported elsewhere in the United States in the years after the Austin murders stopped.

One suspect, Nathan Elgin, was named as a possible suspect by Travis County Sheriff Malcolm Hornsby. Elgin was 18 when the murders started. In February 1886, he was shot while assaulting a girl near a saloon and died shortly afterward. Though Elgin was missing a toe and the murders stopped after his death, no other physical evidence or witnesses at the time was able to conclusively connect him. He had no arrest record, and though he does not fit the typical profile of a serial killer, this neither acquits nor convicts him.

Two trials were held in connection to the deaths. James Phillips was tried for his wife’s death the following May. The death of Eula Phillips by the axe seemed too similar. Though her husband was also wounded, he was placed on trial. It was clearly shown that his footprints did not match those in the other cases, but he was nevertheless convicted of second-degree murder, a conviction later overturned. Moses Hancock was tried for his wife’s death in 1886. The case ended in a hung jury.

The Jack the Ripper case shocked the world with the brutal slayings of five women, with these murders taking place in London between August and November 1888. Even at the time, some people speculated the two series of murders were connected. However, no evidence ever emerged to connect the two. While the two cases have a passing similarity on the surface, more in-depth examination shows that the targets and the styles of the murders were completely different. And what is truly more terrifying is that there was more than one person capable of such barbarity an ocean apart.

Austin tripled the size of its police force in 1886, set strict curfews, and forced the all-night saloons to close at midnight. By 1895, Austin’s distinct Moonlight Towers were set in place across the city to improve lighting and nighttime safety. Even a decade after the deaths, the city was still unnerved by the Servant Girl Murders.

Today, there is still some active discussion and interest in the Servant Girl Annihilator case. A number of books have been written discussing the case. None of the houses where the murders took place still stand, all wiped away by time and progress. Though more than a century has passed; and all survivors, witnesses, and possible suspects are long since dead, the case still remains technically unsolved.

The most terrifying things are not ghostly wisps or supernatural bumps in the night. True terror is the depths of evil that some people are willing to inflict on another. But even in a world of nightmares, the good is still strong enough to defeat the bad.

HPD arrests 21-year-old Melissa man for burglary and public intoxication

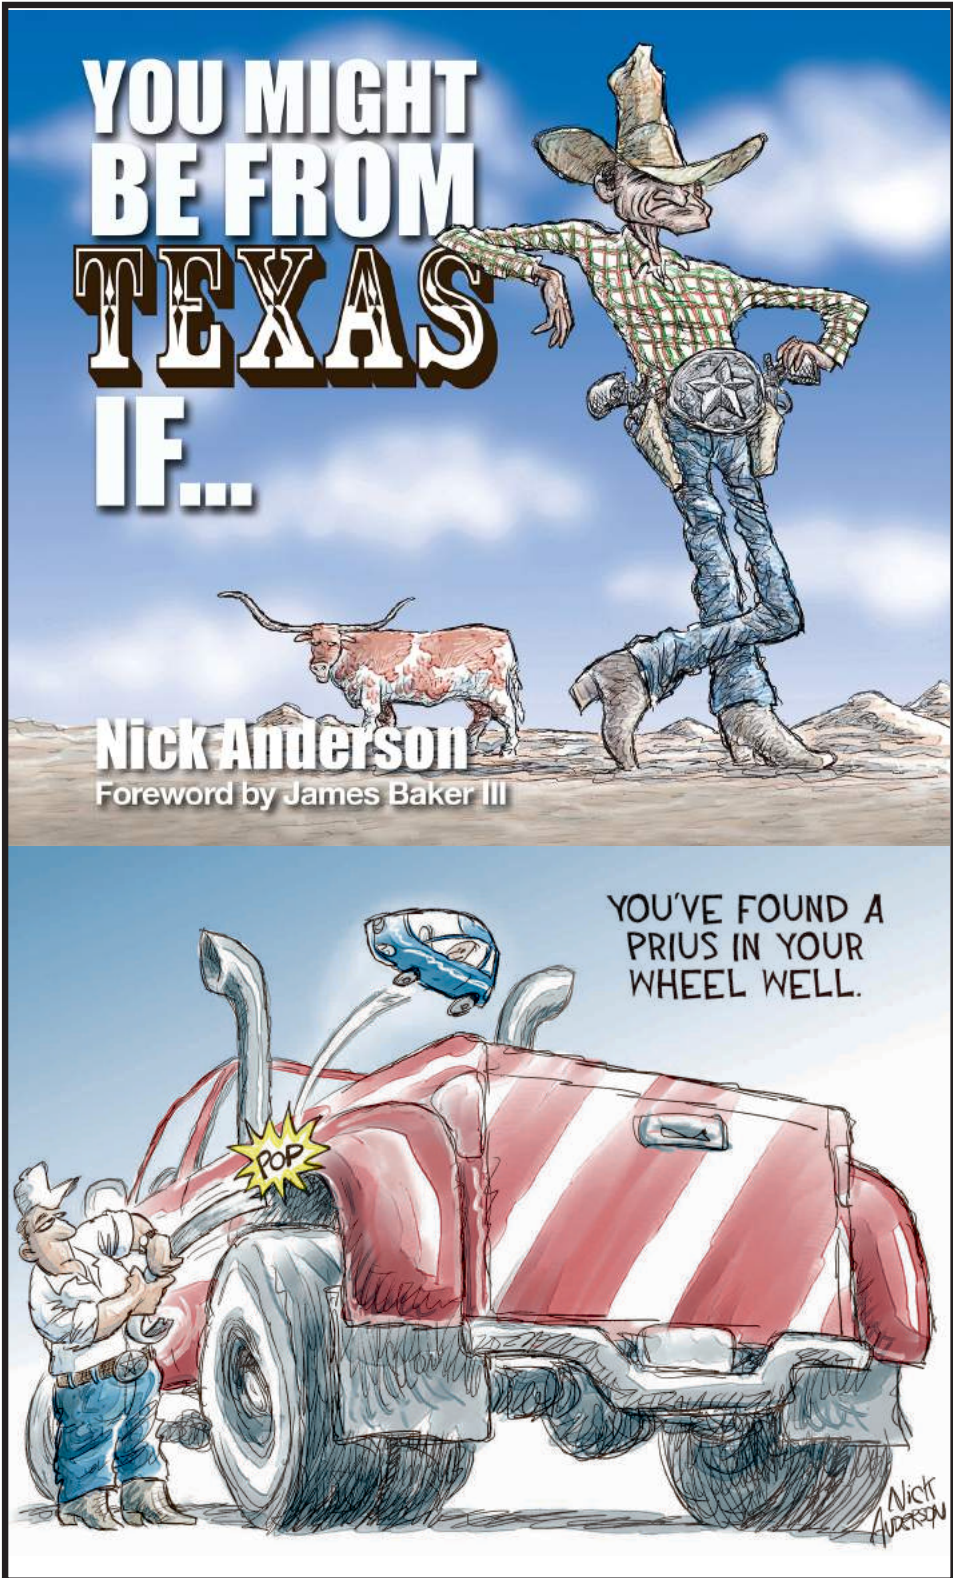

On Thursday, October 5, 2017, Howe Police Lieutenant Michael Hill and Officers Morris and Stone arrested 21-year-old Melissa resident Bryce Woodall for Burglary of a habitation, Aggravated Assault with a Deadly Weapon, and Public Intoxication.

Woodall broke into a home on Tutt Street at approximately 5:00 am Thursday morning. The homeowner heard the commotion and confronted Woodall. He assaulted the homeowner with a baseball bat, then ran from the scene. He was later located walking down State Hwy 5. Inside the backpack, he was carrying contained items taken from the home on Tutt Street. He was found to be intoxicated. Woodall was arrested and into the Grayson County Jail.

Fifth and sixth grade Dogs advance over Whitewright, 44-0

Howe's Garren Lankford scores one of his two touchdowns on the day. Jennifer Daniels/Howe Enterprise

Everything clicked for Howe on Saturday at Blue Ridge versus Whitewright in the opening game of the playoffs. Howe (8-0), the number one seed, took on Whitewright (0-8), the eight seed.

Braden Ulmer quickly scored for Howe while Cooper Jones caught the 2-point conversion from Jacob "Clyde" Campbell to give Howe an 8-0 lead.

Howe's next score came on a 20-yard run by Garren Lankford. Rowdy Kuykendall connected with Campbell for the 2-point conversion. Howe led 16-0.

Noah Riley ran around the right end for a 32-yard touchdown. Jones and Campbell connected again for the 2-pointer to up the Bulldog lead to 24-0.

Lankford added a 25-yard touchdown in the second quarter to give Howe a 30-0 halftime lead.

Ashton Trevino picked up the kickoff and ran it back 58 yards to open the second half. Beau Stephens caught the 2-point conversion from Campbell. Howe led 38-0.

Jesse Portman finished out the scoring barrage with a 2-yarder. Riley added the 1-point conversion on a blast through the right side. The final score was Howe 45, Whitewright 0.

The Bulldogs will play Tom Bean in Tom Bean on Saturday at 4:30. The winner of that game will advance to the Super Bowl in the fifth and sixth grade division.

Howe's third and fourth grade advance in overtime win, 26-20

The Howe third and fourth grade Bulldogs opened the game on defense and quickly forced a Whitewright turnover which was stripped and recovered by Vincent Castellanos

On Howe's first play of offense, Garret Rodgers scored on a 40-yarder to give Howe the first lead.

Howe's defense then forced a turnover on downs which set up a Beaudy Kuykendall score from 25 out.

Gavin Rodgers intercepted intercepted a Tiger pass and ran it back for a touchdown on Whitewright's next possession.

The Tigers did score just before half to make it 20-7.

Howe got the ball after half and turned the ball over on downs which set up the Tigers who scored on three plays bringing it to 20-14.

Both defenses stepped up to keep it scoreless until :17 left in the fourth when the Tigers tied it up 20-20.

Howe had first possession in overtime and scored, 26-20.

Will Ingram and Rylan Strong made the defensive stops keeping Whitewright out of the endzone in overtime. Howe advances on the 26-20 win to play Leonard at Tom Bean at 1:30 pm. The winner of that game goes to the Super Bowl in the third and fourth grade division.

VOLUME XVII      HOWE, GRAYSON COUNTY, TEXAS, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 11, 1940      NUMBER 37

UNDER THE Dome at Austin

By GORDON K. SHEARER
United Press Staff Correspondent

Austin.—(UP)—Several noted bankers appeared with delegations before the State Highway Commission this week asking for road improvements.

Brady P. Gentry, chairman of the commission, seized the opportunity to place the department's financial situation before them.

"If you would take half the time you have expended in coming here to Austin for road work to study the financial set-up of the highway department, you would accomplish more to help us provide roads," Gentry informed the bankers.

Gentry said that out of each cent the federal government has been collecting as tax on a gallon of gasoline used by motorists, only half has been returned to Texas for road uses. Now the tax has been put up half a cent and the federal road appropriation cut down.

Gentry said the situation is bad also on state gasoline tax. The state highways get but half of the four cents a gallon gasoline tax collected from the motorist. He suggested the bankers consider how taxes collected from the motorists because he uses the roads are diverted to other purposes.

State Rep. Albert Dorden of Marlin, who announced as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor this year and then withdrew after starting the race, is transferring his residence to Corpus Christi where he will practice law.

Dorden made his withdrawal from the race in favor of State Highway Commissioner Harry Hines, announcing that a study of their platforms and plans convinced him they had the same general ideas about state affairs and continuance of both of them in the race would weaken both. Dorden then campaigned for Hines who was defeated.

Chairman Harry Knox Jr. of the State Board of Control is now a licensed airplane pilot. General Knox took up flying while he was adjutant general of Texas. He continued his training after he was appointed on the Board of Control and has completed the number of hours of solo flight required for a pilot's license.

Texasans who wish to visualize the recent falling of bombs near St. Paul's cathedral in London have only to picture their own state capitol in place of St. Paul's to find what a mark it was for the Nazi flyers.

In size, St. Paul's compared closely with the Texas state capitol. It has a length of 510 feet from east to west compared with the Texas capitol's maximum length of 566 1-2 feet from east to west. It is broader from north to south than the Texas capitol extending 250 feet compared with the Texas capitol's 228 feet. Measurements for both are exclusive of porches.

Like the Texas capitol it is surmounted by a huge dome. St. Paul's dome rises much higher than the Texas capitol dome. To its tip the height is 404 feet. The Texas capitol dome height is 311 feet.

Every road in Texas and every proposed road is important from a military standpoint, if the delegations that visit the highway commission have the situation correctly analyzed.

Since the commission's announcement that it will direct its work principally to roads of military value for the time being there scarcely is a road project brought before the body without military advantages being claimed.

Proximity to military camps is not necessary for the road enthusiasts to see the road as a major national defense asset. Roads far in North Texas are described in their relation to the proposed national guard training camp at Brownwood. Southwest Texas connections to San Antonio's military establishments are cited and Central Texas road seekers are prepared to show the commission that roads through that territory are needed.

SLIGHT DAMAGE TO GIN FROM FIRE WEDNESDAY

About $50 damage was done to plant of the Planters Gin Company by fire about 2 p. m. Wednesday. The blaze broke out in one of the gin stands and was sucked into the condenser where most of the damage was sustained.

A bale of cotton in the press belonging to C. Chumbley was set afire and destroyed.

Next Wednesday is Registration Day

ALL MEN BETWEEN AGES OF 21 AND 36 REQUIRED TO SIGN FOR DRAFT

All men between the ages of 21 and 36 in the United States will be required to register for military service at their local voting precincts next Wednesday, October 16, between the hours of 7 a. m. and 9 p. m.

General election judges will preside over most of the registration booths. It is estimated that from 20 to 30 minutes will be required to fill out each questionnaire.

Appointment of boards for handling matters pertaining to the nation's first peace-time conscription have been announced and practically all machinery is ready to start filling quotas immediately. It is reported. It is thought likely that some draftees will be called by as early as October 26. Members of the local board and those in charge of registration serve without pay. Members of the Grayson county board as named by Gov. Lee O'Daniel and approved by President Roosevelt are as follows: (1) Hardie McAdams, Gordonville; J. W. Adamson, Denison; George C. Knaur, Denison. (2) Will Leslie and Judge C. T. Freeman of Sherman and J. H. Waggoner of Whitewright. (3) J. M. McLemore, Van Alstyne; E. T. Allen, Whitesboro; John B. Rice, Collinsville.

All eligible men in the Howe precinct will register at the school building, school being dismissed for this day. Frank Scoggins will be presiding officer and has named the following assistants: W. P. Thompson, W. M. McCoy, H. D. Taylor, P. L. Taylor, Miss Doris Taylor, Loy Helvey, L. B. Tolson, E. R. Brodhead, Wade Enloe, Walter Calloway and Miss Iva Medlin.

GAS COMPANY COOPERATES IN NATIONAL DEFENSE

The gas industry's responsibility in the national defense program, ways to improve customer service and preparations for meeting the peak demands for winter fuel were studied by more than 400 Lone Star Gas System foremen managers and other key men who have just completed their annual conference in Dallas according to Clyde W. Clack, manager of the McKinney district, who attended the meeting.

"The Lone Star Gas System is equipped better than ever before to furnish an adequate supply of gas in the face of extreme demands," he said. "This will be particularly beneficial in the national defense program where defense industries must have a dependable supply in order to carry on operations requiring natural gas service. An interconnected system thousands of miles of pipe lines bringing gas from more than 1200 wells in Texas and Oklahoma gives an adequate supply under the most extreme demands."

"Methods of helping consumers get maximum service from heating equipment through minimum operating costs was one of the chief concerns of the conference. According to a survey, many customers fail to utilize their present heating equipment in a manner to obtain the most healthful and beneficial results. Because of this condition the company has shouldered the responsibility of educating customers in the proper use of heating appliances. Newspaper advertising is one of the ways by which we are teaching customers healthful habits. This campaign is incidental to the sale of appliances."

Miss Marion Ricketts and Bill Mayo Married at Baptist Church Saturday

MRS. BILL MAYO

The marriage of Miss Marian Ricketts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Ricketts, and Bill Mayo, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Mayo of Aylesworth, Okla., was solemnized Saturday evening at the Howe Baptist church. Rev. C. Chumbley performed the ceremony.

The altar was decorated in palms and ferns with baskets of delphinium and pink gladioli. Tall candelabra with white candles stood at the sides. The wedding music was furnished by Miss Rosalie Butler of Howe and F. Neilson Rogers of Sherman, who sang "I Love You Truly." The candles were lighted before the ceremony by Floyd Brinkley and W. B. Montgomery.

The bride entered on her father's arm. She wore white satin with a high neckline, gathered bodice and three-quarter length sleeves. The full, gathered skirt fell from a fitted waist line and formed a train. Her fingertip veil of bridal illusion, fell in two tiers from a coronet of orange blossoms with a shorter face veil in front. She wore white kid gloves and carried a bible which had been given to her by her father on her eighth birthday. It was bound in white satin, topped with gardenias and shrouded with tube roses.

The maid-of-honor, Miss Mary Isabel Zimmerman of Sherman wore pastel blue faille taffeta mad, in colonial style with a sweetheart neckline, short puffed sleeves, and a fitted bodice. The hooped skirt was banded in royal blue velvet, from which fell a deep flounce. She carried a colonial bouquet of pink roses and wore pink roses in her hair. Mrs. Tip Daniels of Sherman matron-of-honor, wore fall taffeta in a dusty-rose shade made in the same style, with rose velvet banding the skirt. Her flowers were pink gladioli. The bridesmaids were Misses Oleta Gee and Hallie Ferguson of Howe, and Miss Marguerite Wilson of Sherman. Their dresses matched that of the maid-of-honor, and their flowers were pink gladioli. All of the bride's attendants wore pearls presented them by the bride.

The best man was Barton Hay of Dallas. Ushers were Logan Mayo of Dallas, brother of the groom, and Emerson Bates, Floyd Brinkley and W. B. Montgomery of Howe.

Reception After Ceremony

A reception was held after the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ricketts, where they were assisted in receiving the guests by the parents of the groom and the bridal party. Mrs. Logan Mayo and Miss Ruth Barnes of Dallas presided at the silver punch bowl. The table was covered with a lace cloth and centered with a three-tiered wedding cake, decorated with small white flowers and ferns. Miss Walda Dee Thompson, Miss Lena Grace Rutherford and Mrs. Emerson Bates assisted in serving. Mrs. Zac Emerson of Van Alstyne presided at the bride's book. Other members of the house party included Mrs. Prentice Taylor, Miss Mame Roberts, Mrs. R. Morrison, Mrs. Ernest McBee, Mrs. Truett Davenport, and Mrs. J. Blackburn of Howe; Mrs. R. L. MacMillan, Miss Sallie Austin and Mrs. Dero Austin of Southmayd; and Mrs. J. L. Williams and Mrs. L. E. Fields of Sherman.

For traveling, Mrs. Mayo chose a costume suit in shades of brown and tan with harmonizing suede accessories and a red fox scarf.

JOHN FRANCIS RAISES LATE ROASTING EARS

John Francis brought in a fine mess of roasting ears to the Messenger office Wednesday morning. The corn from which the ears were pulled was planted in July, he said, and had had no rain since planting.

1939 Wedding is Announced

Announcement was made this week of the marriage of Miss Mildred George and Alton Sollis which took place at Madill, Okla., Feb. 4, 1939. Rev. D. L. Riley, Baptist minister, officiated.

Mrs. Sollis is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. H. George. She has spent her entire life in this community, graduating from the Howe high school in 1933. She also attended teachers college at Durant, Okla.

Mr. Sollis is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sollis. He graduated from Howe high school in 1932, being an outstanding athlete during his school life. He is employed by a Sherman wholesale grocery concern.

Mr. and Mrs. Sollis will make their home in the Howe community.

Texas Electric Building New Power Plant

Construction was started this week on a new sub-station for the Texas Electric railway. The building will be erected on the site of the old portable plant in the rear of the passenger station.

Plans have been underway for construction of a new plant here for some time, and originally called for construction of the plant near the North Howe city limits. Space limitations forced abandonment of such plans, however, and it was decided to build at the station.

Tracks were laid Monday for moving out the old plant which will be used temporarily as it sets on the siding south of the station. The new building will be entirely fire-proof. Floor will be of concrete and the building itself will be iron-covered. Welded steel frame work will be used.

The generating equipment will be of the latest type. It will be entirely automatic, operating only when trains are in the Howe area.

PTA MEMBERS HEAR TALK ON TUBERCULOSIS

Using "The Prevention and Cure of Tuberculosis" as his theme, Edwin Eikel of the Grayson County Tuberculosis Association spoke at the regular monthly meeting of the Howe Parent-Teachers Association Tuesday afternoon at the school auditorium.

Mrs. W. C. Snell presided and introduced the speaker. Assembly singing was led by Mrs. Leonard George. Mrs. C. Doyle Powell gave a vocal number with accompaniment by Mrs. S. W. Yeury.

Reports of committee chairmen were received and Mrs. Oey Simmons was appointed to fill the vacancy in the office of vice-president created by the resignation of Mrs. Clela Davis.

Miss Jewel Clayton's first grade room won the recently conducted contest for obtaining the most paid members.

COMMUNITY PRAYER AT METHODIST CHURCH

The community prayer meeting will be held at the Howe Methodist church at 3 p. m. Sunday with J. L. Blackburn as leader, it has been announced.

Rev. T. W. Lovell, pastor of the church, will preach at Gunter at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m.

Among Howe folks attending the State Fair of Texas in Dallas over the week end were: Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Johnson and daughter, Bettie Sue, Mrs. A. C. Luper, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Poole, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Nelson and children, and Mrs. Ise Gurley and son.

STATE—

Twelve persons were injured, some of them seriously, in a collision of two trucks and a car west of Sherman Saturday night. Twenty-eight persons were involved in the accident, 25 of whom were in one of the trucks. Two more persons were injured at the same place Sunday when cars stopped on the highway to look at the wreckage of the first accident. Damage suits asking for $38,300 were filed in a Grayson county court Wednesday as an outgrowth of the wreck.

The State Fair of Texas opened Saturday with the largest attendance of any of the previous 52 opening days. Officials reported that 111,310 persons passed through the turnstiles Saturday.

The state of Texas' general fund deficit established an all-time record Saturday of $26,125,278.

Texas old age pensioners were advised Saturday that October checks would contain a $2 raise.

Governor Lee O'Daniel has been visiting North Texas legislators this week. On Monday he visited Capt. J. A. Benton, floratorial representative, at McKinney. Tuesday was spent in Fannin county and Tuesday evening he was entertained with a dinner at the home of Roger Q. Evans, Grayson county representative, and was a guest at the home of M. B. Morgan of Denison. Wednesday morning he visited Sen. Olan VanZandt at Tioga, and proceeded into Cooke and Denton counties.

Four football stars were injured, one seriously when a car in which they were endeavoring to catch a special train to Pittsburg, Penn., overturned between Dallas and Garland Wednesday.

NOTIONAL—

The United States Saturday night ordered out all navy and marine reserves for active duty bringing the navy's strength to more than 235,000 officers and men. The action is believed due to threats made by Japan because of the embargo placed on scrap iron and wheat. Sec. Knox said Wednesday that he did not anticipate immediate trouble in the Pacific but that the Pacific fleet would be brought to 100 per cent of its theoretical strength immediately.

TOUCHDOWN TWINS

THIS is a tribute to the fighting "Bulldogs" of Howe High. During the four years of conference football they have had the highest winning average in the conference. They have set a record that the school, the community is proud of.

With the opening of the 1940-41 football season, M. H. Jeter and Billie Patterson are contributing outstanding team work to the success of the games. They are called the "Touchdown Twins". Both are line backers; both can run, punt and pass; both are good trainers and both are good all-round sports. Both could be good students, according to Coach Cox. Jeter and Patterson have scored 75 out of the 81 points in three games played and won.

M. H. is the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Jeter. His own ambition is to play as well as John Kimbrough of the Texas Aggies. He likes football because it teaches good sportsmanship, and barring accidents develops a strong body. He said he had had no other thought all his life, but playing football—it is the one thing he likes best.

Billie Patterson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. D. Patterson. Billie makes up in bulldog tenacity what he lacks in pounds. He is as swift as a jackrabbit on the field, and as hard to catch. Both plan to play their way through college. Both are seniors.

HOWE'S THAT ?

Residents along old Highway 75 are finding it hard to sleep nights, since most of the traffic is now traveling the new Expressway through town. We planned ahead, and recorded a couple hours of trucks sliding to a screeching halt, taking off again, loud mufflers, and etc. We replay this at bedtime, and turn the volume down a little each night, trying to adjust to the somewhat quieter atmosphere. However, a lot of traffic from the south fails to turn west at Van Alstyne to take advantage of the new road. Could be the markings.

While taking a first official cruise down the Expressway Monday morning following the ribbon cuttin', we noticed the Howe city limit signs not very far south of the Hanning street overpass. Thought Howe was bigger than that.

o-o-o-o

Our first ride, officially, on the expressway, was in a Cadillac. Wasn't ours, though. Don Flesher of Van Alstyne, present for the ribbon cuttin', offered transportation to some of the bystanders here, including C of C President Ray Houston and Mayor Doug Wortham. Either it's an awful smooth road, or we're not used to Cadillacs. Could be both.

Speaking of Cadillacs —read in the Lone Star Gas Co. publication recently where a friend of ours, also in the newspaper business, had been in business for three years and "already he's taking his papers to the post office in a Cadillac."

Now this sounded impossible, unless the government was paying him not to print newspapers or he had secured a government business loan, which is against the rules (newspapers are not eligible).

We didn't waste any time inquiring as to what we were doing wrong.

"They failed to mention," he replied, "that it's a 1955 model" Oh well, sounded good anyway.

Ceremony Opens New Expressway

OPEN HOUSE SLATED SUNDAY IN WESTERN HILLS ADDITION HERE

Open House at Howe's Western Hills Addition has been set for Sunday, developers of the project, M. B. Swanner and J. W. Reed, said this week.

Featured will be several new homes recently completed in the area, a new four-unit office building, and an information center offering complete details of the entire city of Howe.

Visitors at the information center, located in the new office building, can also see plans for future additions to Western Hills including a new 65' diameter swimming pool, for which contract has already been let. Construction is scheduled to begin in early spring.

Main thoroughfare throughout the addition are complete, allowing visitors an opportunity to drive through the entire addition. Under construction at present are two service stations on either side of Hanning street west of the overpass. Another station is also under construction on the east side. Location for the proposed new building to house Howe State Bank is designated by a sign, also on West Hanning Street.

"At present, we have modern, new plans for construction of additional housing, and we are working on preliminaries for a shopping center," Swanner said. Sixteen new homes already dot the development, with others in various stages of construction.

The developers occupy one of the new office units, with others leased by the K Realty and Thompson Construction Co.

The open house is being publicized over a wide area, via TV, radio, and newspaper advertising.

PTA Meeting Set Tonight At 7:30

The Howe Parent Teacher Association will meet Thursday, (tonight) at 7:30. Speaker for the evening will be Rev. Bill Hindman, pastor of First Baptist Church. He will speak on the subject, "Who Is My Neighbor?"

Music will be provided by the Seven Notes: Vickie Finney, Ann Luper, Judy Harmon, Gay Cooper, Tanda Tolbert, Gary and Randy Ingram.

A social hour will follow. Everyone is invited.

Dispersal Sale At Nolen Ranch Here Saturday, Oct. 14

A dispersal sale including 250 acres fronting Highway 75 will begin at noon Saturday at the Nolen Ranch, according to Jack Nolen, owner.

Also included in the sale will be 85 head of top quarter horses, tractors, pickups, horse and utility trailers and miscellaneous equipment, and the large indoor arena.

The 26-room ranch home is air-conditioned, with nine bedrooms, six bathrooms, a large game room, and an office, in addition to the living room and kitchen. Over the double garage is located a one-bedroom apartment with living room and kitchen. A swimming pool is also included in the property.

Equipment will be sold first, beginning at 12 o'clock, with sale of the ranch set for 1 p. m. and horses at 1:30.

Lunch will be available on the grounds. Auctioneers will be Billy Tackett and John Carlile.

The ranch is located in the northern part of Howe.

Mrs. W. W. Collins, representing a pioneer Howe family, cut the ribbon beneath the Dorchester Road overpass Monday to open the new freeway from that location to Van Alstyne.

The section of freeway running through Howe had been named "Collins Freeway" in honor of the family.

Other members of the Collins family present included Miss Mame Roberts, a sister of Mrs. Collins, and Mrs. Collins' son, W. W. (Bill) Collins, who heads the regional office of HUD in Fort Worth. Also present were county officials, and officials from Howe and Van Alstyne.

Ray Houston, Chamber of Commerce President, was Master of Ceremonies for the short program preceeding the official opening of the new segment.

County Judge Les Tribble told the group, "The opening of the highway is a boon to all residents of Grayson County. It opens many new roads for industry for this area."

"We were especially happy to be in unanimous accord in naming the freeway through Howe, after the Collins family, Houston said. "They have long been associated with progress and growth in Grayson County."

Mayor Doug Wortham expressed thanks on behalf of the city to county and state officials for helping make the road possible, and Wortham also cited the new development that could be expected in Howe due to the new expressway.

Paper Drive

Howe Boy Scouts will hold a paper drive Saturday, Oct. 16, beginning at 9 a.m. Scouts will meet at the Methodist Church. Scouts and parents are needed to help pick up the papers. If it rains, the paper drive will be postponed.

Please leave papers outside near the curb, tied or bundled if possible.

AIR PACKS were strapped on the backs of Howe Volunteer Firefighters Saturday, Oct. 9, as they held a training exercise to enter a smoke-filled house.

Howe's that...

WE ARE NOT IN THE FAIRY TALE BUSINESS - Americans are critical of their press. Journalists don't have any problem with that; Americans are critical, even suspicious at times, of all their institutions. To a certain degree, that's what keeps the democratic system healthy.

This newspaper, as do all newspapers, receives a fair amount of criticism from its readers. We invite it, as a matter of fact, because we know we have flaws, and we want to correct them. What our readers have to say about the way we give them the news influences the thinking of editor of this paper.

There are, however, certain complaints we and all newspapers receive that reflect an acute lack of insight on the part of the complainers. I'm not talking about grips of those who believe the press is part of some sinister communist, capitalist, liberal or right-wing conspiracy. Such individuals will never be satisfied until the entire world comes around to their point of view.

I'm referring to the comments of otherwise thoughtful people who, when it comes to the press at least, say things that are way off base.

At the top of the list is the often-heard accusation that certain stories are published "to sell newspapers."

Bunk. First off, 75 percent of the copies of the Howe Enterprise printed each week is delivered to readers who have pre-paid subscriptions. So in effect, the overwhelming majority of the newspapers we print will be "bought" no matter what's on the front page.

Generally, the stories some people say we publish to sell newspapers are those about tragedy, crime and controversy. I suppose those people think they are somehow superior to the vast majority of their neighbors. I guess they figure everybody else in the county likes to read about unrest, death and destruction. I imagine they believe they and they alone are not thrilled by bad news. The Enterprise, they think, publishes bad news because that's what sells.

It doesn't. Nobody likes bad news. Nobody. That's only common sense, and you can't run a newspaper or any other business without generous helpings of common sense.

Do some people really want their newspaper to ignore the bad things that happen in their community? Do they think that if we don't write about accidents, crime, and political problems, such things will go away? It seems so.

We write about such things because in some cases they will only go away when people know they exist and decide it's time for a change.

All right, you say, newspapers should report bad news. But what about the good things? It seems the press is preoccupied with the negative and ignores much of what is positive. If you think that, then you are guilty of the very thing of which you accuse the press. You are looking for only the bad and not the good.

Pick up any issue of the Enterprise. Are most of the stories about what's wrong in the community? No, not by a long shot. Most are about people, about their lives and accomplishments, about the decisions of the government they have elected, about their churches, their clubs, their schools, about what and who makes this community tick.

In our writing and editing each week, we try to do the best we can to do our job - to serve our readers. We do not, however, look at the world through rose-colored glasses. People who want us to do that really don't want a newspaper at all. They want fairy tales, and we're not in the fairy tale business.

School Board Discusses Concession Stand

The Howe School Board met in regular session Monday, Oct. 11. Joyce Catching and Deanna Helms of the Howe PTA met with the board to discuss the concession stand at the football field.

Mrs. Catching said the present concession stand was built many years ago and has been added on to, but it is not big enough. There is no storage area and it is very crowded.

She said she had a price on a 13' x 21' metal building with foundation at $2500 not counting labor. She asked if the board would be willing to go half and half with the PTA to build a new stand.

(The PTA runs the concession stand each year and all the profits go into the school. About $3500 to $4000 is expected to be the amount this year.)

Board member David Catching said that a set of plans needs to be drawn up with specifications. Then the next step would be to get bids on the construction.

Other board members made suggestions of specifications needed. They said they would prefer concrete blocks to metal building. Also discussed was the possibility of building the concession stand at the north end of the field in order to face away from the north wind and allow concession workers to see the scoreboard. Another advantage of this location would be its possible use at baseball games.

Plans will be presented at the next board meeting.

Two bids were received by the school board for school property in Dorchester. Four lots, each one 25' x 145', were sold as a block to the highest bidders, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Smith, who live adjacent to the property. Their bid was for $3664.96. The other bidder was Chester Bailey for $2200.

In the attendance report, total enrollment was given - 760. There are 278 students in the elementary building; 246, in the middle school; and 236, in high school.

The board approved the hiring of Yvonne Stanley as a secretary and Lisa Fernandez as a part time student worker in office and cafeteria. The substitute teacher list was also reviewed.

A board policy on beards for teachers was amended, to allow well groomed beards from teachers. The vote was 3 for and 2 opposed. Glenn Fulton and Alton Norman were opposed. Fulton said he felt beards were not in keeping with the conservative image of the Howe schools.

Supt. Dr. Howard Tucker and board member Carolyn Cavender attended a school board association and workshop meeting in San Antonio last week. Tucker said he attended workshops on saving energy. The rising costs of energy are a particular problem for all school districts and he found it very helpful.

Mrs. Cavender attended as voting delegate. School board members from across the country voted on various issues to see how board members in general feel about certain issues.

Vandalism In Town

Howe Youth Sports League Commissioner Gary Engel reported last week that there has been some vandalism at the Howe City Park and damage to the north baseball field. The pitching rubber was pulled up and there are tire marks in the infield on the north field.

"Maintaining the parks and the fields takes many hours and many people have contributed their time, money, and energy toward making our parks better. It is unfortunate that everyone can't be as proud as those who have helped to improve playing conditions," Engel said. He urged everyone to report any vandalism and those responsible for such actions.

Vandals spray painted several building and signs early Sunday, Oct. 3.

The field house at the football field was spray painted and also the again. A lamb belonging to Beth Stambaugh at the ag barn was also spray with paint.

A number of highway signs leading into town was sprayed and sign advertising the AAA Kennels on old Luella road was vandalized. Anyone who has any information, should contact Howe Police Chief Ken Vickers.

FIREFIGHTERS ENTER SMOKY HOUSE

by Lana Rideout

There was no fire...no heat...just smoke -- green and red smoke. It was not a life-threatening situation; there was no real danger.

Howe Volunteer Firefighters held a training exercise Saturday, Oct. 9, in which two-men teams entered the "smoke house." The firemen were equipped with air packs and bunker gear. Bunker gear includes coat, boots, helmet, and gloves.

What's it like going into a strange house filled with smoke, and furniture blocking the way at times? This reporter says "It's a piece of cake" -- that is, if you trust the other person in your team, and if you know there's no real danger.

As a member of the Howe VFD, I was one who took part in this training exercise. It was my first time to do this type of exercise. Most of the other volunteers (11 in number) had used the air packs and attended training schools at A&M and/or Sherman. Some had even used an air pack at an actual fire.

For a first hand, first time experience, this is how it felt.

Attired in heavy coat, hip boots, gloves and helmet, it was difficult to move any faster than a slow shuffle. An air pack was strapped to my back and the face mask gave a momentary feeling of claustrophobia. For a minute, I thought, do I really want to do this?

Now, a reporter will do a lot of things for a story, but this was more than that. If I plan to be a serious member of the Howe VFD, this is something I should know how to handle. I hope I never have to use it in a real fire situation, but the knowledge gained Saturday might save a life.

I was now ready to enter the smoke house." Each two-man team had entered with a plan of staying either to the right or left wall all the way through, feeling the wall with gloved hand to find the exit. I entered first, followed by training officer Gary Frank, who talked to me much of the time to help me understand what to do. We followed the right wall, bumping into furniture -- couches, chairs, tables? I learned to use my legs to feel my way around the furniture. I kept my gloved hand high, feeling the wall when possible.

Some light filtered in through cracks in the boarded windows. The smoky rooms were not totally dark. Several minutes later we "found" the exit and were back outside where I was happy to get a breath of fresh air.

The training exercise was directed by Gary Frank, David Wortham and Jerry Campbell. Other members who participated were Jerry Park, Don Tjernlund, Jack Floodas, Jamie Jones, Mike Crocker, Joe Fenton, Mike Montgomery and Gary Engel.

The "smoke house" was an old house near the corner of Kosse and Denney. A fire truck was driven to the scene and hoses were laid out to the nearest fire plug, but no water was pumped. The two-men teams went into the house. Numbers were drawn to determine who was teamed with who. Several members went through the house twice, the second time on their knees.

The volunteers spent about three hours total on the exercise. Training officer Frank termed it a success.

Most members of the Howe Volunteer Fire Dept. work outside of Howe during the daytime. However, several members are available during the day - Joe Fenton, David Wortham, Don Tjernlund, Jerry Campbell, and Lana Rideout.

Citizens interested in joining the fire department should contact Chief Jerry Park or attend the fire meeting Oct. 19 at 7:30 p.m.

Family Fun Saturday

A fun filled festival has been planned for the entire family Saturday, Oct. 16. The annual PTA Fall festival will begin at 6 p.m. in down town Howe.

There are several food concessions. The 8th grade will be selling hamburgers for $1.25, cokes for $.50, and popcorn for $.25. The Howe SNAP Center will be serving chili, dessert of your choice, and coffee.

Several game booths will be open. The 8th grade will have a bean bag throw, 3 for $2.50 - knock all 6 cans down and get a 1 quart drink. The Band Boosters will have a "Bulldog Walk" and winners will receive a mug with a Bulldog on it. There will be a fishing booth, arts and crafts, cart rides, baked goodies for sale, and many more.

A Country Western band will provide free entertainment at the Howe Fire Hall. There will be other shows and entertainment throughout the night. Raffle tickets have been sold and will be sold for such items as a black and white bedspread and a AM/FM portable radio that plays cassettes.

Booths can be set up beginning at 3 p.m., but the street will not be closed off until 6 p.m. Each organization and class is urged to clean up their booths after the festival. Dumpsters will be set up at each end of the street for the use of all who attend.

There will be lots to see, lots to do, and lots to eat. The whole family will have a good time; so plan now to attend.

You Are Cordially Invited To Homecoming

The Howe Community has joined together to plan a super Homecoming on Oct. 22 and 23. Everyone is invited to attend.

There will be a city wide pep rally and bonfire at 7 p.m. on Thursday, Oct. 21. On Friday, Oct. 22, the Howe Bulldogs will play the Tom Bean Tomcats at 7:30 p.m. The football team, coach, cheerleaders and pep squad of the 1958-59 team will be recognized. The Homecoming Queen nominees will be presented on a float.

On Saturday, Oct. 23, from 10 a.m. to noon, there will be an informal get together of classes at the high school with refreshments served. At 3 p.m. there will be a Homecoming Parade which will form at the high school gym parking lot and proceed to Duke, across to Hughes and down to Bulldog Stadium. From 4:30 - 6:30 p.m. there will be a Reunion Barbeque at Bulldog Stadium sponsored by the Friends of the Howe Public Library. Advance tickets are $5.00 adults and $3.00 children under 10; at the gate $6.00 adults and $4.00 children under 10. In case of rain, the barbeque will be held in the high school cafeteria.

A 7 p.m. on Oct. 23 there will be a Homecoming Program at Bulldog Stadium. Former Superintendents and teachers will be recognized as well as the coach, pep squad, cheerleaders and team of 1958-59.

Speaker will be Dr. Elvis Arterbury.

After the program there will be a Street Dance from 8:30-11:00 p.m. downtown Howe. For those who do not care to attend the dance there will be visiting at the Howe High School Cafeteria. Letters have been mailed to as many ex students and faculty as addresses are available. If you know anyone who has not received a letter, please invite them. If you are a Howe resident and have not received a letter, please check with the library. Postage is being saved by passing out the letters locally.

Advance tickets may be purchased by specifying how many of each ticket needed and checks payable to Homecoming Committee. Mail information to P.O. Box 756, Howe, TX 75059. Advance tickets may also be purchased at the library. All tickets ordered by mail may be picked up at the library until 6 p.m. Friday and until 11 a.m. Saturday.

You may call the library to make reservations for the barbeque. The library is open Monday through Friday from 1 to 5 p.m.

All organizations, classes and individuals are invited to be a part of the Howe Homecoming Parade on Saturday, Oct. 23, at 3 p.m. Each group can enter any type float or vehicle. Please help make it a success and let us know of your plans by Monday, Oct. 18. If you have any questions see Sandra Williams at the High School; Donna Wormsbaker at the Elementary Building; or Marilyn Power at the Middle School. Any individuals or organizations may contact Jimmy Wormsbaker who is in charge of the parade.

4-H Award Banquet Held

Several from the Howe and Dorchester area were honored at the Annual 4-H Awards Banquet held Saturday, Oct. 9, at Denison High School.

First year pins were given to leaders - Mr. & Mrs. John Chumbley and Mr. & Mrs. Bill Lankford. Three year pins went to Mr. & Mrs. Bobby Solis. Mrs. Patty Bement received a four year pin and Mrs. Jeanette Scott received a five year pin.

Achievement awards went to:

Brent Lankford and Christy Solis in Beef; Tammi Lankford in Citizenship; and Michelle Chumbley in Swine. Tania Bement was recognized for participating in the fashion revue and Tena Scott for junior livestock judging.

This year's Friend of 4-H Award went to John Chumbley of Dorchester. He worked as announcer and superintendent at livestock shows and sponsored trophies for the 4-H and Fall Livestock Shows. He is a former 4-H member and served as a County Extension Agent for several years. He is president of Dorchester Grain and is currently serving as president of the Texoma Exposition and Livestock Show.

GETTING OUT THE FIRE HOSE are members of the Howe Volunteer Fire Dept. The firemen held a training exercise Saturday, Oct. 9.

Howe's That . .

ATTENTION, BULLDOG FANS! - Even though the varsity football team has a 1-5 record right now, that record does not show what kind of team we have. The Bulldogs have played some tough opponents and have lost some close games.

This week is an important game. It is a home game and it is against Pilot Point, a city that usually fields a powerhouse team. But remember, Pilot Point can be beaten. Howe has beaten them before and we can do it again (like Friday night!).

Fans, your support is needed. Be at the game. Cheer for the team. Cheer LOUDLY for them. Let them know that you believe in them. These young men are putting a lot of time and effort into learning the competitive skills. Let's back them all the way!

Also, a revised roster appears on page five of this issue. There have been a few changes in the positions, numbers, etc. of the varsity team. It helps you to cheer when you know the name that goes with the number.

PRAYER REQUEST - Mary Rivard of Howe requests special prayers on Friday when she again visits her eye specialist. She has been having eye surgery and she feels that prayer from those in the community will be helpful to her at this time.

RECIPE NEEDED! A reader has requested a recipe for homemade salsa. If you have one to share, please call the Enterprise at 532-6012 or mail to PO Box 488, Howe, TX 75459.

VOTER INFORMATION - Included on page four of this issue is information on candidates running for the Court of Criminal Appeals and for the Texas Supreme Court in the Nov. 3 election. This information is presented to help you make an informed decision at the polls.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Several severe accidents have occurred at the entrance ramp to Northbound US 75 at SH 5 in Howe in the past few years. At least one accident there resulted in a death. A number of petitions and letters were sent to the Texas Dept. of Transportation. Howe resident Norma Wallace received this letter and felt Howe residents would be interested in reading it.

Dear Mrs. Wallace:
We have completed our study of the above mentioned locations (US 75 at SH 5 in Howe, entrance ramp to northbound US 75). We plan to add advance warning signs, "Ramp Entrance XXX Feet" as well as large green guide signs that will identify the ramp entrance on the frontage road at the US 75 entrance. We will also use raised buttons and reflective pavement markers to create a no passing zone on either side of the ramp. The west side of the frontage road near the entrance ramp will have the shoulder marked off with joggle bars. This should help discourage northbound motorists from moving to the left side of the roadway before reaching the ramp. We believe these modifications, which will be accomplished as soon as work schedules permit, will improve conditions at this ramp; however, we will continue to monitor this location.

We appreciate your interest in the safety of the public highways.
Sincerely,
Gary K. Trietsch
Traffic Operations Engineer
Texas Dept. of Transportation

HHS MARCHING BAND

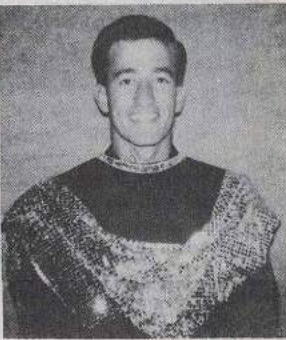

Band Wins Honors At Competition

The Howe Band picked up outstanding awards for Drum Major, Color Guard, and Horn Section at the DeSoto Marching Band Contest held Saturday, Oct. 10.

Howe placed second in marching to Cedar Hill's (4A school) first place. Howe placed ahead of West Mesquite (5A), Commerce (3A), Kennedale (3A), Grand View (2A) and Red Oak (4A).

The competition was not by size classification by the amount of students participating in the marching show. This was not a UIL contest.

On Saturday, Oct. 17, the band will compete in The Colony Marching Festival in Lewisville at 3:45 p.m. in Goldsmith Stadium. On Wednesday, Oct. 21 is the UIL contest at Mesquite Memorial Stadium. Howe will play first at 11 a.m. Other 2A schools competing will be Malakoff, Crossroads, Tom Bean, Whitewright, and Edgewood. The ratings will follow. The 3A competition begins at 12:45 p.m. and then 4A at 6:30 p.m. Competition of 5A bands will be held Saturday, Oct. 24.

DRUM MAJOR

Homecoming '92 Is Great Success

Homecoming '92 with the theme "Remember when..." is now history and will be recorded as one of the most enthusiastic ever. Announcements were mailed in early September to 1,667 Howe exes listing dates and events. Reservations were being received within two days for the luncheon and calls from several states with exes wanting specific information.

As planned, the bon fire on Thursday night was safely completed with the close supervision of the school officials and the Howe Fire Dept. This old tradition resulted in a learning experience for many of the young students as several adults were overheard defining to their children what a bon fire is and what the purpose was back in their school days.

As for the Friday night ball game, the stands were filled early with the excitement of not only the pre-game activities but the opportunity to see former classmates and teachers. The south ramp to the stands was a favorite location for many to make contacts as seating was not available. There was so much conversation that many exes don't know yet who won the ball game!

A reception was held in the school cafeteria immediately after the game so that exes could continue to share stories and catch up on the latest. That took a while as we didn't leave until midnight!

There was just enough time to change clothes and then back to the cafeteria at 8 a.m. and the Saturday activities. The set up was not complete when the exes began to arrive. While the other school campuses had been opened as requested, it was almost impossible to get the exes to separate from the reception area to make the tour.

For lunch, a catered meal was provided with a choice of meats. It seemed that some lunches were not completed because of the continuous conversations! Luncheon music was provided by Elmer Schenk and the Howe Goodtime Band.

The formal program began with an invocation by Alton Norman, who is not only an ex but the current Howe ISD school board president. Appropriate "welcomes" were provided by Ray Bledsoe (mayor), Carolyn Cavender (Ex Association Secretary), and Dr. Wayne King (Howe ISD Superintendent). A "Remember when..." with music was provided by the Howe Goodtime Band, Dorchester Sisters, Hawkins & Holcomb, Angie Wortham and Tim Roby.

Helping to "Remember when..." with school activities were Charles R. Thompson, Dr. Bob Thompson and Arthur Boyle, as well as a special appearance by Little Willie's mother, Wylene Pool. Their remarks were excellent and helped us all feel good again by being able to call these people our friends.

Special recognitions and awards were presented to:

Charles R. Thompson, Howe ISD Administrator of the Century
Ralph Davis, class of '26 - oldest attending

Wylene Pool - Little Willie Club
Traveled the most for Homecoming '92 - Cleophas Chumbley, Fairfield, CA; Douglas Murley, Arcadia, CA; and Jessie Greer, Riverside, CA.

Certificate of Appreciation - Howe Enterprise
The classes of 1942 (50 years) and 1967 (25 years) were recognized.

The only business items requiring a vote included setting the next homecoming to be in 1995 and the approval of the report of Jack Norman who chaired the nominating committee. The association officers for 1995 will be Janie Finney, secretary; Alton Norman, treasurer and Freddy Holcomb, president.

After being led in the Howe school song by all past cheerleaders and one of the authors of the school song (Mrs. Maxine Haziip Hartwig), the benediction was led by Ron Corzine.

All of the Homecoming '92 committees certainly appreciate the assistance as well as the favorable comments. It makes the work worthwhile when the results are smiles, hugs, and a continuation of friendships.

Make plans now to attend Homecoming '95!

Dogs Lose
District Opener

Friday, Oct. 9, Howe opened district play at Celina. At the half, Howe and Celina were tied, 7-7. Even at the end of the third quarter, the game was still close. But early in the fourth quarter things went wrong for Howe, and Celina, capitalizing on some mistakes by the Dogs, scored 33 points for a 50-7 victory.

Celina coach G.A. Moore praised the Howe team by saying, "The score's not indicative of the kind of team Howe's got. Things kind of snowballed (for us)."

Celina took the opening kickoff and managed a first down midfield before punting on downs. Howe took over and steadily moved the ball until play stalled just outside the Bobcat 10. A penalty on Howe moved the ball back 5 yards and a try for a field goal failed.

Celina came back for a similar drive which was stalled at the Howe 14 and Celina's try for a field goal also failed as the first quarter ended, 0-0.

Howe managed only one first down before punting on downs. Celina began a successful drive starting at the Howe 44 and used four plays to score on a 34-TD run with 7:21 left in the first half. The kick was good for a 7-0 Bobcat lead.

Then two possessions later Howe advanced the ball from their own 37 using five plays to score. Doug Ogle scored on a 10-yard run. The drive was highlighted by a 12-yard run Ogle and a 22-yard pass from quarterback Brian Freese to Chad Norton to set up the final 10-yard run. Ogle also kicked the extra point. With 2:05 left on the clock for the second quarter, the game was tied at 7-7.

On Celina's next possession, Freese intercepted a Bobcat pass and ran it to the Celina 40. Howe's lost control on a 4 and 1 at the 31, but a couple of plays later Celina fumbled the ball to Howe and the half ended.

Howe took the second half kickoff but fumbled the ball to Celina at the Howe 20. Four plays later Celina kicked a 32-yard field goal to pull ahead, 10-7, with 9:24 left in the third quarter.

About a minute later, Celina intercepted a Bulldog pass and five plays later scored a TD and PAT kick for a 17-7 lead with 5:57 left in the third period.

The Dogs advanced the ball to the Celina 35 before losing possession on downs. Howe's defense pushed Celina for a loss on the next series and Howe had the ball for four plays.

Celina scored on a 75-yard run on the first play of the fourth quarter for a 24-7 lead with 11:29 left in the game. The sudden momentum for Celina carried them on to score at 11:06 on an intercepted pass and at 9:39 on a fumble to build a 36-7 lead.

Howe managed to move the ball to the Celina 37 but Freese's pass was once more intercepted. This time the Dogs defense pushed Celina for a loss on the four play series and Howe took control again at their own 35. But Celina again picked off a Bulldog pass and two plays later raced into the end zone from 24 yards out. With 4:36 left in the game, Celina held a 43-7 lead.

Ogle advanced the ball to the Celina 40 on a 27-yard run, but a couple of penalties on Howe stalled out the drive.

Celina's final score came on a 71-yard run on the next play of the game and with 2:43 left on the clock, Celina led 50-7.

On their last possession of the game, the Dogs managed to advance the ball to the Bobcat 34 before the drive ended and Celina had possession for the final minute of the game.

Freese completed 9 of 24 passes with 4 interceptions. Jay Carson caught 4 for 20 yards; Chad Norton caught 2 for 47; and Jeremy Francis caught 2 for 34. Rushing was led by Ogle with 120 yards on 16 carries and Carson 25 on 11 carries. Kai Bray gained 8 yards for the Dogs on 1 carry and Norton added 2 on 1 carry.

PILOT POINT - OCT. 16

On Friday, Oct. 16, the Howe Bulldogs host Pilot Point at Bulldog Stadium. Game time is 7:30 p.m.

Advance tickets are $2 for students and $3 for adults. All tickets are $4 at the gate. Advance tickets are on sale until Noon Friday at Howe State Bank, Howe high School office and Howe Middle School office.

Pilot Point is 5-1 for the season and 1-0 in district having defeated Aubrey, 55-14, last Friday night.

Coach McQueen and the team appreciate the support of the fans. "This week is an important game. Everyone needs to come out and cheer the Dogs on. Your support is an important part of the game."

Ode To Fall Festival

Bring Grandma and Grandpa and baby too!

There will be plenty for everyone to see and do.

We'll have dogs with chili and dogs without,
Sausage and tamales to shout about.

If something sweet is what you want,

Funnel cakes, cotton candy, and ice cream we've got.

If it rains in a very hard way, We'll just wait for a better day.

So come one, come all To the Festival of Fall,

There will be games and crafts,

And lots of laughs, Help raise money and visit and linger.

Because this year there's a Country Singer.

Howe's that ...

by Lana Rideout

Grandchildren are a blessing. Have you read the following Bible scripture? "... may you live to see your children's children." Psalm 128:6

I often write about my seven grandchildren and how much I enjoy being with them. As you know, I have three handsome grandsons and four beautiful granddaughters. I enjoy seeing them in various programs. I enjoy talking to them about school and other things.

Often as parents, we are busy making a living and trying to make sure our children have the things they need, and we don't really enjoy just being with them. Oh, I went to all their school programs and relished being with them.

But, with grandchildren, there is a different responsibility. And I think that helps you to enjoy them a little more.

Thirty-five years ago my husband and I moved to our home on N. Hughes St. It has always been a great neighborhood.

This week our neighborhood is a little sad. My next-door neighbor Bob Armstrong died on Saturday and was buried this week. At age 80 he lived a long and useful life. He was a good neighbor and he will be missed.

And speaking of grandchildren, Bob told me several times that grandchildren are wonderful, but great-grandchildren are GREAT! I am sure I will agree when I am blessed with great-grandchildren.

Public Notices

A window into government

Public notices published in newspapers provide citizens a window into government. Most of the information for the following questions and answers comes from the booklet "Public Notice: An American Tradition, An Examination of the Role of Newspapers in Public Notice," published by the Public Notice Resource Center and American Court & Commercial Newspapers.

1) What is a public notice?

A public notice is information informing citizens of government or government-related activities that affect citizens' everyday lives.

2) Why do we need public notices?

An important premise found in both federal and local governments is that information about government activities must be accessible in order for the electorate to make well-informed decisions. Public notices in newspapers provide this sort of accessibility to citizens who want to know more about government activities.

3) What is the history of public notices?

The history of public notice begins long before the emergence of newspapers. The concept has existed since early civilizations posted notices in public squares. This crude method was eventually refined with the publication of the first publication of the first English language newspaper in 1665 - a court newspaper called The Oxford Gazette.

In America, the Acts of the First Session of the First Congress in 1789 required that all bills, orders, resolutions and congressional votes be published in at least three publicly available newspapers.

Upholding the public's right to know has been essential to our country's way of life since day one. Our government governs with the consent of people, and this consent must be informed.

4) What are some examples of a public notices?

There are many kinds of public notices. Publication of proposed budgets for local governments, notices of local government hearings, bid notices, board and agency meeting minutes and pre-election notices are just a few examples.

5) Are newspapers the most effective vehicle for public notices?

Public notices published in newspapers ensures readership by those most likely to be interested in or affected by the notices. Plus, the notices arrive at readers' homes or places of work in a

TEXOMA NIGHT OUT

Howe wins "Spirit Award" second year in a row

by Lana Rideout

Despite earlier rain showers and overcast skies, about 80 Howe residents turned out Saturday afternoon, Oct. 6, to meet the 10th Texoma Night Out Unity Caravan.

While waiting for the caravan, residents enjoyed nachos, Frito pies, cookies, and soft drinks as well as lots of music.

About 5:45 the caravan arrived in Howe with patrol cars from many police departments in the county as well as members of the Grayson County Sheriff's Office including Sheriff Keith Gary.

Howe folks gathered at the corner of Denny (Hwy. 5) and Hwy. 902 to greet the caravan. Coach Steve Simmons and a group of Howe youngsters gave a chant and a cheer for the officers as they waved Howe PD white and black banners. Officers from the caravan smiled as they heard the words of the chant, "Hold your head up and hold it high... For our police are passing by." Several officers drew for raffle winners (some officers even won prizes). They all spent time visiting with the Howe folks who had gathered to meet them.

At the end of the event, members of the caravan selected three winners: Howe won the Spirit Award; Tioga won the Most Improved Block Party Award; and Whitesboro received Best Overall Award.

Sheriff Gary praised the success of the event saying, "We had enthusiastic crowds throughout the county."

The annual event is a program for crime-prevention and community-policing to bring law enforcement officers and folks in the various communities closer together. Howe, along with those in other cities, hosted a block party so that folks get to know neighbors and to meet police officers.

Many area businesses and individuals donated prizes for drawings as well as food and other goodies.

Thank you to the following for sponsoring and/or donating to a successful Texoma Night Out event in Howe: Albertson's Denison; Angels of Care; Dr. Karleskint DDS; City of Howe; Hurricane Creek Rotary; Designer Cuts Plus; MagniFab Southwest; Nietling Optical; Ms. Barber's 4th Grade Class; Coach Simmons' Lil Bulldogs; Frantz Repair Services; Finn's Catfish; Quick Check-Howe; Dollar General-Howe; Premier Designs; Heart to Heart Hospice; M&M's Hardware; Salon 101, Baker HVAC; Citys Deluxe Spa; Howe's Your Hair; Cop Stuff; Remcor; US Post Office-Howe; Independent Bank

Gunter makes it 11 in a row over Howe

Christopher Columbus discovered America just as Elvis Presley discovered Rock and Roll.InAmerica, we are all about being first, therefore, we attribute things to people and say they were the first whether they actually were or not.

Columbus Day is a U.S. holiday that commemorates the landing of Christopher Columbus in the New World on October 12, 1492. It was unofficially celebrated in a number of cities and states as early as the 18th century but did not become a federal holiday until the 1937. For many, the holiday is a way of both honoring Columbus' achievements and celebrating Italian-American heritage. Throughout its history, Columbus Day and the man who inspired it have generated controversy, and many alternatives to the holiday have appeared in recent years.

Contrary to popular belief, most educated Europeans in Columbus' day understood that the world was round, but they did not yet know that the Pacific Ocean existed. As a result, Columbus and his contemporaries assumed that only the Atlantic lay between Europe and the riches of the East Indies.

The first Columbus Day celebration took place in 1792, when New York's Columbian Order—better known as Tammany Hall—held an event to commemorate the historic landing's 300th anniversary.

Howe's Dylan Moreau chases down Gunter quarterback Austen Gressett

According to MaxPreps.com, Gunter came in to Friday night's matchup with Howe as the 10th ranked team in the State of Texas as far as Class 3A, Division 2. But early in the second quarter, Gunter (5-1) found themselves trailing Howe (2-4) 14-0 in a strategic game of keep-a-way. Howe was :33 seconds away from takiing a lead into the half, but Gunter would score and eliminate all momentum that the Bulldogs had mustered all through the first and second quarters. Howe won the coin toss and elected to receive to start the game, which proved to be a tremendous decision. Howe killed 8:45 off of the initial clock on their way to a 75-yard drive that was ended on a three-yard touchdown by Anthony Hawthorne, his team-leading ninth of the season. The drive saw a crucial fourth down conversion that kept the drive alive. Gunter touched the ball on offense for the first time with only 3:15 remaining in

Howe Elementary learns Fire Prevention

Fire Prevention Week was established to commemorate the Great Chicago Fire, the tragic 1871 conflagration that killed more than 250 people, left 100,000 homeless, destroyed more than 17,400 structures and burned more than 2,000 acres. The fire began on October 8, but continued into and did most of its damage on October 9, 1871. The Howe Fire Department visited Howe Elementary on Thursday to educate the youngsters on the dangers of fire and the precautions to take to avoid the dangers.
