

Howe's That

Trick 'R Treating will take place in Howe on the traditional night of Tuesday, Oct. 31. Be courteous to houses with their lights turned off. Do not knock on doors with no lights on. Also, if you're old enough to drive or have facial hair, you're too old to trick 'r treat.

Community Bible Fellowship will have Trunk R Treat on Tuesday Oct. 31, 2017 from 6:00 – 8:00. Trick or treating and hot dogs.

After coaching kids in football since they were in kindergarten, it was very tough to let go this weekend. Those kids have become like family to me and I love each and every one of them. There are favorites, however. All coaches have favorites and it's usually the ones that work the hardest, never complain, will play any position you ask of them and encourage others while they are doing it. To me, Rowdy Kuykendall exhibits the essence of a true football player and teammate. But Rowdy is not the only one - there are many like him on this team. Cooper Jones, Ethan Mayo, Mahlon Walker, Zeb Montgomery, Noah Riley, Ashton Trevino and many others have the same spirit and I'm so very proud of them. We finished our season Sunday at Cowboys Stadium and told them that we expect to see them there again in a few years - at state.

'Pride of Howe' marching to state for 21st time

The Pride of Howe Marching Band will make its 21st appearance at the UIL State Marching Contest. The band earned the right to advance to the next level by placing in the top four out of 24 qualifying bands. To compete at the area level, bands had to earn a First Division rating at their respective region contests.

The area contest is held in a preliminaries/finals format. After the preliminary round the field of bands is narrowed to 10 bands and the top four from the finals advance to state.

"We knew going in that it would be a very tough competition," said Band Director Angie Liss. "Our area has so many quality bands. I'm so proud of the kids and we are all very excited to be representing Howe in San Antonio."

The Howe band will now compete against 19 other 3A bands in the state preliminaries at 4:45 pm on Tuesday, November 7. Other bands advancing from Area B are Whitesboro, Farmersville and Holliday. The full schedules for all the state marching contests can be found at uiltexas.org.

A send-off is being planned for Monday, Nov. 6 at 9 am from Howe High School.

Two youth Howe football teams win their Super Bowl Championships

It was a double-header championship game for the Howe Bulldogs youth football program on Saturday. The third and fourth grade combined team as well as the fifth and sixth grade combined team reached the league championship game. At the end of the day, both teams held high the gold football championship trophies.

The third and fourth grade played at noon and Howe kicked to Collinsville to start the game. On the second play of the game, Howe's Will Ingram

Those that follow the Howe Bulldogs (0-8; 0-3) closely can see week-to-week improvements. A week ago, it was the offense that began to move the ball against heated rival Van Alstyne. On Friday night, it was the Bulldog defense showing big signs of improvement by holding the Whitesboro Bearcats (5-3; 2-1) to a 7-0 halftime lead.

Howe didn't give up another score to the Bearcats until over midway through the third quarter. Howe actually took the lead early in the third quarter, but a holding call wiped out a 5-yard touchdown pass from Chase Havey to Ty Harvey.

Overall, Howe had four turnovers, a touchdown

Local homeschooleders take top honors at area robotics competition

Texoma Home Educators, a team made up of homeschooleders in and around Grayson County, took top honors among 52 teams at last weekend's BEST Robotics competition. The team garnered first place overall, third place robot, and top presentation, and will be competing in the state championship in early December.

Boosting Engineering, Science, and Technology, began at TI in Sherman in 1993 and has spread nationwide to include over 20,000 public, private, and home school students. It is a six weeks robotics competition in which students are given a "kit" with materials such as plywood, PVC, a little plexiglass and sheet metal, four motors and servos, and called back on a penalty and a dropped halfback pass that would have added point. But even with those mistakes, the defense held Howe squarely in the game for 38 of the games 48 minutes.

Howe's tails call of the coin-toss allowed for the Bulldogs to defer to the second half which allowed Howe's defense to make a big stand to start the game and turn away an opponent on their first possession for only the third time this season.

Howe drove to the Whitesboro side of the field but forced a fourth and short which the Bulldogs were unable to convert. The Bearcats then capitalized on the short field and went three plays and 54 yards resulting in a Weston Hickman 18-yard touchdown run giving Whitesboro an early 7-0 lead with 2:29 left in the first quarter.

Howe's next possession ended in a punt and Whitesboro then missed a 32-yard field goal which hooked wide left.

The Bulldogs got a break when Hunter Cheatham punted the ball down the field and Parker Blount recovered a fumble by the returner. The Dogs were in great shape at the Bearcats 42 yard line and were once again in position to convert a fourth down, but an offsidess pentalty took the fourth-and-short to a fourth-and-long and Howe had to punt which forced Whitesboro to start from their own six yard line. The Bulldogs defense kept up the pace with an 11-yard sack by Cameron Blesi that forced a Bearcat punt.

Howe was in great shape at the Bearcat 34 yard line, but Chase Harvey's first pass of the drive was intercepted, giving Whitesboro near mid-field.

Both teams exchanged punts before the the first half clock expired and Whitesboro went shocked and slumped into the locker room with a 7-0 lead over Howe.

Thanks to Clay Marshall's coin-toss call of tails, Howe took the ball to open the second half and promptly raced down the field on only three plays that covered 75 yards. Chase Harvey threw a quick pass down the sidelines to Mason Riggs who outran everyone on the field for a 63-yard dink-and-dunk touchdown. Calley Vick's PAT came up short and Howe trailed 7-6 with 11:20 remaining in the third.

Howe started to take control of the game on the next possession when linebacker Andrew Griffin intercepted a Scout Sanders pass which gave to Dogs the ball at the Whitesboro 33 yard line. Four plays later, the Harvey to Harvey connection put the go-ahead points on the board for a moment, but the have to construct a robot to accomplish a particular goal. The 2017 theme is fire and rescue, and teams had to create a robot which simulated rescuing a victim from an industrial explosion, retrieving barrels of chemicals, and putting out the fire by shooting ping-pong balls at plastic cups.

Teams portray themselves as startup companies at a trade show, giving a marketing presentation to a panel of investors, and constructing and staffing an exhibit booth. Teams also drive their robots in a series of head-to-head competitions.

The BEST award is a composite score based on a team's robot performance, creating an engineering notebook documenting their design and production process, the presentation to judges, the exhibit information booth, and overall spirit and sportsmanship. Anabelle Graham, a second year student, noted "Being on T.H.E.'s robotics team has taught me so much about not just engineering, but also about the marketing aspect of a company and about sportsmanship."

Texoma Home Educators has been competing in BEST since 1998 when they debuted with a team of seven students. With twenty-seven members this year in fifth through eleventh grade, this is the fourth consecutive time the team has advanced to the state championship.

"Our production team worked smoothly this year, creating a robot that won us 3rd place at the competition. The presentation team practiced hard, writing and memorizing their presentations so well that they won best presentation at the competition," commented sophomore Jacob Williams, the team president. "The hard work from these teams along with our exhibit, engineering notebook, and spirit and sportsmanship teams really paid off, winning us 1st place overall at the competition over about 50 teams! I'm incredibly proud to lead this team of students who put so much effort into winning these awards."

The state competition will be held December 7-9 at UTD and the Dr. Pepper stadium in Frisco.

score was quickly erased by a holding call. Backed up to the 14 yard line, Howe could not get in and turned the ball over on downs.

Howe's defense held again on Whitesboro's next possession giving the Dogs the ball at their own 20. Three plays later, Howe fumbled which gave Whitesboro an opportunity deep in Howe territory. Three plays later, Sanders scampered around the right end for 24 yards and the Bearcats score to extend their lead to 14-6 after the successful PAT with 4:20 on the third quarter clock.

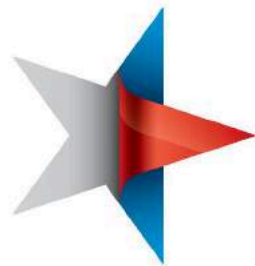

Howe drove nine plays on their next possession before being forced to punt. The Bearcats then put together a back breaking 11-play drive that went 78 yards. Brooks Barker ran the wildcat play for an 8-yard touchdown to give the Bearcats a 21-6 lead with 9:05 remaining in the game.

Afer each team traded fourth quarter punts, Howe, trying to make something happen, threw back-to-back interceptions that were ran back for touchdowns. The first was Nolan Frith and the second was Barker to give the Bearcats a 34-6 lead with 4:35 left.

Griffin would plow through and jump over defenders to score a 1-yard touchdown late in the game to bring the final score to 34-16.

Howe will travel to Pilot Point this Friday to face the Bearcats who lost to Pottsboro, 27-21.

Howe High School National Honor Society to hold annual Veterans Day Program

It is one of the most memorable events held each year at Howe High School. The National Honor Society will welcome and honor all local veterans at the annual Veterans Day Program to be held on Nov. 10, 2017 at 9 am at the Howe High School Gymnasium.

Each year a featured speaker will address the packed gymnasium and address the student body and the veterans.

Local veterans wishing to be a part of the program should contact Kim Floyd at Howe High School.

The event is open to the public.

Downtown Howe-lloween a monster-mash hit

Anyone who's ever put on an event understands that nothing is guaranteed - especially the first time an event is held. The Chamber of Commerce's Downtown Howe-lloween was the brainchild of several individuals and organizations and the result was an amazing turnout for a two-and-a-half-hour event.

Most vendors that lined up in the streets ran out of candy to hand out. The First United Methodist Church brought many games and much candy and helped make the event the success that it was.

It appears now that this is an annual event after the successful evening.

Fond memories with my Grandparents

Dr. Billy Holland

An older man was telling a story the other day about his grandparents and it caused me to think back to when I was a kid and the relationship I had with my mamaw and papaw. Now that I'm older, I realize that grandparents look forward to spoiling their grandchildren and are usually just as excited. When I was growing up, my dad and his dad worked together in their own construction business and every so often in the summer, my papaw would take me home with him. Sometimes, I would stay for a whole week and those adventures were some of my most cherished childhood memories. On the way to the country, it was not uncommon for me to become car sick because the roads were so curvy, but hanging my head out the window did bring some relief. When we arrived, I would feel weak and my grandmother would say I looked as white as a sheet, but with her administering every remedy she could think of, it didn't take long for me to recover. You see, I was the first child and the first grandchild, so with being the center of attention you could say I was a little spoiled. They were always squeezing me and kissing me so much that I could hardly breathe, but it's a good feeling to know you are loved.

To a boy of seven or eight years old, houses and yards seem huge, but have you noticed when you grow up how everything seems to shrink? I drove by a few years ago and hardly recognized the place. It was so tiny and even the land which seemed like a vast plantation to me back then was actually more like five acres. As a kid, their house looked beautiful to me but it was really just an old farmhouse that my papaw had tried to patch and piece together. The front yard seemed as big as a football field and I remember one day my papaw wanted to see if he could beat me in a foot race from the driveway to the garden. I can still feel the hot summer air against my face while out of the corner of my eye I could see his bare feet flying past me. I slowed down and started laughing as I knew he was not feeling well. He had a debilitating kidney disease and I discovered later that even though he did not say anything that day, the overexertion caused him a lot of pain and we never did that again. He did it because he loved me and just wanted to play and have some fun with me. In behind the house, the yard steeply dropped off into what many people call a holler, and if you were willing to climb down a steep cliff, you would find yourself on the bank of the Kentucky river. Across the road were fields of tall grass as far as you could see sprinkled with patches of large trees and if you were real quiet sometimes you could hear them majestically sway in the wind along with the lonely sound of a cawing crow.

I remember one time, they drove their old station wagon in the creek and parked it right in the middle. We rolled up our pants and waded out into the cold water. They started washing the car while I was thrilled to explore and see what I could find. My papaw would also take me fishing in his old wooden boat and then after he cleaned our catch, my mamaw would fry them and make cornbread as they were so delicious. At bedtime I would sleep with them in a massive feather-bed. It was such a feeling of security like I was in an enchanted castle where everything felt magical and larger than life. In the winter I loved to throw paper wads in the fireplace and can still see the red-hot chunks of coal. I really miss them both and know in my heart they truly loved me. Every time my mind goes back to these special times, my eyes cannot hold back the tears. Someone said, "Grandparents make the world a little softer...a little kinder...and a little warmer." They must have had grandparents like mine.

Howe PD arrests two individuals with ten pounds of marijuana

Van Alstyne Police Officer Colton Raper (left) and Howe officer Brando Ozuna (right)

The Howe Police Department arrested a Grayson County couple early Monday morning after a traffic stop on U.S. Highway 75 that netted nearly ten pounds of marijuana and more than $3,000 in retail merchandise that is presumed to have been stolen.

The arrests resulted from a traffic stop during which the occupants of the vehicle driven by Lara attempted to discard the marijuana from their moving vehicle.

Ricardo Lara, 33, of Denison, and 25-year-old Karla Covarrubias-Huerta of Sherman were booked into the Grayson County Jail for Delivery of Marijuana (5 to 50 pounds) and Tampering with Physical Evidence.

Howe officers are working with retail establishments to determine the origin of the merchandise found in the vehicle to determine if additional charges are warranted.

The officer was Howe officer Brando Ozuna. Van Alstyne Police Officer Colton Raper assisted.

Texas History Minute

Dr. Ken Bridges

Dr. Bridges is a Texas native, writer, and history professor. He can be reached at drkenbridges@gmail.com.

A young man escaping the poverty of a foreign land, dreaming of a better life, and becoming a hero for his adopted nation may seem too fantastic for a jaded age, but it is the true story of Medal of Honor recipient Macario Garcia, an immigrant and World War II veteran. Like many of his generation, he fought with courage on the battlefield and at home to defend the United States and its ideals to build a better nation.

He was born January 2, 1920, in Villa de Castano, a tiny village in Mexico. Garcia was one of ten children born to destitute farm workers. In 1923, to improve their fortunes, they came to the United States, like so many other immigrants from so many other lands. They settled in the Sugarland area, just outside Houston. As soon as he was old enough, Garcia joined his parents working in the fields. Like many other farm workers, he worked hard, but his education was sporadic.

In 1942, Garcia enlisted in the army. America had become his home, and his home had been attacked. He was determined to serve in its defense. An infantryman, he was wounded at the Allied invasion of Normandy on D-Day in 1944. Awarded the Purple Heart, he soon returned to duty. He later earned the Bronze Star as well.

In November 1944, as American troops were beginning to push into Nazi Germany, Garcia and his men found themselves in a desperate battle. They were pinned down by machine gun fire, and Garcia was wounded. He carefully crawled to a position near the machine gun nest, hurled a grenade, and shot three enemy troops to take out the gun. A second machine gun opened fire, and Garcia again crawled over to also take it out single-handedly. The men were saved, and the army’s position was secured. For his actions, he was given the Medal of Honor.

President Harry S. Truman presented him with the medal in a White House ceremony on August 23, 1945. Shortly afterward, his native land of Mexico awarded him the Merito Militar, one of the highest awards in the Mexican Army, for his valor. Garcia was honorably discharged in 1946, leaving with the rank of staff sergeant.

For many veterans returning home, it is often difficult to fathom how much they have changed because of their experiences while so little has changed for those they left behind. Such was often the case for World War II veterans. Garcia himself would discover this much to the horrors of himself and the nation when he stepped into a restaurant in Richmond, just outside Houston, in September 1945 – not even one month after the war ended and his White House appearance.

Garcia’s face had been in newspapers all over the Houston area. His story was well-known by this point. In spite of his service, in spite of his heroism, in spite of saving the lives of his fellow soldiers on multiple occasions – putting his own life at risk to save others -- the restaurant owners refused to serve him because his skin was not the right color. Insulted, Garcia began arguing with the owner. The owner then beat him with a baseball bat. To make matters worse, police arrested Garcia and charged him in the incident.

Garcia had shed blood defending his adopted country and the freedoms for which it stood. Now his blood was shed because of bigotry. Journalists across the nation condemned the treatment of the Medal of Honor recipient. Former Gov. James Allred stepped up and served as his attorney. Through his powerful defenders, Garcia was able to win delays for a trial. In 1947, prosecutors quietly dismissed the case.

Afterward, he was able to get his American citizenship in 1947 and worked with civil rights groups to fight segregation and other unjust laws. He returned to school and earned his high school diploma in 1951.

He eventually landed a job as a counselor with the Veterans Administration. Here, he spent the rest of his career helping his fellow veterans. He remained active in his support of civil rights. He spoke to various veterans groups, schools, and civil rights groups as the years passed. On November 21, 1963, he met President John F. Kennedy at a reception in Houston the day before his tragic death in Dallas.

In December 1972, Garcia was critically injured in a car wreck. He died on Christmas Eve at the age of 52.

In the years after his passing, the Medal of Honor recipient was further honored. In 1983, Houston’s new army reserve center was named in his honor. In 1994, a middle school was named for him in Sugarland, and Houston later named an elementary school and renamed a street after him. Honor led to a life well-lived.

Howe third and fourth grade Head Coach Cye Carter raises the trophy after they planted the Super Bowl victory.

stripped the ball from the Pirate ball carrier which gave Howe the ball at their own 47 yard line. On Howe's first play, Garrett Rodgers ran 42 yards to the five yard line that set up a Beaudy Kuykendall quarterback keeper only two plays later. How'e PAT was no good and the Bulldogs led, 6-0 early.

The ensuing kickoff pinned Collinsville within their own 20 yard line. The Pirates ran the ball three times with each tackle being made by Ingram. Collinsville was forced to punt it back to Howe who eventually would punt it right back to them.

With penalties and backfield tackles made by Owen Carr and Gage Owens, Collinsville faced a fourth and 18 and gave it back to Howe who took the 6-0 lead to the half.

Howe received the kick to start the half and both teams traded four-and-outs until 3:01 left in the game when Vincent Castellanos rand the second touchdown in for the Bulldogs.

Collinsville had the final possession, but the Dogs defense denied them once again and with Collinsville out of timeouts, the game ended with Howe on top, 12-0.

At 2 pm, the fifth and sixth grade Dogs faced Blue Ridge who came into the game, 8-1 and outscored their opponents by a hefty margin. Howe won the coin toss and elected to defer. The Dogs defense forced a turnover on downs and Howe offense quickly moved the ball down the field with runs by Braden Ulmer and Cooper Jones. Ulmer eventually scored from the two yard line to cap off the 4-play drive.

On the first play of the second quarter, Howe quarterback Jacob Campbell scored on a 49-yard naked bootleg to give Howe the 12-0 lead.

Howe again forced a turnover on downs which set up another big drive led again by long runs by Jones and Ulmer. The touchdown came on a 7-yarder by Ulmer who showed great second-effort to get in. Howe led 19-0 after the Marshall Larsen PAT run.

Blue Ridge connected on a 62-yard pass to Christian Walker to give the Tigers their first points against Howe in six quarters. The PAT was unsuccessful and Howe clung to a 19-6 lead with 1:23 left before the half.

Howe answered right back with a 60-yard touchdown pass from

Campbell to Jones to give Howe the 25-6 lead with one second remaining in the half.

Howe took the ball to start the second half and turned it over on downs deep in Blue Ridge territory. However, Blue Ridge's pass on first down was intercepted by Rowdy Kuykendall who returned it 33 yards for the touchdown and a Howe 32-6 lead after Campbell ran in the 1-point conversion.

The Tigers running back, Walker, raced around the right side for 52 yards and a score to narrow the Howe lead, 32-12.

Headed to the fourth quarter, big runs by Campbell and Garren Lankford set up Howe's final score, a 17-yard score by Jesse Portman right up the middle. Portman also ran in the point after and Howe led, 39-12 with 4:32 left in the game.

Walker, of the Tigers answered back with his third touchdown of the game moments later to narrow the Howe lead to 32-19 with 4:07 left.

Howe took the ball back and killed the clock with runs by Kolin Murphy and Ashton Trevino as the team celebrated with their 39-19 win to finish the season with a perfect 10-0 record. The team outscored their opponents this season, 321-33.

The win for the fifth and sixth grade was the third time they have won the Super Bowl as a group. The team also finished with a 29-game winning streak.

Coaches of both teams want to thank the parents for their support throughout the entire season and many seasons as well as all of the cheerleaders for their hard work and support throughout the years.

Vincent Castellanos carries for the Bulldogs.

Cooper Jones gets a lead block from pulling guard Crawford Beebe.

Draft Drawing
Next Tuesday

DRAWING AT WASHINGTON
TO DETERMINE ORDER
IN WHICH CALLED

Determination of the order in which the nearly 17,000,000 men who registered for military training last week will be called is to be settled Tuesday when drawing of numbers will be made at Washington. Secretary of War Stimson will draw the first number.

Numbers drawn at Washington will determine the order in which the registered men will be called up for service. As soon as the order numbers have been assigned questionnaires will be mailed each registrant. The answers to the questions submitted will determine the classification into which the registrant is placed. Four classes will be set up, based on the various claims for exemption from military service.

Efforts of registered men to obtain the serial number assigned them by their local draft boards are a waste of time, officials have stated this week. The serial number has little meaning and much searching is required to learn the number of any particular person.

As soon as the order numbers are assigned an alphabetical list will be compiled and released to the newspapers for publication. Preparation for publishing all orders of local draft boards applying to this particular section are being made by the publisher of this newspaper. It is hoped to have the list of order numbers ready for publication next week, although it is probable that the list cannot be compiled in the short amount of time between date of drawing and publication date.

NEGROES PROVIDE DRAFT DAY HUMOR

Fort Worth—(UP)—Texas negroes provided much of the humor on Oct. 16, registration day for military service.

At Anson, in West Texas, a colored preacher about 60 years old appeared at the registration station early in the morning. He was told he was over age.

"Well, suh," he said, "I'll go home and git my boy to sign up."

Roy Washington of Fort Worth tried to register early in the day on Oct. 16 at Palestine. He was told to go to Dallas. En route, he was in an automobile accident and failed to reach Dallas before the registration booths closed.

He came home to Fort Worth and visited several local doctors before he found the proper one to accept his late registration.

"I figgers I walked 50 miles to sign up," said Washington.

Another registrant was asked by the registrar when his card was filled out:

"Now where do you want your body shipped?"

The darky took a deep breath and replied:

"To heaven, boss. That's where my soul will be!"

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Wallis and daughter, Pauline, of McKinney visited friends in Howe Monday.

Miss Ruth Bryant has been working for the Grayson County Selective Service Board No. 2 in Sherman this week.

SERIAL NUMBERS AT MESSENGER OFFICE

The Messenger was able to obtain a list of the registrants in this draft board district late Thursday night. This list is posted in the window and serial numbers of all men in this district may be obtained from it.

Howe Defeats Anna
By 25-0 Score

The Howe Bulldogs won their fourth conference game in district 14-B at Anna Friday afternoon, bowling over the Anna Coyotes 25 to 0.

Howe made its first score in the initial quarter when Haizlip ran over right tackle 29 yards to score. In the third quarter Jeter went around left end 18 yards to count another six points. A pass, Jeter to Paterson, was good for 54 yards and a third touchdown in the early fourth. Late in the game Howe recovered an Anna fumble on Anna's eight. On the third try Jeter went over from the four. A pass, Jeter to Jones, netted the extra point on the last score.

First downs were six all. Howe gained 471 yards running and 72 yards passing. Anna gained 62 yards from scrimmage and 84 yards passing.

FORMER RESIDENT WRITES ABOUT DIGEST ARTICLE

Mrs. Alice Gumm Estes of Dallas, a native of Howe, wrote the following letter to Miss Mame Roberts this week:

I am a reader of the Reader's Digest, and I see in the November issue your article on the little city of Howe, the place of my birth. I have sweet memories of the little city, and appreciate your interest in the dear little town I knew your mother. We were good friends. She was a bright and wonderful woman, and that's why a lovely daughter is carrying on.—Mrs. Alice Gumm Estes, 730 N. Mont Clair, Dallas, Texas.

As a country raised boy, he worked his way thru Texas A. & M. College, graduating first a Bachelor of Science Degree, and in 1896 a Master of Science Degree. Following this he continued his studies in plant breeding with the world renowned T. V. Munson of Denison, Texas, and at the Missouri Botanical Gardens in St. Louis, University of Missouri and Cornell University in New York.

Taught at A. & M.

He was later a professor and on the Experiment Station staff at Texas A. and M. College, and following this, taught Botany in University of Texas until 1906. He was later Special Lecturer in Agriculture and Agricultural Education in the Oklahoma A. & M. College. He, with the late Dean Lewis of the Oklahoma A. & M. College, wrote a textbook on School Agriculture which was adopted as school textbook on Agriculture in many states, including Utah, Alabama, Kentucky, South Carolina, and was later the adopted text on Agriculture in Texas for 12 years.

A. M. Ferguson has since his younger years been active in Scientific Educational, and Agricultural Associations. He was elected a Fellow in the American, and also Texas, Association for the Advancement of Science and other Scientific Associations.

Officer in Farm Groups

He has been an officer in many Agricultural Associations in Texas and the rest of the United States. He was Secretary of the "Southwestern County Life Association," as a part of Teddy Roosevelt's "National County Life Association." This included more than a dozen Southwestern states.

For many years he was Vice-President of the Texas Grainers Association, and active in many trade associations concerned with the handling of the products of Texas farms.

He is more generally known as a Seed-Breeding, Seed-Growing Seedsman, and for the origination and introduction of new varieties of Corn, Oats and Cotton that are widely used throughout the South and West.

HALLOWEEN CARNIVAL NEXT
WEDNESDAY NIGHT

The Senior class of the Howe high school will sponsor the annual Halloween carnival and the crowning of football queen at the gymnasium next Wednesday night. A drum major will also be selected.

PREACHING AT BAPTIST CHURCH SUNDAY

Rev. Nat Farley, pastor, will preach at the Howe Baptist church Sunday morning and evening. It is announced. The public is invited to attend both services.

Mrs. Wesley Cox and Martha Barnett visited friends at the Denton colleges Tuesday.

Hitler and Mussolini Aren't Going To Like State Board of Education

Austin—(UP)—Adolf Hitler, Benito Mussolini and Joseph Stalin certainly would not approve the action of the Texas State Board of Education in its selection of new school books.

"Stand Fast for Freedom" is one of the texts that will be used in Texas public schools beginning next September as a result of the board's selections.

It tells of great fights for freedom made by liberty lovers down through the ages. Almost every chapter ends with an incident of modern times in Germany, Italy or Russia infringing on liberties that had been established.

The story of Pastor Martin Niemöller, his distinguished war service for his fatherland and his treatment under the Hitler regime is told at length and declared to be only one among thousands of such incidents.

Fuehrer Hitler is described as having had power voluntarily given to him by the people, then using it to take away their liberties little by little. It warns that the price of liberty is eternal vigilance.

Elsewhere the volume quotes a reference to Hitler as a "crazy house painter."

Mussolini Condemned.

Mussolini's ears would smart if parts of the book were read to him.

The Italian premier is contrasted with Garibaldi, the Italian patriot. Garibaldi is praised for sincere belief in his principles and Mussolini condemned for using the principles only to get into office.

The book describes Mussolini as a student of Machiavelli's writings and with practicing the treachery advocated in "The Prince".

But what probably would burn Mussolini up most in the book is his description of the "March On Rome." It pictures him as leading from behind, sending his black-shirt supporters on the March while he cautiously waited until he had been assured it was all right for him to come to Rome and take over. His march on Rome is described as then taking place in a sleeping car.

Stalin is called the "big dictator in Moscow." He is described as hating the thrifty peasant Kulaks because of their opposition to collectivism.

The text tells a story of Ivan Petronski, a Kulak, and what he suffered for expressing his opposition to Stalin's plan. Petronski, his wife and five children were left to starve after their goods had been taken as the method of the big dictator to liquidate all opposition, it narrates.

A cartoon in the textbook pictures prostrate Balkan peasantry being trod upon by a huge book labeled with the German swastika and the Russian sickle.

Cartoon Shown

One of the unusual features of the book is the inclusion of many cartoons. At least a dozen are reproduced. They include cartoons from the New York Daily News, the Philadelphia Inquirer, the Philadelphia Evening Public Ledger, the Baltimore Sun and a syndicate cartoon.

The book's authors are Lowell Thomas and Berton Braley. The John C. Winston Company is the publisher.

The book is not the first adopted for Texas public schools that includes cartoons. Many of the safety texts are illustrated with cartoons. Several safety books already are in use and another has been adapted for use in high schools next fall.

High school pupils will then get a course in sociology economics and government in a book titled: "The Problems of American Democracy." Ninth grade classes will study a text on community civics.

Texts on home economics and speech arts will be added for junior high schools and there will be a book of supplementary material for use in speech arts classes.

There will be three texts on vocational agriculture. One will deal with field crops, one with livestock and one with conservation. The course is taught in rural schools.

Changes will be made in the texts now used for teaching writing, drawing, arithmetic and spelling.

Recognition as the typical American family went to a Texas group this year Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Leathers and two children of Clarendon. They left Saturday for New York City where they will accept national honors. The Leathers family was chosen by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce last summer as the typical West Texas family and were entered in a contest at the New York World's Fair with forty other families.

A total of 808,588 men were registered under the selective service act in Texas, Gov. W. Lee O'Daniel advised C. C. Dykstra, national director Saturday.

The State Fair of Texas closed in Dallas Sunday night with at least three new attendance records established. The fair reported the largest total attendance in its 52 years; the largest opening day attendance and the largest single day attendance.

Bonham staged a homecoming celebration Tuesday in honor of Sam Rayburn, recently elected speaker of the house of representatives. Mr. Rayburn held open house Monday at his farm home near Bonham. He will spend some time in Texas campaigning for the re-election of President Roosevelt, he said Wednesday.

State Agricultural Commissioner J. E. McDonald announced Tuesday that he will support Wendell L. Willkie for the presidency. McDonald, who is a life-long Democrat, is opposed to the farm program of the New Deal. He is unopposed Democratic nominee for re-election to the post he has held for several terms. W. N. Corry of Keller unsuccessful candidate for the Democratic nomination in the July primary, said Wednesday that he will conduct a write-up campaign against McDonald. McDonald stated Wednesday that he had received many telegrams, letters and phone calls since announcing his intentions and that most of them commended his stand.

HOWE, GRAYSON COUNTY, TEXAS, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 26, 1967

Sunday night, October 29, is the night — again.

It's the time you're supposed to stop all clocks, watches, sun dials and other time pieces to let the night saving time catch up with daylight saving time.

In other words, at eight a.m. Monday, it really will only be 7 a.m. You can sleep an hour longer, but if you're like most of us, you'll also work an hour later.

Only one for sure we know who will be affected by the time change is used car dealers. Every time we move the time up or back, they sleep an hour later and go to bed an hour earlier.

We are now informed political plums do not grow from seeds. Seems that more than likely they are the end result of clever grafting.

Howe's Junior High and B-Team football squads are still undefeated this year. This ought to prove something of the type teams we can look forward to in the future. The B-team was idle last weekend, due to a cancellation by Leonard, and the Junior High team defeated Bells again Tuesday night by a score of 24-6.

Posies to Coaches Charles Skantlen and Tom Skipworth, and members of both teams.

And there's also another undefeated team on the Howe campus —

Also sporting a perfect record is the Powder Puff team, which opens — and closes its season Monday night. Should be a worthwhile contest.

Heard about a guy approaching a preacher the other day, inquiring, "Do you think it's right for someone to profit by the mistakes of others?"

"Certainly not," the preacher answered.

"Then I wonder if you'll give me back the five bucks I gave you for marrying me."

From all accounts the question of whether there will be a tax increase is academic. The only question is "How much?"

Your paper dollar isn't worth a nickel if you don't spend it; then it's worth 50 cents. That, doesn't apply to any silver certificates you may have until next June when they are no longer redeemable in silver.

BULLDOGS TO HOST PROSPER IN DISTRICT OPENER; DEFEAT ALLEN

Howe Bulldogs will host another version of Eagles this week, Prosper, in the first district contest, after defeating the Allen Eagles last Friday night 28-16. The Bulldogs ended the non-district competition with a 3-3 record, losing to Leonard, Celeste and Callisburg, while defeating Bells, Valley View and Allen.

Two starters will be out of action Friday night. Jimmy Watson will be out of the lineup with a back injury, and Jimmy Wormsbaker was hospitalized Tuesday night, also suffering a back injury. Coach Dickey said Wednesday that Bobby Hamilton would be back in action, at linebacker on defense and guard on offense. Mike Bennet will be filling a running back position, Dickey said.

In the first district game here against Prosper, the Bulldogs will face a pair of tackles, each weighing over 200 lbs.

Remainder of the district schedule includes Anna, here on November, Celina there, November 10, and S&S there November 17.

The Bulldogs jumped to a 21-0 halftime lead against the Allen Eagles, then settled down to a conservative contest to defeat the visitors 28-16. Allen tried 20 aeriels in an effort to overcome the deficit, while Howe stuck to a ground game.

The Bulldogs scored on their initial drive, after forcing Allen to punt in four plays following the kickoff. Jimmy Watson accounted for the first TD on a one yard plunge midway of the first period, to climax a 53-yard drive. Howe's offensive line cleared running room for Gary Gray, Lynn Cavender and Watson in the 10-play effort. Lee Bailey's attempt for the extra point was wide.

Howe's second scoring march also began in the first period, extending four minutes into the second quarter, on a drive from their own 12. The Bulldogs added the 88 yards and seven first downs to the statistics, with Watson scoring again, this time from the 11. Mike Bennett contributed the two-point conversion over the right side. 14-0.

Three minutes later, Howe took possession again on the third Allen punt, on the Bulldog 31. On second down, Watson broke through the Eagle defense and outraced the secondary the 69 yards for another 6 points. Bailey converted for a 21-0 lead. During the first half, the visitors were in possession of the ball for nineteen plays, while Howe hogged the pigskin for 26 efforts.

Two fumbles and a strong defensive effort by the Eagles presented a different ball game in the second half. Third quarter was scoreless, with a fumble ending the Bulldogs' initial effort on the Eagle 37. Four plays later an Eagle punt was also fumbled, with Allen recovering on the Howe 44. The Bulldog defense regained possession on downs on the Howe 24 to halt the Eagle threat, however.

From their 24, the Bulldogs began grinding out another TD, consuming the 76 yards in 15 plays, with Lynn Cavender accounting for the final 15 yards. Bailey kicked the 28th and final point for Howe.

Howe lost field position following the score, when an on-side kick was recovered by the Eagles at midfield. A fourth-down punt rolled to the Bulldog seven, and a couple of penalties, each half the distance to the goal, kept the 'dogs from moving out. Watson's fourth-down punt carried to the Howe 34, with Allen scoring on the next play on a pass. The extra point try was no good.

Minutes later the Eagles regained possession on the Howe 42, and two successive completions added another TD to their side of the scoreboard. First was for 23 yards. Two point conversion brought the Allen total to 14.

In the closing seconds of the contest, a high pass from center on a Bulldog punt attempt sailed into the end zone for two additional points for Allen.

THE HOWE ENTERPRISE, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 26, 1972--VOLUME IX--No. 16

Sunday is that day again. According to the calendar, it's the end of daylight saving time--Sunday, October 29. Doesn't say what it's the beginning of, but you're supposed to move the hour hand on all clocks, watches and sun dials back one hour.

Which means you will begin the day an hour later and end the day an hour sooner.

If it works that way, congratulations.

Received a request to publish the address of a serviceman, who would like to receive correspondence from the "home folks."

It's chili weather, and has been for the past several days. And if you like chili, you will certainly go for a recipe sent to us by the Marlboro people (don't ask why the Marlboro people are sending out chili recipes, because we don't know, and they didn't explain, but it's a good one.

Name of the concoction is "Texas Red Chili", and it costs a little more to make than the old fashioned kind, but it's worth the difference.

The recipe:

1/8 pound suet, fine chopped
3 pounds round steak, cubed
6 tablespoons chili powder
1 table spoon ground oregano
1 table spoon crushed cumin seed
1 tablespoon salt
1/2 to 1 tablespoon cayenne
2 large cloves garlic, minced
1 tablespoon Tabasco, if you dare (that's what it said)
1 1/2 quarts water
1/2 cup white corn meal, or 3 tablespoons masa harina.

In Dutch oven, fry suet until crisp; add steak cubes and brown. Add seasonings and water; heat to boil; Reduce heat, cover and simmer (the chili) one and one half hours. Skim off fat. Stir in cornmeal and simmer, uncovered, for 30 minutes. Stir occasionally. Serve with pinto beans and/or cornbread (or anything else you think might add to it) Serves 8 to 10, based on appetites.

Everyone makes a mistake now and then, and that was a lulu at the beginning of last week's football game here against Van Alstyne. (The mistake, not the game).

Van's quarterback faked a handoff to the fullback into the line, then trotted around the left end for a TD. The play fooled the Bulldogs, and at least one of the referees, according to reaction of Howe fans along the sideline close to the play.

When the fullback was stopped for no gain, fans heard a whistle, and the head honcho in charge of action said later he heard a whistle, but though

Bulldogs Drop District Contest To Van Alstyne; Meet Bells Friday

Howe Bulldogs battled the Van Alstyne Panthers to a 13-6 score in three quarters last Friday night before yielding to the Panther running and passing attack in a 40-12 district contest. It was the second district loss for the Bulldogs in two starts, with the locals set to meet Bells there this week in the third contest of district 15-A. Bells downed Pottsboro last week, 66-0, while White Wright defeated the Leonard Tigers, 24-0 in other district competition. Van Alstyne plays Leonard this week, while Whitewright meets Pottsboro there.

Van Alstyne scored against Howe on their first play from scrimmage, with Quarterback Bill Benton circling left end on a keeper for 28 yards, then booting the conversion for a seven point lead.

Howe stopped the Panther running game until late in the second period, when Van's Marvin Clay galloped 50 yards for a score. Conversion was no good. The Bulldogs scored later in the period after recovering a Panther fumble on the Van 12. QB Vincent Has passed to David Hill for the score on first down.

The Panthers took the second half kickoff and moved 40 yards in five plays for another TD, with a 20 yard aerial accounting for the six pointer. Conversion brought the total to 20-6.

Following an exchange of punts, the Bulldogs drove 82 yards in 12 plays for their second TD, with Hash passing to Dennis Carter for the six pointer from the Van 12. Conversion attempt was unsuccessful, with Howe still in the game, 20-12.

After losing a fumble to the Bulldogs to open the final quarter, the Panthers began to move. Clint Conley scored from the Howe 20 after the Bulldogs had punted to the Van one yard line. The TD climaxed a 99-yard drive. Minutes later, the Panthers intercepted a Howe pass and Benton scored from the Howe 41 on second down. Final score for the visitors was a 19 yard aerial, with extra point try unsuccessful.

B-team and the seventh and eighth grade teams will play Pottsboro at Pottsboro next week

Roadrunners Win Five Trophys

The Howe Roadrunners entered four runners in the Cross Country Run at Loy Lake Park on Saturday, Oct. 21, and won five trophies.

This placed the Howe Club in the top award brackets with the Sherman Striders and Cross Country Club of Dallas.

The highest win went to Sue Knight with a first in the 6 mile run for women with Kelley Adams in second place. Darla Davis was third in the two mile run. In the two and six mile runs for men over 40, second place went to Walt Schneider in both events.

Next month three runs are scheduled at Loy Lake Park White Rock Lake and the annual 8 mile Turkey Trot on Thanksgiving Day in Dallas.

Dogs Kill Sheep In North Howe

Another incident of dogs killing sheep was reported Tuesday morning by Mrs. Leon Thornhill, Highway 5 North.

Mrs. Thornhill said dogs entered their property around 2:30 Tuesday morning and killed a sheep belonging to their son, Dickey, and injured two lambs in the pen. The sheep was a project animal in Future Farmers. The attack was discovered by Mr. Thornhill when he arose to go to work at the early hour.

To Direct Boy Scout Camporee

The Sherman Noon Optimist Club, with their new President, BHI Hooten, as Director, will sponsor the Texoma Valley Council, Boy Scouts of America's Fall Camporee. It will be held at Old Settlers Park, Sherman, Friday and Saturday, December 1-2. Other members of the Noon Optimist Club that will be judges and inspectors are Allen Fryhover, Jack Littrell, James Holder, Dr. D.A. McCall, Bob McBride, Weldon Walker and Mark Spracklin.

They will be assisted by the Service Corps of Scout Troop 36 and the Alpha Phi Omega Service Fraternity of Austin College. Dan Mills, Scoutmaster of Troop 50, sponsored by the club is also giving leadership to the camporee.

Each troop will provide its own tents for shelter. Food will be prepared on the patrol basis. Campsites will be assigned as troops check into camp.

A special new camporee patch will be presented to each Scout and Leader that participates in the camporee. A unit ribbon will be presented to each troop based on the points earned on the troop rating plan as shown on the camporee score sheet. Inspection will include personal equipment, patrol equipment, patrol organization, commissary and food, safety and sanitation, campsite and check out.

There will five special events that will complete the scoring. They will be fire-building, Scouts pace race, observation, knots and peg race.

The public is invited to observe Scouting in action.

Halloween Is 2000 Year Tradition

Although Halloween isn't "What it used to be," the tradition dates back more than 2,000 years. Tuesday is Halloween in Howe and the rest of the world, and police and other law enforcement officers will be on the lookout for over zealous "spooks" bent on destruction of private property.

"Trick or Treaters", mostly youngsters, will be out in numbers making their annual door-to-door canvass. Drivers are urged to be extra cautious during the evening hours.

No scheduled activities are planned by the school, a check with the administration office determined.

However, Methodist youth will begin their annual drive for UNICEF around 5:00 p.m. Tuesday, for funds to aid disadvantaged youngsters.

Few people realize that the "Trick or treat" phase of Halloween was originally an adult custom. In Ireland, hundreds of years ago, farmers went from house to house soliciting food for the village Halloween festivities, promising good luck to cheerful givers and threatening the tight wads with evil fortune.

B-Team was the only winner in a four game series with Van Alstyne last week.

"Operation Kick It" a program to help combat the growing drug abuse problem, was presented to students of Howe Tuesday morning in the High School gym. Three inmates of the Texas Department of Corrections, Huntsville, outlined dangers of drugs and related personal experiences to the group. The panel has been touring the state since 1970.

Monthly C of C Meet Thursday

Regular monthly meeting of the Howe Chamber of Commerce will be held tonight (Thursday) at Howe State Bank. Meeting time is 7:30.

Nursery to be provided on Election Day

On Election Day, Nov. 7, Tuesday, there will be a nursery provided from 8:00 a.m. to 7:00 P.M. in the First Baptist Church. The Baptist Young Women are sponsoring it and urge everyone to get out and vote.

The nursery will be in the same building where the poll are, the Youth Building or sometimes still referred to as the former Church of Christ building. Permission to have the nursery has been granted by Paul Lee, County Clerk.

The volunteer workers schedule is as follows:

9-10 Deanna Helms
10-11 Jan Powers
11-12 Julie Vier
12-1 Janelle Russell

Howe's that...

THE GOOD NEWS REPORT from Thomas W. Pauken, Director of ACTION.

His name is Paul Hill, but all the young people he knows call him Candy Man. It's a nickname that fits, not only because he always seems to have a little treat in his pocket, but also because the name suits his nature, his easy smile, his sure and friendly approach.

For the past eight years Candy Man Hill has been a volunteer in ACTION's Foster Grandparent Program, working with disadvantaged children in the Detroit, Michigan area. At 72 he has come a long way from his own difficult youth. Born in Spartanburg, South Carolina, the youngest of five children, he was two when his mother died and his father moved the family north to Cincinnati, Ohio. Life was not easy for a young black, and after finishing the 8th grade, Paul Hill went to work. Forty-five years later, as a n employee of a scrap metal company, he lost four fingers of his right hand in a cutting machine accident. It was a physical disability, but certainly not one that was going to slow down his approach to life.

Paul and his wife, Mary, had a great fondness for children, and thanks to their adopted daughter, Caroline, and her husband, they have five grandchildren and five great-grandchildren. So when a friend mentioned the Foster Grandparent Program, it seemed natural for Candy Man to investigate. He immediately joined the FGP and became a volunteer at the Madonna Nursing Center, a facility for the mentally retarded and physically handicapped. For more than 7 years, Candy Man was there on a daily basis, working with the youngsters.

It takes inordinate patience and genuine caring to communicate with a mentally disabled child who has been cast out or has no real grasp on reality. To acquire such basic skills as learning how to dress, to eat, to smile, is a great victory for some children, and Candy Man was there to encourage, to teach, to make the essential contact that breaks down the barriers and penetrates to the heart of the matter with love. "Some of them can't talk, but they can understand," he says. "It's rewarding to me. I learn so much from the children."

Candy Man spent six-and-a-half years as a Foster Grandparent to one severely handicapped boy. The youngster's personality blossomed; he learned how to speak using a language symbol board and finally was able to go home to his family. It was a difficult separation for the pair who had become buddies, but the reward of the boy's advancement made it acceptable.

During his years at the Nursing Center, Candy Man was grandpa to 8 additional children. His work with them was so successful that he was offered a new challenge - at the Boysville-King House, a center for 13 to 18 year old youth in trouble.

The youths' acceptance of the volunteer at Boysville-King is essential if progress is to be made. In the past 6 months, a great deal of progress has been made, thanks to a quiet unassuming gentleman who knows how to reach out, someone who cares, who is there to listen, to understand and to guide and encourage. That's Candy Man, Paul Hill.

Halloween Party

A Halloween Party is planned for middle school age students to be held at the high school cafeteria on Saturday, Oct. 30.

Kids will not be able to leave before 9:30 to help prevent mischief. All games will be in good taste and refreshments will be chips and candy. A charge of $1.00 per child will be charged to cover cost of refreshments. All extra money will go to the Howe Middle School Student Council for their project this year.

Door prizes will be given out throughout the night. Y'all come have some fun.

Jeff Jaresh, Rt. 1, Box 930, Howe has won two free movie tickets for Cinema IV, Sher-Den Mall, Sherman. Contact Howe Enterprise by Nov. 4 to claim prize.

Homecoming '82 was greatly enjoyed by many citizens of Howe as well as over 300 exes, former teachers, superintendents, principals, and friends and family members of exes. The ex that traveled the greatest distance was Ret. Lt. Col. Harold W. Carter (USAF) from Contoocook, New Hampshire. The oldest graduate that registered was Cleta Davis of Howe, class of 1922. O.T. Corbin of Howe attended the BBQ, and he was a member of the class of 1920.

Exes attended from Waco, Dallas, Denton, Duncanville, Huntsville, Frisco, San Angelo, Gruver, Garland, Dallas, Fort Worth, Sherman, Dublin (Tx), Cross Plains, Emory, Amarillo, Capitan, New Mexico, Grand Prairie, Van Alstyne, Odessa, Denison, Midlothain, McKinney, Pasadena, Shreveport, La., Wichita Falls, Houghton, La, Oklahoma City, Longview, Dorchester, Hurst and Houston.

Edna Dutton coordinated the letter writing with the help of Paula Boyd and many others. Over 750 letters were mailed and hand passed to Howe exes. This great effort helped make a great beginning for what turned out to be the greatest homecoming ever.

The Homecoming activities began Thursday night with a city wide pep rally and presentation of Homecoming Queen nominees. There were several out-of-town exes at this pep rally.

The pre-game ceremonies on Friday night began with the recognition of the 1958 football team, cheerleaders, majorettes, and mascot, and the former coach, Arthur Boyle. Mrs. Boyle was also a former teacher, principal superintendent of the Howe Schools. Freddy Holcomb called the names of the individuals as they went on the field. Team mates present were Ronnie Bearden, co captain, Charles Sprowl, co captain, Jimmy Sprowl, Alton Norman, David Franklin, Tommy Thompson, Jerry Foster, Billy Dobbins, Wesley Lankford, Robert Catching, Jimmy Bearden, Jimmy Don McMillion. Cheerleaders present were Dee Powell Roessler, Joyce May Catching and Francine Long Hickox. Majorettes were Merle Reeves Bearden and Shirley Watson Vickers. Mascot present was Micki Dutton Horton.

The band and drill team played and performed just before the Homecoming Queen Court was presented.

The queen nominees and varsity cheerleaders rode onto the football field on an official homecoming float designed and built by Bob Power. The float took a great amount of time and effort with many hours spent by Bob and Marilyn Power and Melanie and Donna Power. Others helping in addition to the varsity cheerleaders and junior varsity cheerleaders were Rick Hill, Mark Sharp, Jenny and Jennifer Reed, Mike Vickers, Scott and Robin Taylor, Kristi Hill and many others. Dwain Roberts offered the space for the final decoration of the float and this was greatly appreciated. Colvin Chevrolet of Van Alstyne donated a brand new pickup to pull the float.

Another exciting homecoming event was the release of over 500 balloons which was made possible by Jenny and Jennifer Reed and a lot of high school students who helped fill them with oxygen provided by Bill

Estep of Industrial Oxygen Supply in Sherman.

The big win of the homecoming game set the spirit for a gran reunion of old friends and classmates. many exes attended the reception held at the SNAP Center after the game on Friday. Jen Matthews and Shirley Vickers were chairmen for this event.

On Saturday morning, over 200 registered at the high school. Registering guests were Texanna Norman, Linda Williams, Carrie Waller, Walt Schneider, Juanita King and Lavonna Clinton. The reception was hosted by Janie Finney, Betty Williams, and Nelda Allison. Mamie Watson, Juanita King, Mamie Gee, Donna Bedgood and a host of other ladies served cookies. Refreshments were served in the homemaking room.

Following class visiting there was a general meeting Vince Hash, homecoming president, introduced Jean Norman who gave the names of the officers for the newly formed Exes Association. Carl Thompson will serve as President, Merle Bearden as secretary and J.C. Waller will serve as treasurer. A collection of $300 was given by those in attendance for the forming of the new association. It was decided that there would be a homecoming for all exes held every five years, in conjunction of Howe High School Homecoming.

Varsity cheerleaders Tammy Gray, Cheryl Goldston, Kristi Banner, and Susan Conrod also helped with registering of guests and with the reception.

Following the informal get together of all classes a parade was held at 3 p.m. It formed on the high school gym parking lot and proceeded on Duke to Hughes down to Bulldog Stadium. Policemen Ken Vickers and Billy Dobbins helped with the parade. Parade chairmen were Jimmy and Donna Wormsbaker. Also helping was Guy Williams.

The following entrants made up the parade, Mayor J.W. OVER 300 ATTEND HOMECOMING

HOMECOMING QUEEN for 1982 is Lisa Fernandez. She is escorted by her father and by Bulldog Quarterback Scott Taylor.

Bulldogs Shut Out Tomcats, 44-0

The Howe Bulldogs showed up strong on both offense and defense as they won their Homecoming game against Tom Bean Tomcats, 44-0, Friday, Oct. 22.

In the pre-game activities Lisa Fernandez was crowned at the 1982 Homecoming Queen.

The game began when Howe received the kick off. Michael Ortega caught the ball and carried it to the Bulldog 25.

During the next six minutes the Bulldogs made a determined march toward the opposite end of the field. Quarterback Scott Taylor completed three passes to tight end Mike Vickers for 7, 37, and 10 yard gains to set Howe up with two yards to go. Barry Dunn carried the ball across the line for the first TD with 5:44 left on the first quarter clock. Norman Mutchler made good the PAT kick for the 7-0 score.

The Tomcats were able to make one first down on a 14 yard pass in their series of plays, but could not move past their own 45.

A 5-yard penalty slowed down the Bulldogs on their possession, although Taylor completed a 10-yard pass to David Carlson for a first down. Four plays later the ball was punted to Tom Bean as the second quarter began.

A clipping penalty and a fumble on a lateral pass buried the Tomcats with a fourth and 30 on their own 15. The punt hike was high and over the punter's head, rolling into the end zone. The punter attempted to pickup the ball and punt from the end zone, but a wall of four Bulldogs stood in front, blocking the ball. Kenny Cornelison fell on the blocked ball for a touch-down. The extra point attempt failed, leaving the Bulldogs ahead 13-0.

Tom Bean could not move the ball on their possession and the ball was punted to Howe who took over on the Tomcat 34. Taylor ran 25 yards on a quarterback keeper to score for the Bulldogs. The PAT kick failed and the Bulldogs led 19-0 with 6:33 left in the first half.

Again Tom Bean could not move the ball and the Bulldogs once again had the ball on the Howe 33. Dunn made several carries and two first downs for the Bulldogs. After an incomplete pass play, Carlson broke lose for 30-yard TD run to score with 2:57 left in the first half. Mutchler kicked for another point and the score was 26-0.

Thirty seconds later Pat Gilstrap recovered a Tomcat fumble on the Tom Bean 26. Dunn and Randy Geer each carried the ball for some gain. Taylor then ran into the end zone for a 21-yard TD. The kick was blocked.

Tom Bean had the ball for the last minute of the second quarter was unable to move the ball and the half ended with Howe leading 32-0.

Tom Bean took the kickoff as the second half began. They were able to make a first down on long pass but four plays later had to punt. Howe fumbled the ball on their 20 and Tom Bean was the closest they had been to scoring all night. They had a couple of incomplete passes and Howe had the ball back on the 18. A penalty pushed them back to the 10, but Taylor made a run good for 16 yards. A couple of plays later Vickers caught a pass from Taylor and the Bulldogs were on the 40. Carlson carried a few yards and Taylor added yardage for a first down. A few minutes later Taylor handed off to Geer who passed the ball back to Taylor who ran in for the TD for a gain of 45 yards. The kick failed, and Howe led 38-0.

The Tomcats were feeling the pressure from many Bulldogs as they tried to move the ball through the air. Taylor intercepted a Tomcat pass and carried the ball about 25 yards. Howe had the ball on their own 48. Geer ran 13 yards for a first down. A penalty on the Bulldogs held them back a few yards, but Geer and Dunn carried again. Another penalty set the Bulldogs back and Taylor couldn't find any running room. On a 3 and 33 situation, Taylor tossed the ball to Ortega who caught it and ran to the Tom Bean 15. (A total gain of 45 yards).

The fourth period had just begun. Dunn, Taylor and Geer carried the ball for two first downs and Dunn scored a TD from 4 yards out. Geer ran around the side to try for two points, but was stopped just short of the goal line.

Howe was ahead 44-0.

Tom Bean had the ball on their own 30. They were able to make a first down, but three plays later Ricky Rothwell picked off a Tomcat pass and ran a few yards, setting up the Bulldogs on the Tom Bean 25. A number of the junior varsity Bulldogs were now in the game. Andre Liss had taken over as quarterback. He threw a couple of passes that just missed Dennis Foster and Mike Scribner.

The ball went back to Tom Bean. The Tomcats could not move the ball again and punted to Howe four plays later.

The Bulldogs started out on the Tom Bean 40. Liss kept the ball for a first down. Ernie Willis carried twice and made another first. Robert Perkins carried for five yards. With just two minutes left in the game, Liss attempted to kick a field goal. The kick was perfect, but offsetting penalties set up the play all over. This time Liss kicked wide and the field goal was no good.

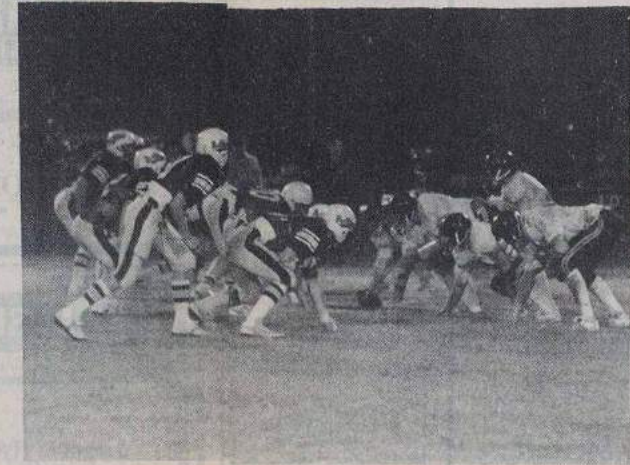

Tom Bean had the ball for the last minute and 46 seconds. The Tomcats made two first downs and had penetrated to the Howe 10 yard line with 18 seconds left on the clock. There was an incomplete pass play and on the last play of the game, Vickers and Rothwell tackled the Tom Bean carrier just short of the goal line.

Tackles were made by Gilstrap, Carlson, Wade Kannenberg, Perkins, Taylor, Geer, Cornelison, Mutchler, Dunn, Jamie Hussey, Liss, Steve Dobbins Greg Allison, Foster, Mark Wheeler, Rothwell, Scribner and Vickers.

Carrying the ball for the Bulldogs were Ortega, Taylor, Dunn, Geer, Carlson Dobbins, and Liss.

Other good plays included: pass interceptions by Taylor and Rothwell; fumble recovery by Gilstrap. On the receiving end of passes from the quarterback were Vickers, Carlson, and Ortega.

Friday, Oct. 29, the Bulldogs, now 1-4 in District 14-AA and 3-5 for the season will journey to Van Alstyne for a 7:30 p.m. game.

READY FOR ACTION - The Howe Bulldogs, left, are ready to stop th Tom Bean Tomcats, which they did Friday night, Oc. 22, 44-0.

Howe's
That . .

SALSA RECIPE - Recently we requested a recipe for salsa. Here is a recipe from a reader for "Hot Jalapeno Relish":

In large skillet mix and saute lightly - 1 cup oil, 2 large onions (chopped), 4 bell peppers (chopped), 1 lb. jalapenos sliced (or to taste). Add and bring to a fast boil - 1 large tomato (diced), 20 oz. bottle catsup, 15 oz. can tomatoes, 2 T garlic, 1/2 t. coarsely ground pepper, 1/2 worcestershire sauce, 1/c cup whole oregano, 8 oz. can beer. Simmer 2-3 hours. Makes 1 gallon. Seal or store in refrigerator.

EMPTY NEST - Several weeks ago my youngest daughter got married and moved to Winnsboro. My other daughter (mom to Jordan and Amber) lives here in Howe so I get to see her often. And two weeks ago our other child, Kirby, moved out of his small room at our house to a house in Sherman. So it's empty nest time for us. It's kind of hard to get used to the change!

Kirby soon found out he was sharing his house with some unwanted guests - fleas! Fortunately, we have a friend in the pest control business - John Allen in Van Alstyne. To any of you who might read the Van Alstyne Leader, John is as famous in Van Alstyne as grandson Jordan is in Howe. The Leader editor is always writing in his column about John who is neighbor. Anyway, if you have some pests around the house, you might consider calling John to get rid of them. See his ad on page two - he has a toll free number you can call and he gives free estimates.

NEXT TUESDAY IS ELECTION DAY - Hope you are planning to vote. Several candidates have asked me to run brief statements on their positions. You will find this on page four. I am running information only for those who requested that I run it. The ballot is quite long and I hope you voters will take the time to learn what you can about the candidates before voting. Also several candidates have place ads in this issue. You can study them to learn more about those particular candidates.

Following are the Class 2A bands that competed with their scores and overall ratings:

Red Ribbon Week

Students in Howe Schools are wearing red ribbons Oct. 24 through Nov. 1 as a symbolic effort to promote drug-free communities. The ribbons were purchased by the Texoma Community Partnership and proclaim the message, "Working Toward a Drug Free Community." The Red Ribbon Campaign began as a grass-roots effort in a community in Florida. In 1984 a Drug Enforcement Administration agent, Enrique Camarena, was brutally murdered in Mexico. As a spontaneous demonstration of their respect for his courage, the Florida community began displaying red ribbons. One person at a time began wearing the ribbons until the entire community was involved.

The campaign has spread across the nation and has been adopted by individuals and families. Not only does the red ribbon symbolize the intolerance for the use of drugs, but it also symbolizes the effort to eliminate the demand for unlawful drugs (believed by many to be the

Turnovers Costly
In 31-0 Loss To Aubrey

Once again the Howe Bulldogs were plagued by interceptions and fumbles as they lost to the Aubrey Chaparrals, 31-0, Friday, Oct. 23.

Howe took the opening kickoff and neither team was able to gain much ground for the next three series. Then with just over 4 minutes left in the first quarter Aubrey began a drive from their own 42. Using 8 plays they advanced the ball and scored from 5 yards out as the quarter ended. The PAT kick was good for a 7-0 score.

The Howe team took control and steadily gained ground moving from their own 28 to the Aubrey 8-yard line before fumbling the ball away. The Bulldog defense pushed the Chaparrals for a loss and 4 plays later Aubrey punted. A penalty stopped Howe and Aubrey once more had the ball. A 77-yard run to the end zone was called back on an illegal use of hands penalty against Aubrey and 4 plays later Howe took over mid-field. The Dogs gained a first down at the Aubrey 34 but 2 plays later Chap Chris Laler intercepted a Bulldog pass and ran 70 yards for the TD. The kick failed and the scoreboard read, 13-0.

The Dogs moved to the Chap 14 on carries by Jay Carson and a completed pass from quarterback Brian Freese to Jeremy Francis. But the Dogs were stopped when Aubrey intercepted Freese's pass in the end zone. Aubrey moved the ball to the Howe 25 where Bulldog Kai Bray intercepted the ball and the first half ended with Aubrey holding a 13-0 lead.

Aubrey took the third quarter kickoff and moved the ball to their own 49 before being forced to punt on downs. Howe was unable to move the on their possession.

Using 11 plays, Aubrey scored a TD with the score coming on an 11-yard run. A try for 2 points failed and with 1:28 left in the third quarter, Aubrey held a 19-0 lead.

Aubrey gained control on the next series with an onside kick and moved the ball 52-yards using 6 plays to score. The TD came on a 38-yard pass with 10:39 left in the game. A try for 2 points failed. Score: 25-0.

Buoyed by their success, Aubrey once more tried an onside kick, but this time Lee Arnold covered the ball for Howe at the Chap 49. Howe moved the ball to the Chap 1-yard line thanks to a penalty on Aubrey and a 31-yard pass from Freese to Jeremy Francis. On the next play Howe fumbled the ball to Aubrey.

The Howe defense held the Chaps on the next 4 plays and Aubrey punted. Howe once more took control at the Chap 49. butt 5 plays later Freese's pass was once more picked off by the Chaparrals. Five plays later Aubrey made their final score on a 34-yard TD pass with 3:59 left in the game. The PAT kick failed for the 31-0 score.

Freese completed 7 of 25 passes with 4 interceptions. Jay Carson caught 4 for 55; and Jeremy Francis caught 2 for 42. Rushing was also led by Carsom, with 62 yards on 9 carries. Doug Ogle added 24 yards on 10 carries.

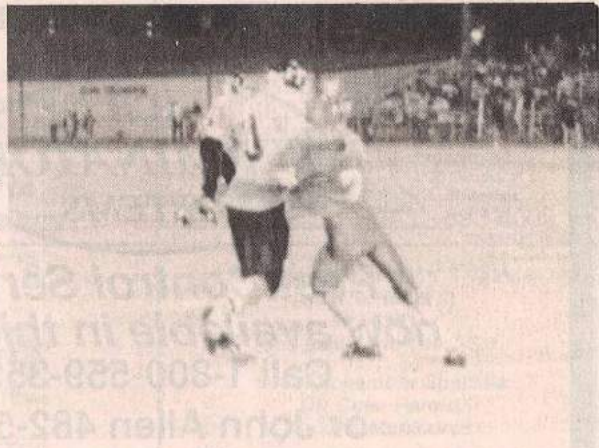

Coach Joey McQueen said, "We have two district games left, and we hope to rebound for two victories against S&S and Little Elm."

Offensive player of the week is John Lewis. Defensive player of the week is Daniel Faz.

HHS Students Hold Mock Debate

Senior government students at Howe High School held a mock presidential debate Friday, Oct. 23, in the high school cafeteria with the entire student body in attendance.

Each of the three government class sections selected one presidential candidate to campaign for. Students representing the candidates were Doug Ogle as President Bush, Jeremy Francis as Ross Perot, and Kent Bearden as Bill Clinton. Each "candidate" gave a brief opening statement and then answered questions from moderator Betty Cordell, drama and English teacher at HHS.

Students have made posters for their respective candidates. These posters are displayed at the school. The students will also hold a mock election as part of this activity to learn about the workings of the federal government and the election process.

MOCK PRESIDENTIAL DEBATE was held at Howe High School on Friday, Oct. 23. Senior government students represented the three candidates and held a debate before the entire high school student body.

Bids Sought On Van,
Track Renovation

The Howe School Board plans to renovate the track and also to purchase a new van. Bids are being sought on these items.

At the Oct. 19 meeting, the board discussed the purchase of a school van through a cooperative purchasing program of the General Services Commission in Austin. They decided, instead, to seek bids locally. (See specifications in today's legal notices on page eight).

Also the board wants to do some extensive renovation work on the track in order to save it from deterioration. The board plans to have a latex coating put on top of the asphalt track and also are seeking alternate bids on raising and smoothing the track surface. Information on bid requirements may be obtained from the superintendent's office.

In other business, the board:

- *Approved the 1992 tax roll of $74,395,935.
- *Tabled to the Nov. 16 meeting revised plans on the proposed activity center.
- *Set the opening of bids on track re-surfacing and on van for Nov. 13.

*Approved a district needs study to be done by the TASA Facility Planning Service consultant.

Betty Chumbley was named Employee of the Month. (See separate article)

Dr. Wayne King, Supt. reported that enrollment is at 894 (347 in elementary, 287 in middle school, and 260 in high school). He also noted that the 1991 tax collection rate has been very good.

Three members of the high school faculty, Donna Jarma, Bill Martin and Betty Cordell, reported on a trip they made with several of the high school students to Europe last summer. Miss Jarma said she felt it gave the students a new appreciation for education. Martin said the students came away with a different perspective of how other people live. Mrs. Cordell, who coordinated the tour, praised the Howe students for their excellent behavior and manners. She said students are requesting another tour, possibly next summer, and she is working on this.

Betty Chumbley
Employee of Month

Betty Chumbley, 2nd grade teacher at Howe Elementary, has been named "Employee of the Month" for October. She has taught in the district for 13 years. She presently teaches the 2nd grade accelerated/enrichment class and 2nd grade gifted and talented class. Before coming to Howe, she worked for Tom Bean ISD and in Wichita, Kansas. She is in her 19th year of teaching.

Mrs. Chumbley is very energetic. Her dedication to the students and to what each child should learn while in her classroom is commendable. She is constantly on the look out for new and exciting ways to teach and for ways to make the curriculum more meaningful to her students. She is a hard worker and had a special talent for getting things done in a professional and competent manner. Her peers describe her as being very concerned with each of her students, teaching on a high level, having great expectations, being a good team leader and caring for her co-workers.

In addition to teaching children, Mrs. Chumbley also shares with other teachers ideas and strategies she has learned through workshop experiences. She is the elementary school building coordinator for the gifted and talented program and accelerated/enrichment program which carries much additional responsibility.

Mrs. Chumbley is a graduate of East Texas State University with a major in elementary education and a minor in English. She and her husband, John, and son, David, live in Dorchester. David is a student at Howe High School. The Chumbleys have two daughters, Michelle and Kimberly, who are graduates of Howe High School. Michelle graduated from Texas A&M University and is married. Kimberly is a student at Texas A&M. Betty is an active member of the Howe Church of Christ.

Howe's that ...

by Lana Rideout

Contrary to what you may have read in the Sherman paper last week, the Howe City Council did not pass Ordinance 641 authorizing taxation of goods in transit. The measure will be on a future council agenda, but councilors were not ready to pass it on Oct. 16 because they wanted more information.

This is not the first time (and probably won't be the last) that the Sherman paper was not correct in what they reported about Howe City Council or Howe School Board meetings.

Now I have made mistakes in my reporting from time to time, but usually it was because I was not at the meeting in question or made an assumption I should not have made. On Tuesday, Oct. 16, the Sherman reporter was at the meeting and I guess wrote down the wrong information on the vote or lack of one.

By the way, an important election is coming up on Tuesday, Nov. 6.
There are 16 amendments to the Texas State Constitution.
These amendments are very important. Please find out about these amendments and then go to the polls and vote either for or against after you have studied these measures.

State Rep. Larry Phillips has been telling about the amendments in his weekly column.
You can also go to www.tlc.state.tx.us on the Internet to find out more information on the proposed amendments.

Highly Qualified Teacher Report

2006-2007 Final Report and 2007-2008 Initial Beginning of Year Report

As required by the Texas Education Agency, Howe ISD is releasing information from the Final Report for the 2006-2007 school year and the Beginning of Year Report for the 2007-2008 school year. Complete copies of the Highly Qualified Reports are available through the Howe ISD Administration office. The Highly Qualified standards include requirements above being certified or licensed to teach by the State of Texas.
Consequently, it is possible for a teacher to be certified, licensed or permitted to teach in the State of Texas and still not meet Highly Qualified standards set by No Child Left Behind.

Data from the 2006-2007 Highly Qualified Teacher report shows Howe ISD having 98% of its teachers meeting the Highly Qualified Standard in their Primary Teaching Fields. Individual Campus information follows: Howe High School had a rate of 94% of its teachers as Highly

Qualified in their Primary Teaching Fields. Howe Middle School and Howe Elementary Schools both had a rate of 100% of teachers meeting Highly Qualified Status in their Primary Teaching ports that 95% of its teachers meet Highly Qualified Status in their Primary Teaching Fields. Howe High School is at 91%,

Howe Middle School at 100% and Howe
Elementary School at 96%.

ISD Administrative Offices if you have questions regarding the Highly Qualified

Howe ISD employees

Receive CPR/AED training

Students had an extra day home on Monday, Oct. 8,
but employees of Howe ISD were receiving training in different areas of school safety. Part of the staff at the Elementary School received training in CPR and using an AED (Automated External Defibrillator) in the morning and then another class was held in the afternoon with Middle and High School
staff attending.

Statistics from the American Heart Association show that lives are saved when a first responder knows how to determine an emergency situation and begin CPR. Seconds are valuable when an individual has a heart attack and the use of an AED can mean the difference between life and death.

Pictured are Sheila Snapp and Shellie Crane from the Elementary practicing the components of CPR. School nurses Brandy Rose and Eva Smith were the instructors.

To hold Veteran's Day program

President John Quincy Adams left a reminder for future Americans: "You will never know how much it has cost my generation to preserve your freedom. I hope you will make good use of it."

On Veteran's Day,
Nov. 12, Howe High School students and staff will show their appreciation for the sacrifices of their hometown veterans
during an assembly sponsored by the National Honor Society and produced by the non-profit organization Free to Be.

The program, about America, freedom, patriotism, and civic duty,

will also include the presentation of the flag by a Marine Color Guard; introductory remarks by Les Bennett, NHS President; and patriotic music.
Finally, veterans will share memories of their wartime experiences and then field questions from the audience.

The program will be
from 10:45 am to noon,
in the Howe High School gymnasium. Following the assembly, the NHS will hold a reception for the veterans in attendance.

All area veterans are invited to attend.
