The Howe Enterprise

THE HOWE ENTERPRISE, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 11, 1971, VOL. VIII--No. 17

They finally made it — Communist China was recently invited a member of the United Nations, and the Republic of China, one of the founders, was booted out.

Reminds me of a group of which I was a member a few years ago. Bunch of us boys in the neighborhood got together and organized a club. Our first action was to vote that no other members would be added into the club. Shortly thereafter, a five-foot eleven, 200 pounder (the reason for the exclusion clause) made it known that unless he was admitted to full membership in our organization, he would kick down the club (smoke house and bloody a few noses. At a called meeting, he was unanimously voted in to replace "Skinnny" McDougal, who resigned.

It was a bad decision. In our haste, we forgot that Skinnny owned the club house and most important, the largest collection of comic books.

As for the United Nations — do you know who was among the first to come out and say they were going to support the decision? Who else but Senators Humphrey, Kennedy, McGovern and Muskie.

Quote from Senator Barry Goldwater:

"The United States should quit the United Nations and send its headquarters off to Moscow or Peking."

Goldwater is right. The only thing the United Nations ever did was and is to serve as a propaganda platform for the Communists.

And we taxpayers are kicking in $19 million a year to assist them.

They shouldn't have kicked out "Skinnny" Tiawan.

Bill Hall, formerly of Howe, was in town Monday visiting friends and "sightseeing," as he put it. Bill said he is a former employee of "The Howe Herald," which was owned by a couple of his brothers some 58 years ago.

Maybe some of the youngsters around here will remember Bill and the Herald.

In case you haven't noticed, "pore-waxing," and "frown, jacket weather" is upon us.

Thanksgiving is just around the corner, and Christmas and the New Year are less than six weeks away.

Thirty-six shopping days until Christmas.

The reason mistakes are so hard to face, is that they are, oh, so hard to erase.

City ordinances screened by council

Enforcement of existing ordinances was discussed at length by city officials at regular meeting last Thursday.

City's dog ordinance will receive more attention in the future, after it was determined the canine's are again increasing in number, running loose, and otherwise creating a problem.

Probability of employing a part-time police officer, who would also handle the dog problem, was aired, though no official action was taken.

Weed and grass ordinance, per-allowing to property owners not mowing or having property mowed to comply with the ordinance was also studied, with violators to be notified by mail in the future prior to action by the city. Ordinance calls for mowing by the city, charged to the property owner, for violations.

In other business, council turned down a proposal by the Pittsburg Tank and Tower Co. to clean and repaint the city's water tower at a cost of $2,065, pending examination by members selected by the city.

Questions are answered on price, wage freeze

Don T. (Bud) Wallace

The column of questions and answers on the Wage and Price Freeze is provided by the local office of the U.S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service. The column answers questions most frequently asked about the Wage and Price Freeze announced August 15 by President Nixon.

Q. My health insurance program at work is having its annual "open season." Will this only this time that an employer can increase his benefits for change programs. In this considered a fringe benefit prohibited by the Freeze?

A. No. The fringe benefit prohibition does not apply to those benefit programs that, according to established practice, require an employee to exercise his right to join a program or to increase his benefits at a single specified time during the year, or limit the opportunity to do so for at least a year, such as an election, employment or exercise his right even though the specified enrollment time falls within the freeze period.

Q. Where can I find the Policy Statement of the Treasury Dept. on the Wage-price freeze?

A. Basic details of the Cost of Living Control Act are published in the form of questions and answers as well as declaratory statements. They have appeared in most newspapers throughout the country. These decisions are subsequently published in the Federal Register as Economic Stabilization Regulations and Circulars.

Q. Can the bank there's a...

...making my home mortgage loan payments monthly paid.

A. Since the variation of points is principally a function of interest rate changes, points are not subject to the freeze. Nevertheless, it will be with the April and initial of the President's wage-price freeze, the level of these points during the base period.

Q. Are owners entitled to inspect a seller's records of prices prevailing during the base period?

A. Sellers must maintain lists of selling prices and customers have a right to inspect the lists on an item-by-item basis. If a customer questions the accuracy of the listing prices for goods or services, the seller is encouraged but not required to show the supporting records of transactions on which the selling prices are based.

Q. What is the policy governing a seller's records of prices under the wage-price freeze?

A. The eligibility of teachers for pay increases is determined by the date each individual teacher became eligible to receive wages at a higher rate. If this date was earlier than August 15, the increased rate of pay stays in effect through the freeze. Thus, the eligibility of any single teacher for a pay raise is not affected by the freeze.

Q. Can the bank there's a...

Each teacher's eligibility is determined individually on the basis of his or her terms of employment.

A loan or advance against other wages is not considered to be an accrual of wages.

ARE YOU PREPARED FOR Christmas

Wrinkles get away from it all here—away from the clothesline where sun and wind make them hard to get along with. In a modern, electric dryer they loosen up and take it easy. Why not drop your wrinkles off here? An electric dryer softly fluffs up and smooths out all your garments press and double knit fabrics. It pampers your most delicate things, too, because electricity is so gentle. And when you have an electric dryer, washday never gets rained out. You do all your drying indoors, so the weather isn't a problem. TP&E suggests you talk with your electric appliance dealer about putting a new, modern electric dryer in your home. And when you do, ask him about the many other ways you can make your life better, electrically.

Civil Service exams set for federal jobs
Applications for Civil Service examinations to fill temporary federal jobs during the summer of 1972 are now available. Representatives for Howards announced today.

In the Fourth District examinations will be given in Greenville, Lexington, McAllister, Sherman and Pyle. The examinations will last one week and hours will vary and will measure vocabulary, reading comprehension, abstract reasoning, and table audit chart interpretation. Those who qualify early will have a better chance for jobs since the competition is less. Congressional Representatives' applications can get full information on Civil Service Commission announcements. Applications are available from most post offices, government job information centers, and job placement offices, or by contacting my office, Roberts said.

The Civil Service Commission says that students who qualified on the test for 1971 jobs do not need to take the exam unless they want to try to improve their score. However, persons who have not ready qualified must take a new statement of eligibility.

Social Security
"When a person becomes disabled by work or through injury, he is immediately on a track with the social security office or representative," according to Gus Jones, Social Security District Manager in Sherman. Jones said that a disabled worker cannot receive benefits for the first six months, however, until the application office the claim can be processed and payment made on time.

Monthly social security benefits are payable to workers when they become disabled, but the conditions are established to last at least 12 months. Monthly payments may be made to children under age 18 and to those age 22 who are full-time students. Also, a worker's wife may qualify for benefits.

Applications may be filed at any time after becoming disabled as you wish. "The quicker the application is filed and reviewed submitted, to support your claim the quicker a determination can be made," Jones said. More information can be found with your social security office and ask for Booklet 22. The telephone number at Sherman social security office is 891-3111.

Billie M. Arrington on duty in Japan
Navy Chief Petty Officer Billie M. Arrington of Mrs. Raye Helton and husband of the former Mrs. Dawn A. Merson, both of Center has reported for duty with the First Electronic Wing at the Marine Corps Air Station, NAS, Kaneohe, Japan.

He is a 357 graduate of Denver High School. A postmistress is a fellow who never turns the clock backward to the other lining.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

Doctor in Doubt

He said a doctor not long ago was a disgraced medical man who had participated in a series of experiments that had caused him to suffer for eight years from a neuralgia that would not heal. Now, 40 years later, he said the doctor had died.

"I realize that the doctor did his best," he said. "The trouble is, his best was not good enough. After all, you can't be a doctor unless you have some limitations. What he should have done was to end it as a specialist."

The court agreed, and the doctor was held liable. The court said that the doctor had failed to have a serious doubt about his ability to handle a case, he has the legal duty to see the patient to someone who is more qualified. A similar duty rests on other practitioners of the healing art.

A druggist dealer, treating a man who had never administered alcohol, gave a woman more than she was drinking. Result: the man died from a ruptured appendix. It did not seem to show that the dealer had malpractice.

18-year-olds win surprises

On January 1, 1972, all the 18-year-olds and 20-year-olds in the nation will become legal age.

Those who turn 18 during 1972 will be legally adult at 12:01 a.m. on the day before their 18th birthday.

Along with their legal status, the young citizens will get some debts, some responsibilities, and some benefits. A few of which may come as a surprise. They include:

1. You may hold public office, run for sheriff, school board member, county clerk, wage supervisor, judge, or other job responsibilities.
2. You may keep your own earnings. Parents are now legally entitled to the earnings of minors under 18 because they support them.
3. You are legally responsible for your own debts. A minor may sue by something and cannot be made to pay for it.
4. You are not legally entitled to maintenance and support from your parents (although they may continue to support you if they want).
5. You are liable for your own education costs after 18. Parents are not liable for a minor child's education, even if the child has more of his own.
6. As an adult son or daughter, you may be held responsible for the support of your parents.
7. You are bound by any contract

you sign. You may sign a contract (buy a car, buy a house).

As an adult, you are liable for damage if you hit someone drive your car, if you hit someone car and damage your car, or if you hit someone car and damage your car (the driver of the car is your agent).

9. You can enter a bar and order a drink, or buy liquor at a liquor store.

11. But if you offer liquor to a minor, you can be arrested for contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

12. You can vote, after getting a registered, and you can sign petitions or circulate them where.

13. You can start a suit against someone.

14. You can be sued by someone.

15. You can make a decision about a legal operation on yourself without your parent's consent.

16. You can start a guardianship, the guardianship will be released on January 1 if you are 19 or 20, but it will be 18 during the year.

At the time he landed they he had used the training apparatus at the school of thought. Nevertheless, the court ruled that the defendant must prove signs of possible insanity.

He is a 357 graduate of Denver High School.

Of course, the mere fact that a treatment is unsuccessful does not mean the doctor was at fault. In fact, it may be a doctor's best to refer by the family doctor, health, with some permanent evidence. The family, claiming damage, desired the doctor for not calling in a specialist.

"This was not an unusual case," he said. "I have often handled similar fractures, and there was no special reason for us to expect anything with this one."

The case decided this was a legitimate defense, and dismissed the case. Noting that medicine is not an exact science, the judge said no one would dare be a doctor if he had to guarantee perfect results every time.

KEEP IT CLEAN
By Virginia M. Miller

Dear Readers:

We are so interested in the ecological problems we are confronting that we are doing everything we can to combat pollution.

Waste in its many forms is a problem that will continue to grow as our environment and we as individuals become more dependent on something else. It's left with the most serious and widespread in particular with detergents.

Many of us are troubled to phosphate-free detergents and their use is environmentally bad. It is undesirable, but it is still available. The only way to avoid it is to use phosphate-free detergents.

Too much detergent results in the problems that will affect your water supply. Detergent gets down a drain in a regular, so you can't see it. The detergent will give a clean bright surface every day as good as the most popular brand containing phosphates.

Too much detergent results in the problems that will affect your water supply. Detergent gets down a drain in a regular, so you can't see it. The detergent will give a clean bright surface every day as good as the most popular brand containing phosphates.

Although manufacturers produce a given amount of detergent to use per week, we may not use that. The amount adequate for our needs, the correct amount of detergent to use may vary because of the amount of manual dish points in your wash, the type of water used, the type of the workload and degree of soil that has to be removed. Information can help you to determine the proper amount of detergent to suit your needs. Don't overdo it.

HIGH SCHOOL GIRLS BASKETBALL

By Teresa Hanning

The girls on the High School basketball team have been working very hard. They have played five games. Two with Leonard and Cleste and one with Anna. We think they're going to have a very good season. We hope to go to the state tournament at the end of the year. Not only on the sideline, but play. So come out and support your team!!!!

FHA BAKE SALE HELD LAST SATURDAY

By Deborah Davis

Although we nearly froze to death in the process, we, FHA girls, were witnesses to a great spectacle Saturday our bake sale. The response from everyone was so good that there were even some of us who could not resist all the goodies that we all brought to sell. Our thanks go to all who came by (especially if you bought something). I think you'll have to admit: some of them certainly can cook.

NEW TEACHER

By Randy Walker & James Vineyard

The Vocational agriculture class of the Howe High school, are just getting used to the breaking in of a new teacher, the teacher is Mr. Troy Sellers, a graduate of Saylor and Southmayr. He is going to East Texas State University and has just completed a course in Associate of Science from Grayson County Junior College. We think he is going to be a good instructor, and will learn a lot this nine weeks.

DRUG ABUSE

By Pam Solis

During school this year there was a program set up about drug abuse. This should help everyone because if they really care what happens to them or their friends they will get involved in this program. Some people went this summer on a trip to Amarillo to study the effect drugs have on a person. They listened to people talk about what they went through and how they conquered the drug habit. These people know what a mess they had been made of before their lives if they hadn't kicked the habit. Many people today have ruined their health and lost their jobs because of using drugs. If everyone would work toward helping anyone that they would think was on drugs, maybe they could stop someone from getting into the drug habit. Many people could be helped if anyone really cared about them. So, if you care, help someone. It might be your last chance.

SWEETS FOR ALL

By Debbie Underwood

The Junior Class is still at it with selling that good-tasting candy. If you happen to have a sweet tooth or three, just come and ask one of the Juniors for some of their candy. They have such goodies as Nestle's Bars for $96, Stuckey's Log Roll for 1.00, and Stuckey's Chocolate Almond for $1.00. All of it tastes absolutely great. Remember, if you need sweets for the sweet, the Junior Class have it.
