

Howe's That

"Websites will never replace newspapers. The truth is no online database will replace your daily newspaper." - Clifford Stoll, Newsweek, 1995.

"Nicholas Negroponte, director of the MIT Media Lab, predicts that we'll soon buy books and newspapers straight over the Internet," Stoll added. "Uh, sure."

The reality: You know how this one turned out. You're reading this online, right?

"No one will buy anything over the Web. Even if there were a trustworthy way to send money over the internet—which there isn't—the network is missing a most essential ingredient of capitalism: salespeople," Clifford Stoll - Newsweek, 1995.

The reality: In a word, Amazon (AMZN).

The iPad was predicted in 1968 through Stanley Kubrick to complete the film and novel versions of 2001: A Space Odyssey. In the film, two astronauts can be seen reading a newspaper on something that looks suspiciously like an iPad. As odd as that is, the description—and name—of the device given in Clarke's novel is even more startling: The Newspad was plugged into the ship's information circuit and could scan the latest reports from Earth's major electronic papers.

Has the internet made this world better or us better people? Or even smarter people? That is an entirely different conversation that makes me sound like a really old man when I argue my point.

Howe moves to 4-1 with 56-27 win over Caddo Mills

'Dogs rush for over 500 yards for fourth time in three years

Very few 3A, Division I teams could travel on the road and face two 4A teams in back-to-back weeks and come out 2-0. After taking down Quinlan Ford a week ago, the Bulldogs headed southeast again Friday night to take on 4A Caddo Mills. The result was an offensive explosion that netted 578 rushing yards, 11 shy of the school record set two years ago versus Tom Bean.

Howe will now have a week off to heal a few injuries and prepare for a District 5-3A showdown with Pottsboro that appears to be a clash of North Texas powerhouses.

Caddo Mills started the game by testing Howe's

"Black Plague" defense. Howe won the coin toss and, customarily, elected to defer to the second half. The Foxes powerful and quick Blaine Jarratt marched them quickly down the field to score on a 2-yard touchdown which would be his first of four on the evening. A successful PAT by Marcos Basilio gave Caddo Mills the early 7-0 lead that ended an 83-yard drive that took the game's initial 4:45 off of the clock.

Howe's first possession started at their own 35 yard

Park grant to be discussed at tomorrow's council meeting

A portion of tomorrow (Tuesday) night's city council meeting will be dedicated to the issue of the future of the 46 acres owned by the City of Howe. The property was purchased in 1999 for the intended use of a city park and recreation area.

Back in 2005, community members began working on a project to do just that, but when the economy took a nose dive in 2007 and city funds became scarce, the ideas for the park were scrapped. Since then, the city has let the public haul off brush on the property. But those days appear to be limited as Terri Wilson, the city's grant writer is seeking a $75,000 matching funds grant from the Texas Parks and Wildlife Small Community Grant.

line and the 'Dogs would quickly answer back by cutting through the Foxes defense like a knife through warm butter. Jaden Matthews finished off the drive with a 20-yard touchdown, his sixth of the year. The PAT by Honaker tied the game at 7 and the drive was 65 yards that took less than a minute off the clock.

Howe held Caddo Mills to a punt on their next possession which gave Howe the ball at their own 22 yard line. Howe took nearly three minutes off of the clock and finished off the 78-yard drive with a 16-yard touchdown by sophomore Mason Riggs. That gave the Bulldogs their first lead of the night at 13-7 after Honaker's PAT kick sailed wide right.

The "Black Plague" dressed in white on Friday night forced a turnover when Cooper Akins picked off a Michael Decker pass out of the sky to give the 'Dogs the ball at their own 47-yard line with only 28 seconds left in the first quarter. 53 yards later, Howe's Tyler Grisham took the ball over from the five yard line, his seventh touchdown of the year. Howe got back on scoring track when Matthews scored untouched for the 2-point conversion. Howe led 21-7 with 10:47 remaining in the second quarter.

On Caddo Mills' next possession, Ty Harvey would intercept his second pass in as many weeks which gave Howe the ball at their own 34 yard line. Howe, who had three one-play drives a week ago added another one when Matthews scampered 66 yards for the score. Howe's 28-7 lead with 8:38 left in the second quarter seemed as if the game was nearing the "out of reach" situation early on in the game.

Caddo Mills was forced to punt again on their next possession which set up Howe's offense deep in the shadow of their own endzone at the four yard line. Some nice runs got Howe away from their own goal line, but the Foxes forced a Riggs fumble which gave them the ball at the Howe 34 yard line. Moments

Howe High School ranked in top 4.7 percent in TEA ratings

- Top 25 Percent: Closing Performance Gaps; and
- Postsecondary Readiness.

The Texas Education Agency last week announced that more than 400 campuses that achieved a Met Standard rating in the 2016 state accountability ratings also earned all distinction designations applicable to their individual school. Howe High School was one of the 400 campuses to earn the honor of the approximate 8,500 in Texas. Even more impressive is that HHS was one of only 74 high schools in Texas to earn all distinctions.

Howe Superintendent Kevin Wilson stated that Howe ISD is consistently around five distinctions on an annual basis but is really proud of the seven distinction accomplishment.

"It's a big deal," said Wilson. "To be in the top five percent is not bad."

Wilson went on to praise the educators for the results of the test scores. "Obvioulsy this doesn't happen by accident. A lot of hard work goes in to it by our staff and our students."

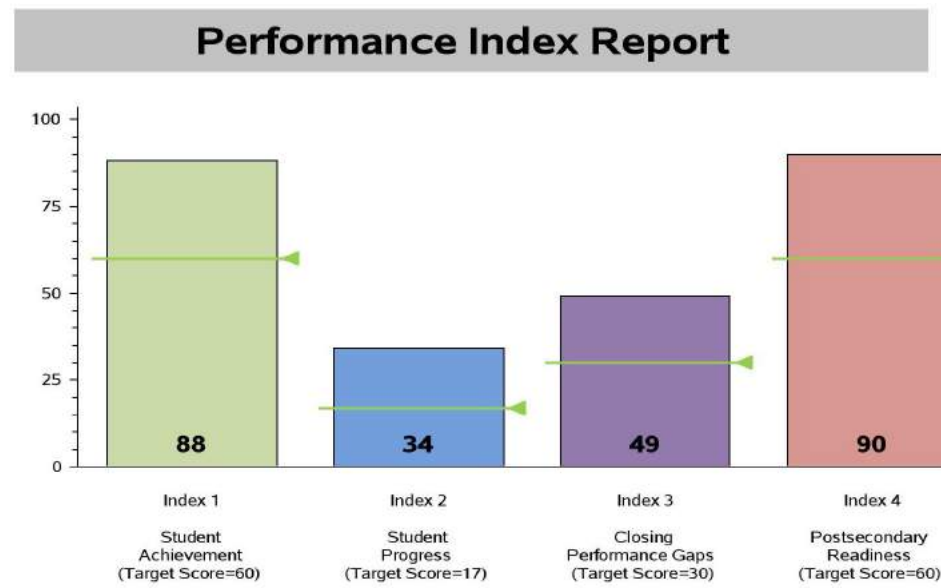

Distinction designations are awarded to campuses based on achievement in performance indicators relative to a group of 40 campuses of similar type, size, and student demographics. Depending on campus grade levels and type, the number of potential distinction designations can vary. Up to seven distinction designations can be earned for

Wilson says that even though the high school is being honored for their distinctions, it's a cumulative process where the recognition should also be shared district-wide.

"Earning one or more campus distinctions is noteworthy and should be a source of pride in a community," said Commissioner of Education Mike Morath. "Earning all possible distinctions is a significant accomplishment and should signal to parents that there is extraordinary work taking place on that campus."

Other surrounding schools that received the distinction were Bells Elementary, Denison High School, Mayes Elementary (Denison), and Pottsboro High School.

later, Jarrett scored from 19 yards out to cut Howe's lead in half to 28-14.

Howe's offense was stalled out on their next possession as the 'Dogs couldn't convert a fourth and short at the Caddo Mills 43 yard line.

Jarrett would punch the endzone for the third time, this one from the 34 yard line and all of a sudden Howe's lead was cut to one score at 28-20. Seth Seibold intercepted the two-point conversion after a bad snap on the PAT.

Caddo Mills had all of the momentum heading into the intermission trailing 28-20. They held on to that momentum by forcing Howe to punt on the first possession of the second half. But the game changed for good when miscommunication from the sidelines to the backfield, along with pressure from Cameron Blesi caused a fumble that Tanner Hartsfield caused and recovered at the Howe 36 yard line. The Bulldogs capitalized with Grisham's 3-yard score to stretch the Howe lead to 35-20 with 5:54 remaining in the third.

Caddo Mills put together an impressive 73-yard drive by feeding their horse, Jarratt, who finished off the scoring with a 3-yarder of his own. That closed the gap to 35-27 at the 2:09 mark in the third.

Howe kept their foot on the gas and Riggs went 89 yards on the first play of the next drive to completely take any air out of the Foxes that might have been lingering. The PAT gave Howe a 42-27 lead with 1:47 left in the third.

Howe's defense stopped Caddo Mills on their next possession when Blesi, Mike Helpenstell and Zack Daniels all combined on a sack to turn the ball over on downs and give Howe the ball at the Caddo Mills 40 yard line. Moments later, quarterback Brandon Wall scored from the 30 yard line to push Howe's lead to 49-27.

Caddo Mills punted on their next possession which set up Howe at their own 42 yard line. Dylan Moreau popped off a 52-yard run to put Howe in scoring position late in the game. Facing a third down, Riggs found the endzone for the third time, this one from the 6 yard line. The touchdown and PAT gave Howe the 56-27 final score as Caddo Mills turned the ball over on downs in their final possession.

Howe has now rushed for over 500 yards a staggering four times since 2014. They reached the mark twice against Tom Bean and in last year's playoff game with Edgewood.

The Howe Enterprise mistakenly posted on Facebook that the 578 yards rushing was a school record. We apologize as Howe rushed for 589 in 2014 versus Tom Bean.

Five counties unite to assist veterans in need

Dedication ceremony honors new North Texas Veterans Court

Joe Brown, Judge John Roach Jr, Kenda Culpepper, Bob Hall

ROCKWALL, TX – September 21, 2016 – The dedication ceremony for the first regional Veterans Court in Texas was held Friday, September 16, at the Rockwall County Courthouse. The North Texas Veterans Court is one of 26 Veterans Courts in Texas and the only one that represents more than one county. Encompassing five counties – Collin, Rockwall, Kaufman, Grayson and Fannin – and presided by Texas State District Judge John Roach, the state’s first regional Veterans Court serves as a pilot program for this unique model to assist men and women who have served in our country’s military.

"We couldn't let a veteran, because of a geographic line, not have a Veterans Court," Judge John Roach said.

Veterans Courts work to divert veterans with service-connected mental health or substance abuse disorders out of the traditional court system and into highly supervised long-term treatment solutions and supervision. Most Veterans Courts are operated by county, if at all. Although state law allows the setup of Veterans Courts, it is does not mandate or fund them, making it difficult for smaller towns. The regional Veterans Court model is most beneficial in rural areas.

The ceremony began with the Presentation of Colors presented by the Rockwall Police Honor Guard. Senator Bob Hall, a veteran himself, served as keynote speaker. Other key attendees were Thomas Palladino, Texas Veterans Commission Executive Director; Joe Brown, Grayson County Criminal District Attorney; Jimmy Petty, Grayson County Veteran Services Officer; Tim Hartley, Rockwall Defense Attorney; Kenda Culpepper, Rockwall County Criminal District Attorney; Greg Willis, Collin County Criminal District Attorney; Kaufman County Judge Bobby Rich, and Army Veteran Colt Floyd.

During his speech, Palladino reminded guests of a quote by Theodore Roosevelt that defines the purpose of the North Texas Veterans Court: "A man who is good enough to shed his blood for his country is good enough to be given a square deal afterwards."

harvest,” Ecclesiastes 3:1-2. If your life is spent on gaining more this world has to offer in the end you will lack contentment, fulfillment, security, peace, and joy. You will never gain what you’ve craved. Contentment is found in Jesus. Don’t be deceived into seeking life in anything that is temporary. “For what will it profit a man if he gains the whole world and forfeits his soul? Or what would a man give in return for his soul?” Matthew 16:26.

“He who finds his life will lose it, and he who loses his life for My sake will find it,” Matthew 10:39.

There’s an old country song that says “looking for love in all the wrong places,” and it’s a sad fact. People look to feel alive, in all the wrong places. Fulfillment cannot be found in relationships, wealth, possessions, or success. You may think you’ve reached your destiny when you climb to the top of the corporate ladder or when you have the man or the woman of your dreams, or maybe you won the lotto and was able to buy everything you’ve had on your wish list since you were 9 years old. But that will not bring everlasting fulfillment. You may be pouring all your heart (mind, will and emotions) and all your strength into whatever you think will create your happiness and fulfillment. You don’t have to be like those who try to find their life in the temporary things of this world. With the last breath you take you will leave everything you spent your life acquiring behind. “For everything there is a season, a time for every activity under the heaven. A time to be born and a time to die. A time to plant and a time to

If you expect unchanging happiness in a changing world you will be greatly disappointment. Seize the opportunity for every good purpose and work to glorify God not yourself. No one was sent into the world to be idle. We are to be successful and blessed so we can be a blessing to others. You don’t have to reach the end of your life with a soul that is empty. Jesus is the way, the truth and the life. To lose your life for Jesus’ sake simple means to make knowing Him intimately your priority in life. There is only one way to have an intimate relationship with Jesus and that is to read His word with the intent to listen, learn and obey. That is God’s way of revealing Himself to us through the power of His living words. “So shall My word be which goes forth from My mouth; It shall not return to Me empty, without accomplishing what I desire, and without succeeding in the matter for which I sent it,” Isaiah 55:11. God’s word is alive and is compared to rain in the verse before! “The rain and snow come down from the heavens and stay on the ground to water the earth. They cause the grain to grow, producing seed for the farmer and bread for the hungry,” Isaiah 55:10. It’s through the Bible that God will reveal Himself to you and inhabit your thinking. It’s that real relationship with God that will overflow into a joy that the world cannot understand. He becomes your strength and nothing can shake it. The fruit of your relationship with Him produces in every area of your life. “But the Holy Spirit produces this kind of fruit in our lives: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. There is no law against these things!” Galatians 5:22-23. No law can come against the fruit the spirit cultivates in you because it comes from the Holy Spirit. As you set aside your self-interest, the life you will gain in its place glorifies God now and for eternity. That is the only way to gain true fulfillment.

“In that day you will know that I am in My Father, and you are in Me, and I am in you,” John 14:20. If you don’t have a Bible please contact me at sfadebbie@yahoo.com and I will provide you with one.

Learn about antiques and collectibles with Dr. Georgia Caraway

Reproductions abound today and are becoming better and better. We should all develop our senses (including that old standby common sense or “gut feel”) to sleuth out problems with antiques. If we learn to read what our pieces are telling us, we can soon know where to look and how to interpret where, how, and approximately when it was made; also what repairs or alterations have taken place.

Look for age indicators: natural wear on upper front edges of stretchers on tables and chairs, saw cuts or plane marks on the underside of table tops and drawer sides and bottoms, off-centered screw heads, mushroom- or rosebud- headed nails and wooden pegs, wood shrinkage across the grain, dovetails held together without glue, only one or two dovetails in a drawer, uneven dovetails, soft edges where a hand or foot may have rested, wear around drawer pulls, a smell like an attic on a rainy day, the bottoms of all drawers will be the same color except for the bottom one that has been exposed to air, and handplaned drawer bottoms will bulge in the middle.

Study books that define the types of hardware used during different periods. Also different wood was used during certain periods. For instance, mahogany was not commonly used in American furniture until 1750; pine, poplar, and walnut were popular early woods with golden oak being a popular wood in the 1920s.

Look for alteration hints: holes where feet once stood, arms cut off chairs, rockers cut off feet or rockers added, plywood (it didn’t come into use until 1900), color tone differences where new wood hasn’t been oxidized, top-heaviness (the feet have been removed or changed), holes in drawers of previous hardware, old paint under the seat and around the legs, the smell of new wood, and wormholes that go straight in have been drilled (faked).

These are just a few of the ways that antiques speak to us. If we will just learn to listen.

Texas History Minute:

Dr. Ken Bridges

Dr. Bridges is a Texas native, writer, and history professor. He can be reached at drkenbridges@gmail.com.

The 1950s and 1960s introduced Americans to television and riveted audiences with tales of the frontier. One of the most noted actors of the era was Texan Fess Parker. He became one of the most popular actors of the time, giving life to legendary American figures such as Davy Crockett and Daniel Boone in his portrayals.

Fess Elisha Parker, Jr., was born in Fort Worth in 1924. At a young age, his family moved to a farm outside San Angelo where he grew up. His childhood was largely uneventful, but this soon changed. When World War II erupted, he enlisted in the navy. He was too tall to become a pilot as he had hoped, and he eventually served as a radio operator in the Marines. After his discharge from the service, he enrolled at Hardin-Simmons University in Abilene in 1946 through the G. I. Bill. His interest in acting developed, and he appeared in a number of student plays. The next year, he transferred to the University of Texas where he majored in history. He earned a history degree from UT in 1950 and transferred to the University of Southern California in Los Angeles to study theater history. He quickly found work as an actor, albeit a small role. In what became his first film role, he had an uncredited appearance in the classic 1950 comedy Harvey as a limousine driver.

Parker appeared in various student plays at USC while working on his outside acting career. He would ultimately appear in 40 films and television shows. He appeared in several westerns and television shows in the early 1950s. One movie included a role in the science-fiction film Them! (1954) about a race of mutated, Texas-sized ants.

In 1954, the Walt Disney Company offered him a film contract and signed him to play the legendary Texas hero Davy Crockett in a series of one-hour televised features. He appeared in all seven episodes between 1954 and 1956, forever making Parker and Crockett synonymous with the coonskin cap. Just as television was capturing the imagination of American viewers, Fess Parker became a hero to countless children and families across the nation.

In 1957, he appeared in another Disney classic, Old Yeller, portraying the father of a young boy who found and befriended a yellow dog. Frustrated that the roles that Disney offered were all variations on a theme, Parker left in 1958 to find other roles. He found work in several movies, including westerns such as The Hangman (1959) and war movies such as Hell is for Heroes (1962). In 1962, he also starred in a short-lived series Mr. Smith Goes to Washington, a television version of the classic 1939 film.

Shortly afterward, he won the role of another legendary frontier figure, this time playing famed Kentucky frontiersman Daniel Boone. The show lasted for six years on NBC. After Daniel Boone left the air in 1970, Parker had only two more screen appearances.

In spite of the many fans he had after his iconic roles playing Davy Crockett and Daniel Boone, Parker grew frustrated with the few parts he was otherwise offered. After 1974, he largely retired from acting. He began a successful winery operation in California. His wines are known for having a coonskin cap on the labels, and his family still operates the company today.

Parker died quietly at his home in California in 2010, leaving behind his wife of 50 years, two children, and a generation of fans.

Howe K-2nd grade enter playoffs at 4-2 record; bye week coming up

Howe Bulldogs traveled to Blue Ridge to play the Tom Bean Tomcats on Saturday. By halftime the Bulldogs were up 20-0 thanks to the defensive line led by Gage Owens, Jordan Farmer, and Charles Fuhr. That defensive line had awesome tackles and fumble recoveries. Bulldogs offense was on fire and pre-kindergarten Brennan Sloan had two stellar runs with 11 yards. Howe won 33-0 to complete their preseason schedule with a record of 4-2. The K-2 Bulldogs will have a bye week next week and will start their playoff season October 8.

Howe third and fourth grade shutout S&S, 23-0

Howe's 3rd and 4th grade Bulldogs played the S&S Rams early Saturday morning. The Bulldogs would shut the Rams down on their first series and start their first possession at midfield. The Dogs would score on one of two runs by Beady Kuykendall, his first of the season. The 'Dogs scored again in the second quarter with runningback Braden Ulmer after having a touchdown called back for a questionable block in the back on the offense.

The second half was dominated by the Howe Bulldogs defensive and was led by linemen Aris Fox and Eli Stoner. Howe middle linebacker Beau Stephens also made a touchdown saving tackle deep in the secondary. The 'Dogs would seal the game with a run by quarterback Garren Lankford to give Howe a final winning score of 23-0.

Howe, who is in second place, will host Bells Panthers next week in the Dog Pound in Howe to close the regular season.

Howe's 5th and 6th grade Bulldogs lose shootout, 28-19

Howe played Tom Bean on Saturday morning in Collinsville. The game had huge implications on playoff seedings for each team. Howe desperately needing a win for first round playoff pairings opened the gate quickly with a Ryan Hough scoring strike on a 49

-yard touchdown pass from Austin Haley on the first play of the game to give Howe a 7-0 lead after a successful Carson Daniels point-after run.

Daniels would score later in the game to give Howe a 13-6 lead in the early stages of the second quarter.

Tom Bean ripped off two long touchdowns around the left side of the offense to give them a 20-13 lead at the half.

Haley connected with Cooper Jones on a 4th and long play to keep a third quarter drive alive which allowed Hough to score on a 29-yard reverse 29 yards to narrow the gap, 20-19. Howe went for a two-point conversion, but were unsuccessful.

Tom Bean added one more score to beat the Bulldogs, 28-19.

BUSY PEOPLE

By Mame Roberts

"Every one in America, young and old, seem to keep busy." John F. Kennedy.

People in Howe are busy people, young and old. They are busy doing their part in making Howe a better and happier place in which to live.

Have you taken the time to drive by the little addition of brick apartments in southwest Howe? Did you take a good look at the beauty and attractiveness of each apartment?

Did you notice the vegetable gardens, with a big variety of home-grown food and the young fruit trees, they have planted almost ready to bear a variety of fruit?

Did you notice that everywhere there are flowers, roses, larkspurs, hollyhock, petunias, zenias and other perennial, blooming plants; in a mass of color which delights the eye and heart of the passer-by? Did you notice the beautifully kept lawns which would do credit to any park?

BUSY PEOPLE live in these apartments. They do all the yard work and gardening—the planting of their favorite flowers themselves. Once this plot was a Johnson grass area Work has transformed it into a spot of usefulness and beauty.

They work early and late—out by sunrise with their hoes and rakes, their spades and mowers. These busy people are young in spirit and take great pride in the civic attractiveness they are creating. They are making a contribution to their community and to their own health and happiness. They are BUSY PEOPLE.

Rain last Wednesday and Thursday, according to our rain gauge, measured 4.8 in. Sunday night and Monday's rainfall amounted to 1.7 in.

Then the rain Tuesday was 1.4 inches, making a total of 7.9 for the week to Wednesday noon.

Mr. Ed Kelley who has been for the past three weeks in the Veterans' Hospital at McKinney is reported improving slowly. We wish him a quick recovery.

HOWE'S THAT

The Howe Enterprise

THE HOWE ENTERPRISE, THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 23, 1971--Vol. VII--No. 10

Some of the best advice available is given to young people by Richard Pratt in his recent column "Your Personal Finance." However, young people dare not listen. I know I didn't. Anyway, many of us could profit from the following planned method of saving:

The value of perseverance is obvious just about anywhere you look.

Witness the dedicated termite who chews happily away on the eight-by-10-inch beam that holds up your living room; the gossamer snowflake intent on immobilizing New York City; or the Colorado River carving a crack into the Grand Canyon.

You're certainly no termite, and your interest in the Grand Canyon is probably purely visual, but there is a bit of a moral here that has a practical application: If you want to have a little financial security in your middle-age, the time to begin is when you're young.

With a modest annual goal and the determination to hang in there, you can build yourself something resembling a money machine. It may be a bottom-of-the-line model -- equipped with a hand crank instead of nuclear power -- but it will do quite a job just the same.

For example: How does a self-repeating bank account at age 40 sound? One that will pay you $1,200 a year, while regularly increasing in size, even though you make no deposits.

There's no magic about it; just compounded interest doing its work. The whole trick is based on accumulating enough money so that the money makes money. Here's how it's done:

You begin when you're 25. (Of course, you can also start later, but then the payoff also comes later.) You open a savings account and start making deposits at the rate of $100.00 a month.

At the end of the first year, obviously, you've saved $1,200. But if your money is earning 5 per cent interest, compounded quarterly, that's $32.88 more.

By the end of the second year you've added another $1,200 in deposits, plus nearly $96 in added interest. Already the interest itself has begun to earn more interest and you're on your way.

During the 10th year, the interest alone has reached a significant proportion. While you've added only the usual $1,200 in monthly deposits during the year, your hoard has managed to earn a cool $728.15 in added interest.

But the 15th year is the one that turns the tide. During the 12 months that include your 40th birthday, your account racks up more in interest than you've added in deposits. The interest has reached $1,271.96.

And that's the key to your money making machine. It is now self-powered, and need never quit. From this point on, it will go on generating enough interest to pay you $1,299 a year, and to add something to the principal as well.

By the time you're 55, for example, you will have had 15 years of annual withdrawals, plus a balance of $29,553.74. And that's nearly $3,000 more than you had in the account when you reached 40 and stopped making deposits.

True, $1,200 a year is hardly a fortune, but it is steady. And if you can double your deposits over the first 15 years, you can also double the return once you get rolling.

Board, students, citizens study school dress code

School board members, representatives of the Howe student council, and members of a committee appointed by Board President Dr. Ned Culp met at 1:00 p.m. Wednesday, to discuss the school dress code adopted by the board earlier this year. Although the committee is not complete, Dr. Culp said those appointed to date include Mrs. Dug Wortham, Dale Mark and Rev. Johnny Johnson.

Another meeting will be held within the near future, Dr. Culp said, before recommendations are considered for presentation to the school board.

FIREMEN TO MEET THURSDAY NIGHT

Called meeting for Howe's Volunteer fire department has been scheduled at 8:00 p.m. Thursday, Chief Joe King announced. Meeting will be held in the former city hall building.

National highway week in progress

AUSTIN -- September 19-25 is National Highway Week and the theme: "Roads and Streets -- Backbone of Total Transportation," reminds us how important the more than 70 thousand miles of the Texas Highway network are to the State.

In Texas, about 26 hundred communities have no mode of transportation available, other than highways. Every day, just about every Texan drives on highways or, as a consumer, uses products or services delivered over the roads.

Today the family car is used in almost every phase of family life. It is used to go to church, to the bank, drive-in theaters and restaurants, parks and play grounds.

Other drive-in services available to the family include laundries, dry cleaners, beverage and grocery stores, car washes, mail and library deposit boxes and tax offices.

The average passenger car is driven 9,882 miles a year. Sixty-six percent of this mileage is "necessity" use -- earning a living, going to a doctor or dentist, shopping and the like.

The largest single use of the average automobile is in transporting workers to and from their jobs. More than eight of 10 workers rely on the automobile to go to and from their work.

Almost 355 thousand migratory farm workers depend upon automotive transportation to go where they are needed, when they are needed, to help cultivate and harvest the nation's crops.

Almost 820 thousand businesses -- one of every six -- are in the automotive field. Many of these are small concerns employing fewer than 50 workers.

In 28 of the 50 states, recreational or vacation travel is one of the three most important sources of income. There are about 1.5 million recreational vehicles on the roads today.

Would-be burglar surprised in home

Mrs. Connie Harrah, 911 Western Hills Drive, apparently surprised a would-be burglar about 12:30 Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Harrah told authorities she returned to her home following a beauty appointment, and, upon entering the garage, heard a door close inside the house. Remembering that she had locked the house, Mrs. Harrah went next door to a neighbor's home and phoned the beauty shop.

Authorities answering the call reported the back door open, and that entrance to the home had been made.

Investigating were Howe officers and the Grayson County Sheriff's Department.

Bulldogs to Crandall Friday night;

Howe Bulldogs will place a 1-1 record on the line Friday night in the first out of town game of the season, after falling to a strong Whitewright Tiger eleven, 39-6 last week.

The 'dogs will meet Crandall there, beginning at 8.30 p.m. (Crandall is southeast of Dallas, between Seagoville & Kaufman on Highway 175).

If history keeps repeating itself in regard to the Bulldogs, Friday night's contest will also go to the opponents, as the locals dropped only two games last season in their march to regional honors.

Whitewright overpowered the Bulldogs again this year, racking up more than 300 yds of real estate, while scoring six TD's, the final one to conclude the game. Howe kept one drive going to push across a six pointer in the third period.

Whitewright scored first in the initial quarter on a 57-yard drive following the first of three fumbles lost by the Bulldogs. Phillip Huffman, W W fullback, scored for the Tigers from nine yards out.

The visitors added another seven points on their next possession, covering 67 yards in 11 plays, with Huffman again counting for the Tigers from the one.

Marvin Arterbury then began his three touchdown romp only seconds later, returning a Howe punt 68 yards for the six-pointer, which brought the total to 20-0 at halftime.

The Tigers took the second half kick 69 yards in six plays for their next score, Arterbury receiving the honors on an 18-yard first down play.

Howe's six-pointer was set up by a long gainer by the Bulldog's Donald Pearce, aided by a 15-yard penalty for a first down on the Tiger 17. Gary Troxell, Robert Trotter and Pearce alternated on five plays to move in for the six, with Trotter covering the final six yards around right end.

The visitors added two additional TD's in the final period, on a 13-yard gallop by Arterbury and the final on a 13-yard aerial as time ran out on the scoreboard clock.

Howe's that...

MINI-VACATION - Last Thursday my husband and I took a long weekend vacation just to get away from phones and work for a few days. We had no place in particular to go. We started east going to Tom Bean and then turned south. We had thought about going toward Tyler, but decided we didn't want to drive all day. So we ended up in Rockwall.

While in Rockwall, we stopped in to visit with Congressman Ralph Hall who was home from Washington, D.C. for a few days. We shared experiences about working with newspapers. (He has been a newspaper owner and knows the ins and outs of the newspaper business.)

Congressman Hall also told of some of his experiences in trying to get information from government agencies. One agency gave him quite a run-around until they found out who he was. He said he didn't expect any special treatment. In fact, he feels that the taxpayers should get the special treatment.

It does make sense. After all, these government agencies supposedly work for us, the taxpayers. Hall did say that no call to his office goes unanswered. He and his staff do their best to help people cut through red tape and get the information they need.

Rockwall also has an interesting shopping mall called "Goliad Place." It is made up of several old homes, painted yellow and housing various gift and antique shops. This mall was a very nice place to spend some time (and money).

Since we had no place in particular to go, we just enjoyed being together and driving here and there in the area. We even went to a movie and we had a couple of nice meals. The Hunan Chinese Restaurant in Rockwall serves very good Chinese food. We also enjoyed Poncho's Mexican Buffet in Richardson one afternoon.

All in all, it was a pleasant and restful trip. The kind that gives you a break from the everyday routines.

NANA LANA UPDATE - Grandson Jordan has some special visitors this week. His other grandparents have finally had a chance to meet him and "spoil" him. Mike and Adele Wiggins live in Germany where Mike is in the Army (he was also in Saudi during a big part of the Desert Shield/Desert Storm action).

Monday of this week they arrived at DFW and got to meet Jordan. They will be in the area for a few weeks and so they can now have their turn at spoiling that sweet little grandbaby. Next weekend (Oct. 5) we will be celebrating Jordan's first birthday. It should be a very nice day.

Letters from our readers

Editor's Note: the following letter to Howe Coach Joey McQueen was written by a Howe Bulldog fan on behalf of the many Bulldog fans in Howe. Coach McQueen also received a copy and has read it to the team. The writer asked to be anonymous in order to stand for all Bulldog parents and fans.

Coach McQueen,

For the last three years, it has been my privilege to watch the excellent job you have done coaching the Mighty Howe Bulldogs. They are a team that has the ability and drive to defeat any team in our district. They are fine young men that make the fans proud to call them our own.

It is this time of year, however, that the team seems to feel intimidated by the Pilot Point team. In times past, I have talked to several players about this. Guys, there are only 11 of them on the field at a time. You are only playing one on one. They are NOT a better team than you. For after all, there is no better team than you! No other team has that BULLDOG MAGIC.

I, as a fan of the Mighty Howe Bulldogs, want you to know that as long as you play your best on the field -- win or lose -- you are WINNERS to all of us!! God bless each of you on the field as you play your best.

I will be in the stands yelling for all of you. This includes the 7th, 8th, and JV teams. You are our future and we are proud of the excellent job you do each week.

A fan of the Mighty Howe Bulldogs
(P.S. Parents, please give your kids a little extra moral support this week.)

Bulldogs Stump Little Elm, 32-7

The Howe Bulldogs improved their season record to 2-1 coming from behind to record a 32-7 victory over the Little Elm Lobos Friday, Sept. 20, at Little Elm. Most of Howe's scoring was done in the final quarter of the game.

Coach Joey McQueen said, "I was pleased with the effort of the total team. The young men made some mistakes that put us in a hole in the first half. With the second half effort the young men put forth, they will always have a chance to come from behind."

Jarrod Killough and Jason Williams had an outstanding game at defensive end. Damion Horton and Brian Freese each had an interception. McQueen said, "Our total defense played an outstanding game, allowing minus 28 yards rushing."

Offensively the team played well in the second half, McQueen added. Jared Anderson, Dustin Furbush, Trey Dedman and Tom Catching did an excellent job on the offensive line, McQueen said.

Domingo Rivera scored Howe's first TD with 1:08 left in the first quarter on a 1-yard run. The PAT kick by Monte Walker failed giving Howe a 6-0 lead.

In the the second quarter the Lobos pulled ahead with a 3-yard TD run and a PAT for a 7-6 lead with 4:55 left in the first half.

McQueen said the Dogs weren't as well prepared defensively in the first half as they should have been. The Dogs were also plagued by some dropped punts and fumbles early in the game.

A fired-up team of Bulldogs took control of the field and the ball during the second half, scoring 26 unanswered points, 19 of them in the fourth quarter.

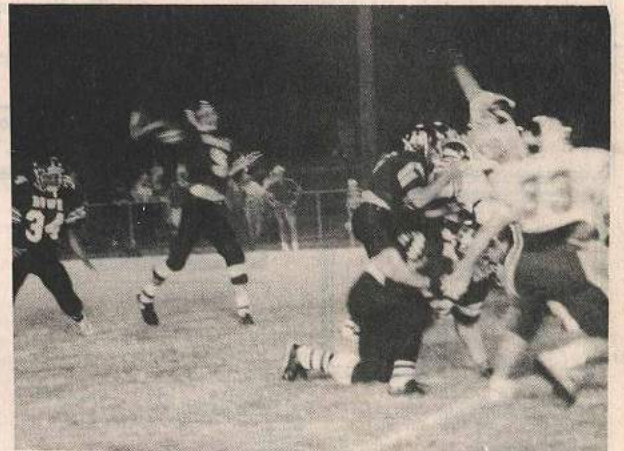

Sophomore quarterback Brian Freese had a 1-yard TD run with 4:29 left in the third quarter. Walker added the PAT for a 13-7 score for the Dogs.

Michael Bailey ran for 10 yards to score a TD with 11:54 left in the game. The PAT failed for a 19-7 score for Howe.

Damion Horton caught a 47-yard TD pass from Freese a less than two minutes later. The PAT failed. With 10:01 left in the game, Howe held a commanding 25-7 lead.

The last score of the night came on a 1-yard TD run by James Fulenchek with 8:16 left on the clock. The PAT was good for the final 32-7 score.

McQueen praised Freese, who completed 8 of 14 passes for 128 yards including a TD. "He is getting better each week. There is still time for him to improve. He will correct some of his mistakes over time." After three games, Freese has completed 17 passes for total of 287 yards and 2 TDs. Freese's favorite target is Horton who has caught 9 for a total of 163 yards including the 2 TDs.

READY TO PASS

On the defense, the Dogs racked up 214 yards on the ground while limiting the Lobos to minus 28 yards rushing.

Leading rushers for the Dogs are Bailey and Rivera. Bailey has carried the ball 42 times in the past 3 games for a total of 382 yards and 1 TD. Rivera has carried the ball 40 times for 260 yards and 3 TDs. Howe is set to enter district play with an average of 206 yards gained on the ground and 92 yards gained in the air.

PILOT POINT IS NEXT
The Dogs will host the Pilot Point Bearcats for the District 11-AA opener at 7:30 p.m. Friday, Sept. 27. The Bearcats come to Howe with a perfect 3-0 record and are the defending 11-AA champions. McQueen said, "Get ready for an exciting week and let's all get excited (about Friday's game)."

Advance tickets are $2.00 for students and $2.50 for adults. They may be purchased until noon at the Howe High School office, Howe Middle School office, and Howe State Bank. At the gate all tickets are $3.00.
